Rhetorics of Value Corinne A. Kratz, 2025-03-28 In Rhetorics of Value Corinne A. Kratz explores how exhibition design creates and conveys values that have the potential to touch, educate and engage visitors. Drawing on case studies from the Victoria and Albert Museum, museums in South Africa and Kenya, a Hawaiian resort hotel and the Smithsonian's National Museum of African American History and Culture among others, Kratz shows how exhibits help shape and narrate cultural categories, values and histories while provoking questions and evoking memories and experiences. She crosses contexts to consider ethnographic history and art exhibits in national and community museums and other display settings. Through these examples, Kratz traces how exhibition designers combine objects, texts, images, lighting, audio, space and narratives to craft a complex, multilayered communicative form that visitors experience as they move through museums. By investigating the relationship between audience reception and exhibition design strategies, Kratz contends that through design, exhibits can shape the ways we know the stories we tell and our contours of meaning and engagement. Handbook of Research on Administration, Policy, and Leadership in Higher Education Mukerji, Siran, Tripathi, Purnendu, 2016-09-27 The creation of a sustainable and accessible higher education system is a pivotal goal in modern society. Adopting strategic frameworks and innovative techniques allows institutions to achieve this objective. The Handbook of Research on Administration, Policy and Leadership in Higher Education is an authoritative reference source for the latest scholarly research on contemporary management issues in educational institutions and presents best practices to improve policies and retain effective governance. Addressing the current state of higher education at an international level, this book is ideally designed for academicians, educational administrators, researchers and professionals. Uprooting University Apartheid in South Africa Teresa A. Barnes, 2018-12-07 South Africa continues to be an object of fascination for people everywhere interested in social justice issues, postcolonial studies and critical race theory, as manifested by the enormous worldwide attention given to the Rhodes Must Fall movement. In this book, Teresa Barnes examines universities' complex positioning in the apartheid era and argues that tracing the institutional legacies left by pro-apartheid intellectuals are crucial to understanding the fight to transform South African higher education. A work of interpretive social history, this book investigates three historical dynamics in the relationship between the apartheid system and South African higher education. First, it explores how the legitimacy of apartheid was historically reproduced in public higher education. Second, it looks at ways that academics maneuvered through and influenced national and international discourses of political freedom and legitimacy. Third, it explores how and where stubborn tendrils of apartheid-era knowledge production practices survived into and have been combatted during the democratic era in South African universities. Remembering the Holocaust in a Racial State Roni Mikel-Arieli, 2022-07-18 The lens of apartheid-era Jewish commemorations of the Holocaust in South Africa reveals the fascinating transformation of a diasporic community. Through the prism of Holocaust memory, this book examines South

African Jewry and its ambivalent position as a minority within the privileged white minority Grounded in research in over a dozen archives the book provides a rich empirical account of the centrality of Holocaust memorialization to the community's ongoing struggle against global and local antisemitism Most of the chapters focus on white perceptions of the Holocaust and reveals the tensions between the white communities in the country regarding the place of collective memories of suffering in the public arena However the book also moves beyond an insular focus on the South African Jewish community and in very different modality investigates prominent figures in the anti apartheid struggle and the role of Holocaust memory in their fascinating journeys towards freedom

Landscapes between Then and Now Nicola Brandt, 2020-09-08 In Landscapes Between Then and Now

Nicola Brandt examines the increasingly compelling and diverse cross disciplinary work of photographers and artists made during the transition from apartheid to post apartheid and into the contemporary era By examining specific artworks made in South Africa Namibia and Angola Brandt sheds light on established and emerging themes related to aftermath landscapes embodied histories un belonging spirituality and memorialization She shows how landscape and identity are mutually constituted and profiles this process against the background of the legacy of the acutely racially divisive policies of the apartheid regime that are still reflected on the land As a signpost throughout the book Brandt draws on the work of the renowned South African photographer Santu Mofokeng and his critical thinking about landscape Landscapes Between Then and Now explores how practitioners who engage with identity and their physical environment as a social product might reveal something about the complex and fractured nature of postcolonial and contemporary societies Through diverse strategies and aesthetics they comment on inherent structures and epistemologies of power whilst also expressing new and radical forms of self determinism Brandt asks why these cross disciplinary works ranging from social documentary to experimental performance and embodied practices are critical now and what important possibilities for social and political reflection and engagement they suggest

