

WHERE SHOULD WE GO ON SUMMER VACATION?

DIRECTIONS

(CONT.)

- 3) When they have completed their transforming wells, ask students to go back and read all of the reasons that they think their vacation choice is a good one. Have them circle the three reasons that they think are the best to convince someone (like you) should go there this summer.
- 4) Read the essay example (p. 5) aloud and have them identify together the main idea and conclusion. Talk about what the descriptive adjectives, the main idea, the first draft, the editing checklist, and the final draft look like.
- 5) Use the First Draft handout (p. 6) for students to formulate a main idea that will express their idea for a vacation, three detail sentences that support their idea, and a conclusion that restates the main idea in a different way.
- 6) Use the Editing Checklist (p. 7) for students to self or peer-edit their drafts.
- 7) Students can publish their essays and illustrate what their vacation would look like on their dream vacation.

*Display Ideas: Mount final project backgrounds and hang with the "Vacation" theme.

DIRECTIONS

Introduction: If you could go ANYWHERE you wanted this summer on a family vacation, where would you want to go? Your objective is to write a persuasive essay about why your choice would be the perfect vacation. Do your best and take it home to share with your parents... Maybe you'll convince them to go!

Directions: Go to the "Vacation" section of the book and create a list together on the "Vacation" page. Have students start by writing on a sticky note before sharing their ideas. Make as large a list as possible. Examples: swimming, hiking, the beach, the city, an African safari, a cruise, etc.

Use the First Draft handout (p. 6) for students to write as many reasons as they can think of to why their choice would be the perfect vacation. Ask them to write down their top three ideas.

Questions: (Swimming, hiking, etc.)

What are the best places to go?

What are the best things to do there?

What are the best things to eat there?

What are the best things to do there?
