7 Sept 2016, 8 Sept 2016. Theme: Sustainable economies in the information economy. Purpose: To share the quality academic papers presented at the International Conference on Business and Management Dynamics (ICBMD) held from 7 to 8

September 2016 at African Pride Crystal Hotel and Spa in Cape Town. As grey literature, the proceedings are the contributions made by researchers at the conference and are considered the written record of the work that was presented to fellow conference delegates. Methodology: The methodology used varies from researcher to researcher but is suitable for the studies conducted. Thus, on the one hand, studies that were subjective in nature used the interpretive paradigm where the qualitative approach adopted made use of the interview method to collect data. On the other hand, studies that were objectively inclined adopted the positivist philosophy and used survey questionnaires to collect data. However, there were some academic papers which used mixed methodology because of the nature of the study. Whatever methodology used adhered to the ethos of the philosophies underpinning the methodology. Contribution made to scholarship: The articles come from individual researchers and each article in the proceedings is unique. Mostly, there is no general argument leading from one contribution to the next. However, it is interesting to note that in the area of economic performance, it was evident that real exchange rate and net foreign direct investment contribute more towards innovations in economic growth. With regard to human capital development, papers presented evidence that there exists a definite need to explore the phenomenon of personal branding as limited scientific academic research has been done within the field of personal branding or on elements of the topic Thus the outcome argues that personal branding has an influence on leadership style which in turn impacts on organisational performance and related hygiene factors Furthermore it was demonstrated that current methods or strategies for enforcing institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation have not been successful and as such new strategies are needed to reinforce efforts to nurture and invigorate the institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation With regard to technology and big data impact on organisational performance it was evident that system performance memory consumption and CPU utilisation can be used as criteria to compare and evaluate big data technologies to improve organisational performance Most of the articles contribution reemphasised technology education and training as a means of digitising business and improving effectiveness Target audience The target readership is academic researchers and business leaders who require access to the latest developments in the fields of economics information management business education development studies social sciences and technology It is also for policymakers and other stakeholders who need a better understanding of the impact of new developments on existing policies and regulations for their review or amendment

Morrison, Dimitrios Buhalis, 2023-09-12 The Handbook offers a comprehensive overview of theoretical and practical perspectives for tracking and interpreting trends and issues in tourism sustainability planning and development management and technology Tourism is a dynamic and unpredictable industry and understanding its trends and issues is critical for the successful and sustainable development of the private and public sector As such this Handbook proposes clear definitions and provides a systematic classification scheme for such analysing It reviews trends and issues in four thematic areas of tourism sustainability planning and development management and technology with contributions from 83 leading tourism scholars from across the globe The Handbook provides insights on the differences among domestic outbound and inbound markets and acknowledges that the supply sub sectors of tourism are diverse highlighting variations by geographic regions The book emphasises the necessity to prioritise sustainability and the achievement of the UN s Sustainable Development Goals SDGs Students and professionals interested in tourism hospitality and sustainability will find a wealth of multidisciplinary knowledge in this Handbook The Social Impacts of Mine Closure in South Africa Lochner Marais, 2022-09-05 This book investigates the relationship between mining mine closure and housing policy in post apartheid South Africa using concepts from new institutional economics and evolutionary governance theory Mine closures present a major challenge to the mining industry and governments with this being particularly noticeable in the Global South This book argues that the dependencies created by the mining industry and mine housing policies while a mine is operational cause serious societal problems when it closes To demonstrate this the book applies the concepts of place attachment asset based development and social disruption Conceptually the book challenges the view that place attachment and asset based development are the most appropriate and often the only policy responses in mining areas In South Africa the mining industry and the government have created comprehensive housing programmes linked to homeownership to promote place attachment stability and wealth among mine workers These programmes do not consider the disruption that mine closure might bring The book challenges the blind application during boom periods of policies which create long term dependencies that are difficult to manage when a mine closes This book will be of interest to students and scholars researching the social impacts of mining and the extractive industries social geography and sustainable development as well as policymakers and practitioners working with mine closure or social impact assessments Higher Education, Community Engagement and Entrepreneurship in Southern Africa I. Corrupted Jonathan D Jansen, 2023-02-01 In South African higher education the images of dysfunction are everywhere Student protests Violence Police presence Rubber or real bullets Class disruptions Burning tyres Damaged buildings Injury and sometimes death Reports of wholesale corruption Year after year often in the same set of universities the problem of routine instability seems insoluble The financial academic and reputational costs of ongoing dysfunction are high especially for those universities caught up in the never ending struggle to overcome apartheid legacies Any number of explanations have been ventured including a lack of resources shortage of capacity rural location corrupt officials and endemic conflict Corrupted takes a deeper look at dysfunction in an attempt to unravel the root causes in a sample of South African universities At the heart of the problem lies the vexed issue of resources or more pertinently the relationship between resources and power who gets what and why Whatever else it aspires to be commonly a place of teaching learning research and public duty a university in an impoverished community is also a rich concentration of resources around which corrupt staff students and those outside of campus all vie for access Taking a political economic approach Jonathan Jansen describes the daily struggle for institutional resources and offers accessible sensible insights He argues that the problem won't be solved through investments in capacity building alone because the combination of institutional capacity and institutional integrity contributes to serial instability in universities Rather durable solutions would include the depoliticisation of university councils and appointments of academics with integrity and capacity to manage and lead these fragile institutions This groundbreaking and long overdue study will offer a promising way forward for universities to better serve their communities and the country more broadly

Deanship in the Global South Oliver J.J. Seale, 2021-02-08 The university today is a postmodern neo liberal competitive boundary less knowledge conglomerate a far cry from its historical traditional classical and collegial roots There is a body of literature on deanship that points to its evolving nature in the contemporary academe characterised by complexity and change Balancing academic demands simultaneously with the requirements for effective performance leadership and management lies at the heart of this very challenging bridging role nowadays Deans are generally former academics emerging from a traditional collegial space and often catapulted into the relatively unknown domain of executive management with its related problems Deans nowadays are required to be more than collegial intellectual leaders They are also meant to be fiscal and human resource experts fundraisers politicians and diplomats Deanship in the Global South Bridging Troubled Waters is about the deans lived reality as they try to balance the demands of both the academe from which they emerge and the administration to whom they now need to account Their lack of preparation and inadequate support points to the need for a more strategic integrated approach to leadership development within their critical bridging roles between the academe and administration