RIFT VALLEY FEVER SURVEILLANCE Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2018-09-27 Designed for veterinarians and animal health professionals this guide to effective disease surveillance aims to reduce the socioeconomic consequences of Rift Valley fever outbreaks and prevent them where possible

Belonging Ashwin Desai, Goolam Vahed, 2025-09-23 What does it mean to belong Across oceans and centuries this sweeping narrative shuttles between the corridors of the Colonial Office in London the contested streets of Durban and the changing power dynamics within the British Raj The first boatload of indentured Indians arrived in Natal in 1860 Thousands were to follow In haunting detail the book captures the plight of these labourers as well as the vicious onslaught faced by the merchant class for daring to outpace their colonial rivals At its core are the untold struggles of Indian South Africans as they confront the ever present threat of repatriation Sensitive to shifting political terrains the book weaves together seismic events the independence of India the coming of apartheid and the threat once more of mass expulsions with the texture of everyday life The granting of citizenship in 1961 is accompanied by mass relocations as the Group Areas Act rips communities from their roots Yet out of this despair barren townships on the edges of cities are turned into places of hope In the final chapters the fall of apartheid offers a moment of transcendence Yet it also asks what does it mean at last to belong It is a fascinating story of the global and the local of resistance and collaboration and undefeated optimism This is a book for anyone who has ever sought a place to

Assembly Codes Matthew Hockenberry, Nicole Starosielski, Susan Zieger, 2021-08-02 The contributors to Assembly Codes examine how media and logistics set the conditions for the circulation of information and culture They document how logistics the techniques of organizing and coordinating the movement of materials bodies and information has substantially impacted the production distribution and consumption of media At the same time physical media such as paperwork along with media technologies ranging from phone systems to software are central to the operations of logistics The contributors interrogate topics ranging from the logistics of film production and the construction of internet infrastructure to the environmental impact of the creation distribution and sale of vinyl records They also reveal how logistical technologies have generated new aesthetic and performative practices In charting the specific points of contact dependence and friction between media and logistics Assembly Codes demonstrates that media and logistics are co constitutive and that one cannot be understood apart from the other Contributors Ebony Coletu Kay Dickinson Stefano Harney Matthew Hockenberry Tung Hui Hu Shannon Mattern Fred Moten Michael Palm Ned Rossiter Nicole Starosielski Liam Cole Young Susan Zieger

Avian Malaria and Related Parasites in the Tropics Diego Santiago-Alarcon,Alfonso Marzal,2020-10-19 The Tropics are home to the greatest biodiversity in the world but tropical species are at risk due to anthropogenic activities mainly land use change habitat loss invasive species and pathogens Over the past 20 years the avian malaria and related parasites Order Haemosporida systems have received increased attention in the tropical regions from a diverse array of research perspectives However to date no attempts have been made to synthesize the available information and to propose new lines of research This book provides such a synthesis by not only focusing on the antagonistic interactions but also by providing conceptual chapters on topics going from avian haemosporidians life cycles and study techniques to chapters addressing current concepts on ecology and evolution For example a chapter synthesizing basic biogeography and ecological niche model concepts is presented followed by one on the island biogeography of avian haemosporidians Accordingly researchers and professionals interested in these antagonistic interaction systems will find both an overview of the field with special emphasis on the tropics and access to the necessary conceptual framework for various topics in ecology evolution and systematics Given its conceptual perspective the book will appeal not only to readers interested in avian haemosporidians but also to those more generally interested in the ecology evolution and systematics of host parasite interactions

Pitch Battles Peter Hain,Andre Odendaal,2021-09-01 There will be a black Springbok over my dead body Dr Danie Craven President of the South African Rugby Board 1969 Just a year after the controversial D Oliveira affair the organised disruption of the all white 1969 70 South African rugby and cricket tours to Britain represented a significant challenge to apartheid politics Led by future cabinet minister Peter Hain the Stop the Seventy Tour campaign brought about the cancellation of both tours presaging white South Africa s expulsion from the Olympics and the end of apartheid sport altogether With his brand of attention grabbing direct action sports protest the 19 year old Hain emerged as a hero to some and enemy to others Now reflecting on these experiences with fifty years of hindsight Lord Hain together with South Africa s foremost sports historian and fellow anti apartheid activist Andr Odendaal shows how decades of relentless international and domestic campaigning for equality led to a Springbok team captained by black athlete Siya Kolisi winning the 2019 Rugby World Cup Interspersing a wide range of examples with personal testimony

