Navigating the Transition from High School to College for Students with Disabilities Meg Grigal, Joseph Madaus, Lyman Dukes III, Debra Hart, 2018-07-16 Navigating the Transition from High School to College for Students with Disabilities provides effective strategies for navigating the transition process from high school into college for students with a wide range of disabilities As students with disabilities attend two and four year colleges in increasing numbers and through expanding access opportunities challenges remain in helping these students and their families prepare for and successfully transition into higher education Professionals and families supporting transition activities are often unaware of today's new and rapidly developing options for postsecondary education This practical guide offers user friendly resources including vignettes research summaries and hands on activities that can be easily implemented in the classroom and in the community and that facilitate strong collaboration between schools and families Preparation issues such as financial aid applying for college and other long term planning areas are addressed in detail An accompanying student resource section offers materials for high school students with disabilities that secondary educators counselors and transition personnel can use to facilitate exploration and planning discussions Framing higher education as a possible transition goal for all students with disabilities Navigating the Transition from High School to College for Students with Disabilities supports the postsecondary interests of more than four million public school students with disabilities VTAC eGuide 2016 VTAC, 2015-07-15 The VTAC eGuide is the Victorian Tertiary Admissions Centre's annual guide to application for tertiary study scholarships and special consideration in Victoria Australia The eGuide contains course listings and selection criteria for over 1 700 courses at 62 institutions including universities TAFE institutes and independent tertiary colleges Harmonic Maass Forms and Mock Modular Forms: Theory and Applications Kathrin Bringmann, Amanda Folsom, Ken Ono, Larry Rolen, 2017-12-15 Modular forms and Jacobi forms play a central role in many areas of mathematics Over the last 10 15 years this theory has been extended to certain non holomorphic functions the so called harmonic Maass forms The first glimpses of this theory appeared in Ramanujan's enigmatic last letter to G H Hardy written from his deathbed Ramanujan discovered functions he called mock theta functions which over eighty years later were recognized as pieces of harmonic Maass forms This book contains the essential features of the theory of harmonic Maass forms and mock modular forms together with a wide variety of applications to algebraic number theory combinatorics elliptic curves mathematical physics quantum modular forms and representation theory Special Admission Kirsten Hextrum, 2021-08-13 Honorable Mention 2022 Society of Professors of Education Outstanding Book Award Special Admission contradicts the national belief that college sports provide upward mobility opportunities Kirsten Hextrum documents how white middle class youth become overrepresented on college teams Her institutional ethnography of one elite athletic and academic institution includes over 100 hours of interviews with college rowers and track field athletes She charts the historic and contemporary relationships between colleges athletics and white middle class communities that ensure white suburban youth are advantaged in special athletic admissions Suburban youth start ahead in college admissions because athletic merit the competencies desired by university recruiters requires access to vast familial communal and economic resources all of which are concentrated in their neighborhoods Their advantages increase as youth parents and coaches strategically invest in and engineer novel opportunities to maintain their race and class status Thus college sports allow white middle class athletes to accelerate their racial and economic advantages through admission to elite universities

Teaching, Tenure, and Collegiality Mary K. Chang, 2022-02-01 Teaching Tenure and Collegiality espouses the concept of relationality the idea that people's activities necessarily emerge through contextual engagement with others as an alternative to the publish or perish ethos in higher education Building on research by comparative philosophers Mary K Chang constructs a concept of Confucian relationality and engages it to question universities increasing reliance on market oriented metrics to determine their strategic directions and gauge faculty productivity Using a process oriented approach that features change the embodied connectedness of people and the extensive impact of personal cultivation Chang situates higher educational institutions as continually constructed by people's actions in ways that cannot be wholly described or quantified and need not be Values are powerful in educational contexts because they direct how administrators faculty and students focus limited energy Teaching Tenure and Collegiality reevaluates what universities normatively value and offers a holistically expansive view that positions faculty as experts and learners whose activity is inseparable from the contexts constructed by the relationships from which they emerge
