until you've created your own homebrewed games for these innovative systems. With Microsoft's new XNA Framework, the only thing limiting you is your imagination. Now professional game developer and Microsoft DirectX MVP Benjamin Nitschke shows you how to take advantage of the XNA Game Studio Express tools and libraries in order to build cutting edge games. Whether you want to explore new worlds or speed down a city block in a souped up dragster, this book will get you up and running quickly. You'll learn how to implement 3D models, generate huge landscapes, map cool looking shaders to your 3D objects, and much more. Nitschke also steps you through the development of your first fully functional racing game. You'll then be able to apply this information as you write your own XNA cross platform games. What you will learn from this book: Tricks for managing the game engine and user interface; How to program an old school shooter game and space adventure; Tips for improving racing game logic and expanding your game ideas; Methods for integrating amazing visual effects using advanced shader techniques; Steps for adding sound and music with XACT, bringing your game to life; How to fine tune and debug your game for optimal performance. Who this book is for: This book is for anyone who wants to write their own games for the Xbox 360 or Windows platforms. You should have some experience coding with C or a similar .NET language. Bureau of the Census, 1977 Textile World Journal, 1920 Architecture for Housing Djordje Stojanović, 2024-06-04 New fundamentals for designing future oriented housing. This book shows how architectural design can improve housing. It looks at 14 innovative multiunit dwelling projects through the lenses of current research on urban housing systems driven by questions on social, environmental, and economic sustainability. Residential buildings designed for diverse cultural contexts are brought together and examined according to spatial antonyms: the individual and communal, the interior and exterior, and the determined and undetermined, to create a resource for future architectural practice. The book concentrates on design decisions and incorporates rich illustrations and conversations with architects and residents. It follows a series of talks curated by the Melbourne School of Design to extend the debate on the missing links between architectural practice and housing research. New fundamentals for designing future oriented housing. In detail, portraits of 14 impactful multi-unit dwelling projects by international architecture offices. A rich set of illustrations created exclusively for this book.