Pitch Battles explores the themes of sport globalisation and resistance from the deep past to the present day Published in the same year as the Stop The Tour documentary from acclaimed director Louis Myles this compelling story of sacrifice struggle and triumph reveals how sport should never be divorced from politics or society's values

Handbook of Energy Law in the Low-Carbon Transition Giuseppe Bellantuono, Lee Godden, Hanri Mostert, Hannah Wiseman, Hao Zhang, 2023-05-22 The low carbon transition is ongoing everywhere This Handbook written by a group of senior and junior scholars from six continents and nineteen countries explores the legal pathways of decarbonisation in the energy sector What emerges is a composite picture There are many roadblocks but also a lot of legal innovation The volume distils the legal knowledge which should help move forward the transition Questions addressed include the differences between the decarbonization strategies of developed and developing countries the pace of the transition the management of multi level governance systems the pros and cons of different policy instruments the planning of low carbon infrastructures the roles and meanings of energy justice The Handbook can be drawn upon by legal scholars to compare decarbonisation pathways in several jurisdictions Non legal scholars can find information to be included in transition theories and decarbonization scenarios Policymakers can discover contextual factors that should be taken into account when deciding how to support the transition

Rough Diamonds Hendrik Snyders, 2025-08-22 Starting in the late 19th century South African baseball has established a fascinating and multi layered history Initially established by a small group of dedicated pioneers the sport benefited from the contributions of a diverse and multi national group of enthusiasts and opponents including sailors cricketers missionaries activists businessmen and bureaucrats Established at a time of social and political segregation the South African game eventually developed into a system of legislated racism under apartheid Through its willing participation in official race based events the sport was stripped of its innocence and South Africa was formally expelled from the world game only to be readmitted in 1992 following the country's slow transition to democracy This book presents the history of South African baseball from its inception to its liberation from apartheid Based on extensive archival research this is the first integrated history of South African baseball's eventful past

The First Year at School: An International Perspective Peter Tymms, Tiago Bartholo, Sarah Howie, Elena Kardanova, Mariane Campelo Koslinski, Christine Merrell, Helen Wildy, 2023-06-26 This book explores an under researched but vital part of education the first year at primary elementary school The work shows that children's progress varies enormously from school to school class to class and child to child This variation is important because the more progress that children make in that first year of school the higher their academic attainment at the end of compulsory schooling The iPIPS international Performance Indicators in Primary Schools project upon which this book is based has been able to provide deeper insights into some of the key issues within and across different contexts whilst highlighting new and some ongoing issues Despite all the work there remain unanswered or new puzzling issues which are also explored We need to know how to improve the education at that stage and more broadly we need greater clarity about when children should be taught to read and be introduced to formal arithmetic in other words when they should start school We also need to be clearer about whether when and how young children should be assessed The book will suggest some answers but it will raise important questions and dilemmas for which we do not as yet have answers The Rage of Replacement Michael Feola, 2024-07-30

Tracing how the Great Replacement narrative has shaped far right extremism and propelled its dangerous political projects and acts of violence The Great Replacement narrative which imagines that historic white majorities are being intentionally replaced through immigration policies crafted by global elites has effectively mobilized racist nationalist and nativist movements in the United States and Europe The Rage of Replacement tracks how this narrative has shaped the politics and worldview of the far right binding its various camps into a community of rage obsessed with nostalgia for a white supremacist past Showing how the replacement narrative has found significant purchase in recent mainstream discourse through the rise of Trumpism right wing media figures like Tucker Carlson and events such as 2017's Unite the Right rally in Charlottesville Virginia Michael Feola diagnoses the dangers this racist theory poses as it shapes the far right imagination expands through civil society and deforms political culture In particular he tracks how the replacement narrative has given rise to malignant political strategies designed to take back the nation from its perceived enemies by force if deemed necessary Identifying the Great Replacement narrative as a central force behind the rise and expansion of far right extremism Feola shows how it has motivated a variety of dangerous political projects in pursuit of illiberal antidemocratic futures From calls for the creation of segregated white ethnostates to extremist violence such as the mass shootings in Christchurch El Paso and Buffalo The Rage of Replacement makes clear that replacement theory poses a dire threat to democracy and safety
