ICEL 2017 - Proceedings of the 12th International Conference on e-Learning Laurie O. Campbell, Richard Hartshorn, 2017 Transforming Transformation in Research and Teaching at South African Universities Rob Pattman, Ronelle Carolissen, 2018-12-21 What is transformation in contemporary South African higher education How can it be facilitated through research and pedagogic practices These questions are addressed in this edited collection by established academics and emerging research students from nine South African universities The chapters give us access to students worlds how they construct experience and navigate their complex spheres on and off campus By engaging with students as knowledge producers we transform popular ways of thinking about race gender class sexuality disability and age as singular and natural markers of difference and diversity Rather than taking diversity as fixed and rooted in nature we explore how diversity is imagined and lived in particular contexts on and off campus Proceedings of the 20th European Conference on Management, Leadership and Governance Mafalda Patuleia, 2024 The Role of Flower Color in Angiosperm Evolution Montserrat Arista, Eduardo Narbona, Justen Whittall, Mani Shrestha, Maria Gabriela Gutierrez Camargo, 2021-11-05

Politicising Polio Diana Szántó, 2019-11-15 This book examines disability in post war Sierra Leone Its protagonists are polio disabled people living in the nation s capital of Freetown organizing themselves as best as they can in a state without welfare There is little concrete support for people with disabilities in a country where the government is struggling with the competing requirements of the international community demanding in exchange for its support good standards of democracy and the maintenance of a free market economy To what extent is the Human Rights framework of the disability movement effective in protecting the polio disabled and what are the limitations of this framework Diana Sz nt s detailed ethnography reveals through many real life examples the vulnerability of disabled people living in the intersections of poverty informality and disability activism At the same time it also tells about the many ways the polio disabled community is transforming vulnerability into strength Leadership and Management Strategies for Creating Agile Universities Connolly, Thomas M., Farrier, Stephen, 2021-12-03 The global higher education sector has changed dramatically as universities continue to face unprecedented challenges associated with the COVID 19 pandemic Many are struggling to navigate this crisis while maintaining high quality course delivery ensuring strong student recruitment numbers and providing clear communication to staff and students Issues have emerged at an exponential rate and coping with the pandemic has been particularly difficult for universities as they serve several functions such as being educational institutions as well as major employers Leadership and Management Strategies for Creating Agile Universities reflects on the challenges that higher education institutions have faced during the pandemic and the associated projected socio economic impact yet to be felt It also considers how different universities have addressed the challenges so as to learn what has and has not worked and speculates what future implications exist for the vision of a new higher education sector in a changing world Covering topics such as developmental leadership IT governance and lifelong learning it is ideal for policymakers industry professionals academicians researchers governors decision makers teachers and students Theoretical and Empirical Studies on Cooperatives Andrew Emmanuel Okem,2016-06-29 The book outlines how cooperatives can be used as a tool for development and reconciliation in post conflict contexts This book also examines the successes and challenges for emerging and existing cooperatives in Africa while delivering both practical lessons and insights into the theory It presents completely new materials on the cooperative movement against a backdrop of increasing global recognition of the roles of cooperatives and collective action in socio economic development Readers are invited to consider how as an economic model that seeks to advance member collective interests cooperatives are invaluable tools for human economic and social development Social and human geographers find this a remarkably impactful contribution to the literature surrounding cooperatives in Africa and cooperative theory in general Policy experts and students also find the research informative and insightful Research Anthology on Approaches to Social and Sustainable Entrepreneurship Management Association, Information Resources,2022-12-27 Social entrepreneurship has grown in popularity in recent decades as a way to use business models and innovation to address social and environmental issues While these ventures are helpful to many emerging opportunities and challenges in the field still need to be explored It is essential to remain knowledgeable on the emerging research within the field of social entrepreneurship so that we may better implement entrepreneurial solutions to social issues The Research Anthology on Approaches to Social and Sustainable Entrepreneurship presents a comprehensive collection of the recent research into the developments challenges and opportunities of social and sustainable entrepreneurship in the modern era Covering topics such as ecotourism leadership styles and poverty alleviation this major reference work is an indispensable resource for business leaders and executives entrepreneurs government officials community leaders students and educators of higher education economists sociologists librarians researchers and academicians Comparing Black Deaths in Custody, Police Brutality, and Social Justice Solutions Simmons, Janelle Christine,2023-05-16 In today s modern era it has never been more crucial to ensure the safety of vulnerable populations in particular Black individuals in custody Further study is required to implement best practices and strategies that improve protection Comparing Black Deaths in Custody Police Brutality and Social Justice Solutions describes the actions that lead to the death of Black people while they are in the process of being detained by a law enforcement agent or are already detained This publication focuses on three core countries America Australia and South Africa where Black deaths in custody appear to occur at higher rates Covering key topics such as racism prejudice and slavery this reference work is ideal for industry professionals law enforcement officers government officials policymakers researchers scholars academicians practitioners instructors and students ICEL 2018 13th International Conference on e-Learning Professor Eunice Ivala,2018-07-05 Language and Institutional Identity in the Post-Apartheid South African Higher Education Leketi Makalela,2022-03-21 This book examines the intersections between education identity formation and language in post apartheid South Africa with specific attention to higher education It does so against the backdrop of the core argument that the sector plays a critical role in shaping re producing and perpetuating sectoral class sub national and national identities which in turn in the peculiar South African setting are almost invariably analogous with the historical fault lines determined and dictated by language as a marker of ethnic and racial identity The chapters in the book grapple with the nuances related to these intersections in the understanding that higher education language policies overt and or covert largely structure institutional cultures or what has been described as curriculum in higher education institutions Together the chapters examine the roles played by higher education by language policies and by the intersections of these policies and ethnolinguistic identities in either constructing and perpetuating or deconstructing ethnolinguistic identities upon which the sector was founded The introductory chapter lays out the background to the entire book with an emphasis on the policy and practice perspectives on the intersections The middle chapters describe the so called White Universities Black Universities and Middle Man Minorities Universities The final chapter maps out future directions of the discourses on language and identity formation in South Africa s higher education

