University Of Pretoria Courses 2014:

Here is a Table Ndumiso Dladla,2020-12-04 Our understanding of racism is that it is the systematic doubt concerning the humanity of the other It is a means to an end namely to pursue the dehumanisation of the other for one s sole and exclusive benefit The doubt is in itself ethically indefensible Yet it ultimately acquires the status of an incontrovertible truth around which economic and political life is organised and conducted This has been and continues to be the reality in South Africa today The hypothesis of this book is that a philosophical historical study of racism will reveal that it has only ever been and continues to be white supremacy In South Africa the actuality of the doubt is that it has always arisen from one side whiteness and directed itself against the other blackness Our purpose is to show that racism properly speaking is white supremacy and that it cannot be properly understood without African philosophy Open and Distance Education in

Asia, Africa and the Middle East Olaf Zawacki-Richter,Adnan Qayyum,2019-02-18 This book is open access under a CC BY 4 0 license This book describes the history structure and institutions of open and distance education in six countries China India Russia Turkey South Africa and South Korea It describes how open and distance education is evolving in a digital age to reflect the needs and circumstances of the national higher education systems in these countries It also explores the similarities and differences between how their open and distance higher education systems are managed and structured This book is the second in a series following Open and Distance Education in Australia Europe and the Americas Springer 2018 Both books compare and draw conclusions about the nature of open and distance education in the context of various national higher education systems In a digital era characterized by the growing use of online open and distance education this book will prove particularly valuable for policy makers and senior administrators who want to learn about establishing or expanding open and distance education services In addition it offers a valuable reference guide for researchers academics and students interested in understanding the different approaches to open and distance education 2014 International

Land and Hydropolitics in the Nile River Basin Emil Sandstrom, Anders Jagerskog, Terje Oestigaard, 2016-08-05 The Nile River Basin supports the livelihoods of millions of people in Egypt Ethiopia Sudan and Uganda principally as water for agriculture and hydropower The resource is the focus of much contested development not only between upstream and downstream neighbours but also from countries outside the region This book investigates the water land and energy nexus in the Nile Basin It explains how the current surge in land and energy investments both by foreign actors as well as domestic investors affects already strained transboundary relations in the region and how investments are intertwined within wider contexts of Nile Basin history politics and economy Overall the book presents a range of perspectives drawing on political science international relations theory sociology history and political ecology

From #RhodesMustFall Movements to #HumansMustFall Movements Artwell Nhemachena, Jairo Kangira, 2021-05-14 Might it be possible that the world is being migrated into an era where the imperial periphery will be increasingly governed through Artificial Intelligence AI and robotics designed to replace human beings Celebrated as efficient strong unfailing tireless precise and beyond corruption AI and robots are set to replace African leaders who are imperially deemed to be and consistently condemned as corrupt failed weak and inefficient But if these AI and robots are neo imperial tools and machinations the million dollar question is whether empire is not returning to recolonise the supposedly inefficient Africans via the new technologies and machinism Where Africans once celebrated their liberation war movements empire has emplaced what it calls liberation technologies designed to supposedly liberate African youths from their own states and governments led by liberation movements Where Africans once celebrated their liberation war movements empire has placed its own NGOs CSOs spewing liberal ideologies designed to ostensibly liberate African youths from their own supposedly failed and corrupt states and government leaders With African youths citizens allying not with their liberation movements but with the liberation technologies and liberal NGOs CSOs it is not surprising why African citizens oppose their states led Fast Track Land Redistribution Programmes while ironically they happily celebrate Fast Tracked COVID 19 Vaccines

Positing the notion of HumansMustFall movements this book underscores ways in which empire is in a process of eternal return to 21st century Africa The book is crucial for scholars and activists in political science government studies sociology anthropology cultural studies history languages and communication studies security studies military studies and development studies
