SADC Gender Protocol 2013 Barometer ,2013-09-25 In August 2008 Heads of State of the Southern African Development Community adopted the ground breaking SADC Protocol on Gender and Development This followed a concerted campaign by NGOs under the umbrella of the Southern Africa Gender Protocol Alliance By the 2013 Heads of State summit 13 countries had signed and 12 countries had ratified the SADC Gender Protocol The Protocol is now in force With two years to go time is ticking to 2015 when governments need to have achieved 28 targets for the attainment of gender equality In keeping with the Alliance slogan Yes we must this 2013 Barometer provides a wealth of updated data against which progress will be measured by all those who cherish democracy in the region The SADC Gender and Development Index SGDI introduced in 2011 complements the Citizen Score Card CSC that has been running for five years to benchmark progress

Language and Institutional Identity in the Post-Apartheid South African Higher Education Leketi Makalela,2022-03-21 This book examines the intersections between education identity formation and language in post apartheid South Africa with specific attention to higher education It does so against the backdrop of the core argument that the sector plays a critical role in shaping re producing and perpetuating sectoral class sub national and national identities which in turn in the peculiar South African setting are almost invariably analogous with the historical fault lines determined and dictated by language as a marker of ethnic and racial identity The chapters in the book grapple with the nuances related to these intersections in the understanding that higher education language policies overt and or covert largely structure institutional cultures or what has been described as curriculum in higher education institutions Together the chapters examine the roles played by higher education by language policies and by the intersections of these policies and ethnolinguistic identities in either constructing and perpetuating or deconstructing ethnolinguistic identities upon which the sector was founded The introductory chapter lays out the background to the entire book with an emphasis on the policy and practice perspectives on the intersections The middle chapters describe the so called White Universities Black Universities and Middle Man Minorities Universities The final chapter maps out future directions of the discourses on language and identity formation in South Africa s higher education

Practices and Perspectives of Teaching and Teacher Education in Africa Boadu, Gideon,Odhiambo, George,Marandi, Pegah,2023-09-25 Teacher education is a known variable that impacts the quality of teaching and schooling yet while research on practices in teaching and teacher education abound in other contexts there seems to be no comprehensive reference work on teaching and teacher education in Africa With Africa and the diaspora boasting rich diverse political and educational contexts and practices this gap in knowledge requires that attention be focused on investigating issues that shape the pace course and direction of teaching and teacher education in these contexts Practices and Perspectives of Teaching and Teacher Education in Africa facilitates scholarly discussions among scholars and practitioners about practices innovations and future possibilities for educating the next generation of competent students and teachers in Africa Covering topics such as educational reforms equity career progression and curriculum development this major reference work is ideal for administrators industry professionals researchers academicians scholars practitioners instructors and students
