

The background of the image is a romantic sunset scene. The sky is filled with soft, orange and yellow clouds, and the sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow. In the foreground, there are rolling sand dunes with gentle ripples in the sand. The overall mood is peaceful and loving.

I know I've loved you since I took my first breath on this earth. I've been waiting for you my whole life, and I will love you even after this world takes me.

Until My Whole Life Could Belong:

The Life of John Middleton Murry F.A. Lea, 2021-09-11 First Published in 1959 The Life of John Middleton Murry is the first biography of one of the most controversial figures in English letters Many people know Middleton Murry in one or other of his capacities as editor of the avant grade magazine Rhythm while he was still an undergraduate of The Athenaeum in its last most brilliant phase The Adelphi in the 1920s Peace News in the 40s as the foremost critique of his day as author of some forty books on literary religious and social questions as the husband of Katherine Mansfield and intimate of D H Lawrence as prophet politician or farmer Few even of his most vigorous champions or opponents discerned the consistent purpose uniting all his multifarious activities To trace that is the principal aim of this book Believing that the duty of the official biographer is rather to present than interpret the author makes no attempt to evaluate Murry s theories objectively confining himself to showing how intimately they grew out of his strange tragic and occasionally comic experience At the same time he makes no secret of his own view of Murry s significance both as a thinker and as the representative figure of an age of breakneck social transition The Life of John Middleton Murry will be of interest to scholars and researchers of historical biographies British history and literature

Gilded Amaryllis Dana Krystle , 2025-08-30 Gilded Amaryllis is a companion book for a novel I wrote in 2025 called

Grieving Amaryllis this book is a combination of all the images I used to inspire and write the novel Photography of the locations concept materials character research and landscapes are presented in this art book in a form of collage and digital juxtaposition The main poem was written before writing the novel itself and from then on the story unfolded however in this book most of the poetry came after writing and publishing the novel itself the poetry verses and stanzas are a depiction of the scenes and how the characters were interacting with each other with a small poetic expression on how they felt at that moment A few excerpts of the novel were added in this book including the official song that was composed exclusively for the novel titled Gilded Amaryllis This book is a companion book and is an attempt to create and extend the world of the original novel Grieving Amaryllis in hopes of having a sort of experimental art work in a book companion format to go hand in hand with the same world building and themes

Displacement, Identity and Belonging Alexandra J. Cutcher, 2015-04-27

Displacement Identity and Belonging is a book about difference It deals with ethnicity migration place marginalisation memory and constructions of the self The arts based and auto biographical performance of the many voices in the text compliment and interrupt each other to create a polyvocal rendition of experience The text unfolds through fiction memoir legend artworks photographs poetry and theory historical cultural and political perspectives As such it is a book that confronts what an academic text can be Written in the present tense it weaves its narrative around one small Hungarian migrant family in Australia who are not particularly special or extraordinary Their experience may appear at least on first blush to be paralleled by the post war diasporic experience for a range of nations and peoples However in many ways this is not necessarily so It is this crucial aspect of the idiosyncrasies of difference that is at the core of this work The layering of stories and artworks build upon each other in an engaging and accessible reading that appeals to a multitude of audiences and purposes The book makes significant contributions to the literature on qualitative research and in particular to arts based research auto biographical research and autoethnographic research Displacement Identity and Belonging is in itself an experience of journey in the reading powerfully demonstrating a life forever in transit This work can be used as a core reading in a range of courses in education teacher education ethnicity studies cultural studies sociology psychology history and communication or simply for pleasure Displacement Identity and Belonging offers an excellent example of the use of novel approaches to social research that are designed to raise important questions and provide unique insights The multigenerational perspective of Hungarian migrants to and immigrants in Australia disclosed and examined herein is not merely a fascinating and urgent topic in itself It also encourages and enables the reader to imagine analogous social phenomena in other places and times This fact in conjunction with an extraordinarily effective format is what makes this for readers of all sorts an important and empowering book one that I heartily recommend Tom Barone Professor Emeritus Arizona State University USA Dr Alexandra Cutcher is a multi award winning academic at Southern Cross University Australia Her research focuses on what the Arts can be and do educationally expressively as research method language