Identity Transformation and Politicization in Africa Toyin Falola, Céline A. Jacquemin, 2022-09-06 Identity Transformation and Politicization in Africa Shifting Mobilization edited by Toyin Falola and C line A Jacquemin questions whether identity is providing and sustaining power for elites or fueling oppression and conflicts being mobilized for exclusionary movements versus inclusive societal changes or educating in ways that foster progress and development Do aspects of African identities and the challenges they present also hold prospects for more inclusive and peaceful democratic and representative futures The contributors cover a wide spectrum of expertise on different African countries Kenya Nigeria Ghana Rwanda Morocco and Libya They come from diverse disciplines History Political Science Public Administration Philosophy Economics and Finance Cultural Studies Music and International Relations and use various methods and approaches in their research Some contributors belong to the groups whose identity is being scrutinized and are participants in the efforts to politicize and mobilize while others remain outside observers who share some traits or interests with the African identities examined and provide different kinds of insights Several chapters explore how innovative pedagogical projects studying African history and identity facilitated by the internet and new social media transform and connect with the African continent Each author provides important insights on how mobilization around identity issues has been shifting with the internet and social media

Convivial Worlds Tina Steiner, 2021-07-29 This book discovers everyday forms of conviviality in fiction and life writing from Eastern and Southern Africa It focuses on ordinary moments of recognition of hospitality of humour and kindness in everyday life to illuminate the significance of repertoires of repair in a world broken by relations of power Through close readings of specific capacities of living with difference the book excavates ideas of world making personhood and the possibilities of alternative social imaginaries from African perspectives It highlights evanescent and more durable attempts at building solidarity across local and translocal settings by focussing on modes of address that invite reciprocity in contexts of injustice which include Apartheid colonialism racism patriarchy and xenophobia Putting current research on conviviality in conversation with the literary texts the book demonstrates how conviviality emerges as an enabling ethical practice as critique and survival strategy and as embodied lived experience The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of Literary and Cultural Studies especially Postcolonial Literature African Studies and Indian Ocean Studies

Handbook of Research on Information and Cyber Security in the Fourth Industrial Revolution Fields, Ziska, 2018-06-22

The prominence and growing dependency on information communication technologies in nearly every aspect of life has opened the door to threats in cyberspace Criminal elements inside and outside organizations gain access to information that can cause financial and reputational damage Criminals also target individuals daily with personal devices like smartphones and home security systems who are often unaware of the dangers and the privacy threats around them The Handbook of Research on Information and Cyber Security in the Fourth Industrial Revolution is a critical scholarly resource that creates awareness of the severity of cyber information threats on personal business governmental and societal levels The book explores topics such as social engineering in information security threats to cloud computing and cybersecurity resilience during the time of the Fourth Industrial Revolution As a source that builds on available literature and expertise in the field of information technology and security this publication proves useful for academicians educationalists policy makers government officials students researchers and business leaders and managers

Working with indigenous knowledge Fhumulani M. Mulaudzi, Rachel T. Lebese, 2022 The aim of the book is to assist both local and international scholars in articulating the scholarly discourse on indigenous health attitudes practices and experiences The indigenous lens that was used to generate and disseminate indigenous knowledge in this book will strengthen indigenous scholarship thus making it accessible to a wider audience In addition the information shared in this book will add value for scholars and assist them with the indigenous knowledge needed to address sustainable development goals This book is timeous and topical as the discourse on the decolonisation of the curriculum is widely debated in the higher education space The discourse on the scholarship of indigenous knowledge as the tacit local knowledge that stems from cultural practices within communities has not been well articulated in the current health science education milieu Indigenous knowledge has remained overlooked and undermined for a very long time and the information remains untapped in local communities The scholars who conducted the research on which this book is based unearthed a wealth of knowledge which was tacit in nature and translated it into implicit knowledge that can be documented and shared with other scholars globally This knowledge will assist health care scholars in benefiting from knowledge practices and cultural beliefs that will assist them in health care planning teaching evidence based practice and further research
