University Durban Application Forms For 2015:

International Climate Change Law Daniel Bodansky, Jutta Brunnée, Lavanya Rajamani, 2017-06-08 This textbook by three experts in the field provides a comprehensive overview of international climate change law. Climate change is one of the fundamental challenges facing the world today and is the cause of significant international concern. In response, states have created an international climate regime. The treaties that comprise the regime: the 1992 United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, the 1997 Kyoto Protocol, and the 2015 Paris Agreement, establish a system of governance to address climate change and its impacts. This book provides a clear analytical guide to the climate regime as well as other relevant international legal rules. The book begins by locating international climate change law within the broader context of international law and international environmental law. It considers the evolution of the international climate change regime and the process of law making that has led to it. It examines the key provisions of the Framework Convention, the Kyoto Protocol, and the Paris Agreement. It analyses the principles and obligations that underpin the climate regime as well as the elaborate institutional and governance architecture that has been created at successive international conferences to develop commitments and promote transparency and compliance. The final two chapters address the polycentric nature of international climate change law as well as the intersections of international climate change law with other areas of international regulation. This book is an essential introduction to international climate change law for students, scholars, and negotiators.

Food Science and Technology Oluwatosin Ademola Ijabadeniyi, 2020-12-07 Food Science and Technology Trends and Future Prospects presents different aspects of food science, i.e. food microbiology, food chemistry, nutrition, process engineering, that should be applied for selection, preservation, processing, packaging, and distribution of quality food. The authors focus on the fundamental aspects of food and also highlight emerging technology and innovations that are changing the food industry. The chapters are written by leading researchers, lecturers, and experts in food chemistry, food microbiology, biotechnology, nutrition, and management. This book is valuable for researchers and students in food science and technology, and it is also useful for food industry professionals, food entrepreneurs, and farmers.

Vol 1 Rinos Mwanaka,Felix Rodriguez,2017-02-03 This project come out from our need to harness voices in Africa and Latin America giving these voices an opportunity to converse argue synthesize agree and share ideas on the craft of writing on life on being and on thinking for the benefit of all It was also an opportunity to create literary friendships and contacts between these two great regions Generally Latin America and Africa still have a lot of stories to share among themselves and with the rest of the world There are still very strong untapped storytelling traditions in these continents The stories in this volume are selected from an amazing range of entries to a call for contributions to an anthology on experimentation It is hoped this robust selection will serve a wide variety of tastes in both Spanish and English and that the book will open dialogue and the sharing of ideas between the two regions and the whole world This is an invaluable contribution on many fronts Political Values and Narratives of Resistance Fiona Anciano,Joanna Wheeler,2021-03-23 This book brings together multidisciplinary perspectives to explore how political values and acts of resistance impact the delivery of social justice in post colonial states Everyday life in post colonial states such as South Africa and Zimbabwe is characterized by injustices that have both a historical and contemporary nature From fishers in Cape Town accused of poaching to residents of Bulawayo demanding access to water this book focuses on the relationship between the state and groups that have been historically oppressed due to being on the margins of the political economic and social system It draws on empirical research from 12 scholars looking at cases in Brazil India South Africa and Zimbabwe Chapters explore questions such as what citizens especially those from marginalized groups want from the state The book looks at the political values of citizens and how these are formed in the process of engaging with the state and through everyday injustices It also asks why and how citizens resist the state with examples of protest as well as less visible forms of resistance reflecting complex histories and power relations Finally the book explores how narratives and counter narratives reveal the nature of political values and perceptions of what is just Taken together these elements show the evolution of post colonial social contracts Examining important themes in political science anthropology sociology and urban geography this book will appeal to scholars and students interested in political values justice social movements and resistance
