Catholic Theology of Marriage in the Era of HIV and AIDS Emily Reimer-Barry, 2015-04-09 Marriage for Life begins by listening to the lived experiences of Catholic married HIV positive women in order to better understand their struggles The eight women interviewed in Chicago Illinois USA shared their stories of marriage of family life of church involvement and of living with HIV Their candid reflections offer a fresh and grounded perspective on the challenges of living with HIV in a US context After listening to and learning from these women s experiences Reimer Barry constructs a theology of Christian marriage that is life giving in a world with AIDS While Catholic teachings have developed and now affirm the equal dignity of women and men troubling legacies of women s subordination remain embedded in liturgical practices and theological texts Arguing that self care is an indispensable component of a healthy marriage Reimer Barry constructs a life affirming theology of marriage that is sensitive to the struggles of her collaborators She argues that marriage for life must promote the full flourishing of both partners respect wives as equal partners with their husbands and offer a coherent and empowering sexual ethic Building on the wisdom of her collaborators lived experiences Reimer Barry examines the need for a more adequate Catholic response to HIV and AIDS arguing that church communities should promote comprehensive sexual education affirm both abstinence and condom use for HIV prevention and actively work to reduce stigmatizing behaviors within church communities She also unpacks the implications of marriage for life for Catholic liturgical practice marriage preparation programs sexual education programs and family ministries Modeling her method on what Pope Francis calls the art of accompaniment Reimer Barry argues that Catholic theology of marriage must be renewed and updated so that all can plainly understand that marriage is for life

Out of Exodus Darryl W. Stephens, Michael I. Alleman, Andrea Brown, Ruth A. Daugherty, Mary Merriman, 2018-05-02 Biblical and progressive Mainline and charismatic Faithful and questioning This book is not what you think it is The story of the Exodus is told in parallel with testimonies sermons and personal reflections from a congregation in Lancaster Pennsylvania challenging the reader to a journey of faith Along the way it becomes clear that open and affirming ministry transcends LGBTQIA inclusion It is also about race relations poverty generational change divorce immigration and any other human created barrier to loving God and neighbor Tools for the journey Finding a new voice amid profound social change is a difficult and vitally important task Many congregations and entire denominations are in the process of figuring out how to express a new voice of faith particularly in our understanding of sexuality and gender Christians are experiencing nothing less than a holy disruption caused by the Spirit among us The book concludes with a discussion of challenges to community and ministry Helpful appendices provide congregational resources and discussion questions for group study The stories in this book include experiences of and with persons in many denominational settings Roman Catholic Unitarian Universalist Presbyterian Church in Taiwan Metropolitan Community Church United Church of Christ United Brethren Church of the Brethren Society of Friends Quakers and United Methodist This is truly an ecumenical journey Failing Boldly Christian Coon, 2017-06-01 This book is a must read for anyone who has ever tried to energize or grow a ministry Christian Coon takes us through his own missteps and mistakes as the co founder of the Urban Village Church as well as those of others working to do the same and shows how failure can serve as a springboard to new possibilities and even a closer connection to God and what leadership means Woven together with honesty humility and humor we learn to look on failure as an actual gift that can be the gateway to a deeper journey New Common Lectionary for the United Methodist Church United Methodist Church (U.S.), 1988* Transfiguration and Hope D. Gregory Van Dussen, 2018-09-17 To read and visualize the transfiguration of Christ is to enter its mystery and encounter its hope Like the Gospel writers and the disciples who climbed the mountain with Jesus we struggle to tell the story and explain its meaning Yet this astounding event reveals God's ultimate purpose in sending his Son the complete restoration of humanity and all creation our transfiguration in Christ The light and glory of that moment reveal a destiny that is infinite and eternal made possible by the power of grace Transfiguration is the trajectory and goal of our spiritual journey Across time and space Christians have reflected on the mystery and hope epitomized in the transfiguration yet their voices have been heard primarily within their own cultural and ecclesiastical contexts This study gathers many of those voices from the panorama of Scripture and church history and finds in them the common theme of radical transformation in Christ The point of this theological conversation is spiritual transfiguration and hope for each of us as we reach toward the future Christ has shown us in himself
