A Women's Lectionary for the Whole Church Year W Wilda C. Gafney, 2021-08-17 What would it look like if women built a lectionary focusing on women's stories What does it look like to tell the good news through the stories of women who are often on the margins of scripture and often set up to represent bad news How would a lectionary centering women's stories chosen with womanist and feminist commitments in mind frame the presentation of the scriptures for proclamation and teaching The scriptures are androcentric male focused as is the lectionary that is dependent upon them As a result many congregants know only the biblical men's stories told in the Sunday lectionary read in their churches A more expansive more inclusive lectionary will remedy that by introducing readers and hearers of scripture to women's stories in the scriptures A Women's Lectionary for the Whole Church when completed will be a three year lectionary accompanied by a stand alone single year lectionary Year W that covers all four gospels

Transfiguration and Hope D. Gregory Van Dussen, 2018-09-17 To read and visualize the transfiguration of Christ is to enter its mystery and encounter its hope Like the Gospel writers and the disciples who climbed the mountain with Jesus we struggle to tell the story and explain its meaning Yet this astounding event reveals God's ultimate purpose in sending his Son the complete restoration of humanity and all creation our transfiguration in Christ The light and glory of that moment reveal a destiny that is infinite and eternal made possible by the power of grace Transfiguration is the trajectory and goal of our spiritual journey Across time and space Christians have reflected on the mystery and hope epitomized in the transfiguration yet their voices have been heard primarily within their own cultural and ecclesiastical contexts This study gathers many of those voices from the panorama of Scripture and church history and finds in them the common theme of radical transformation in Christ The point of this theological conversation is spiritual transfiguration and hope for each of us as we reach toward the future Christ has shown us in himself
