Campbell, Richard Hartshorn, 2017 Exploring Police Integrity Sanja Kutnjak Ivković, M. R. Haberfeld, 2019-11-09 This work provides an innovative new look at police ethics including results from an updated version of the classic Police Integrity Questionnaire including new social and technological advances It aims to push the study of police research further expanding on and testing police integrity theory and methodology the relationship between community and integrity and the influence of multiculturalism and globalization on policing and community attitudes This work brings together experienced scholars who have used the police integrity theory and the accompanying methodology to measure police integrity in eleven countries and provide advance and sophisticated explorations of the topic Organized into three thematic sections it explores the testing methodology for international comparisons insights into police community relations and explores police subcultures This innovative book will be of interest to researchers in criminology criminal justice particularly with an interest in policing as well as related fields such as sociology public policy and comparative law Urban Inclusivity in Southern Africa Hangwelani H. Magidimisha-Chipungu, Lovemore Chipungu, 2021-09-28 This book s point of departure rests on the premises that dimensions of the mainstream inclusive city discourse fail to capture in detail vulnerable clusters of society being women children and the aging the minority clusters i e the blind the disabled and migrants In addition it fails to recognize the increase of spatial inequality driven by racial and class differences a factor that has seen an increase in community violence and protests The focus on spatial inequality has for a long time blind folded urban authorities to ignore exclusion arising out of the same environments created with a notion of creating inclusivity Hence this book collapses spatial walls as it seeks to uncover the true perspectives of inclusivity in cities beyond spatial dimensions but within social realms The depth of this book s enquiry rests on its critical investigation of Southern African cities through historical epochs of apartheid and colonialism in the region

Extractive Industries and Changing State Dynamics in Africa Jon Schubert,Ulf Engel,Elisio Macamo,2018-07-04 This book uses extractive industry projects in Africa to explore how political authority and the nation state are reconfigured at the intersection of national political contestations and global transnational capital Instead of focusing on technological zones and the new social assemblages at the actual sites of construction or mineral extraction the authors use extractive industry projects as a topical lens to investigate contemporary processes of state making at the state corporation nexus Throughout the book the authors seek to understand how public political actors and private actors of liberal capitalism negotiate and redefine notions and practices of sovereignty by setting legal regulatory and fiscal standards Rather than looking at resource governance from a normative perspective the authors look at how these negotiations are shaped by and reshape the self conception of various national and transnational actors and how these jointly redefine the role of the state in managing these processes for the greater good Extractive Industries and Changing State Dynamics in Africa will be useful for researchers upper level students and policy makers who are interested in new articulations of state making and politics in Africa

The Geography of South Africa Jasper Knight,Christian M. Rogerson,2018-10-03 This edited collection examines contemporary directions in geographical research on South Africa It encompasses a cross section of selected themes of critical importance not only to the discipline of Geography in South Africa but also of relevance to other areas of the Global South All chapters are original contributions providing a state of the art research baseline on key themes in physical human and environmental geography and in understanding the changing geographical landscapes of modern South Africa These contributions set the scene for an understanding of the relationships between modern South Africa and the wider contemporary world including issues of sustainable development and growth in the Global South

Global Childhoods in International Perspective: Universality, Diversity and Inequalities Claudio Baraldi,Lucia Rabello De Castro,2020-02-10 Global Childhoods in International Perspective gathers a wide spectrum of contributors from Europe the U S South Asia South Africa and Latin America who attuned with present dilemmas in the area of childhood studies discuss some key theoretical and empirical aspects of child scholarship such as identity child wellbeing child mobility and migration intergenerational relationships and child abuse Through these expert contributions the book explores the many ways in which the relationship between universality and particularities of childhood plays an important role in describing global childhoods The book highlights childhood as a cross cutting issue in global sociology with chapters on globalization and schooling in Burkina Faso child abuse and neglect in India identity and integration among children of African immigrants in France social class mobility of Filipino migrant children in Italy and France and an investigation into Kyrgyz childhoods Ideal reading for researchers practitioners and students interested in both childhood studies and the other areas including community research sociology of education social stratification and the sociology of migration Language Narratives and Shifting Multilingual Pedagogies Belinda Mendelowitz, Ana Ferreira, Kerry Dixon, 2022-12-15 Winner of the UKLA Academic Book Award 2024 This book challenges monoglossic ideologies traditional language pedagogies and dominant forms of knowledge construction by foregrounding multilingual and multicultural students language narratives repertoires and identities The research is based on a sixteen year longitudinal study of a sociolinguistics course at an English language university and the language narratives produced by the first year education students The study was borne out of a need to create a critically inclusive course that would engage a cohort of students from socially and linguistically diverse backgrounds in contemporary South Africa Drawing on data from over 5 000 students who have journeyed through this course this book shows how a narrative heteroglossic pedagogy harnesses students multilingual strengths A close analysis reveals complex identity work by students located in the Global South The authors argue that decolonising language education is about reconceptualising language reconfiguring what knowledges are valued in the classroom and reshaping pedagogy

The ^Astruggle for Freedom from Fear Alison Brysk, 2018-08-01 How can we understand and contest the global wave of violence against women In this book Alison Brysk shows that gender violence across countries tends to change as countries develop and liberalize but not in the ways that we might predict She shows how liberalizing authoritarian countries and transitional democracies may experience more shifting patterns and greater levels of violence than less developed and democratic countries due to changes and uncertainties in economic and political structures While a combination of international action law public policy civil society mobilization and changes in social values work to decrease gender violence Brysk assesses the potential limits and balance of these measures

Environment, Climate, and Social Justice Devendraraj Madhanagopal, Christopher Todd Beer, Bala Raju Nikku, André J. Pelsner, 2022-07-09 This book approaches environmental climate and social justice comprehensively and interlinked The contributors predominantly from the Global South and have lived experiences challenge the eurocentrism that dominates knowledge production and discourses on environmental and climate in justices The collection of works balances theoretical empirical and practical aspects to address environmental and climate justice challenges through the lens of social justice This book gives voice to scholars of the Global South and uses an interdisciplinary approach to show the complexity of the problem and the opportunities for solutions making this book a powerful resource in teaching research and advocacy efforts The innovativeness of this approach stems from the use of narratives scientific explanation and thematic analysis to present the arguments in each chapter of this edited book Overall each chapter of this book acts as a powerful resource in teaching research and advocacy efforts This book fills a gap in the Global South production of environmental climate and social justice It provides in depth knowledge to the readers and raises their critical thinking about key elements discussions of justice issues of environmental conflicts and climate change The book is a useful read to a general audience interested in the topic of climate environment and development politics ECCWS 2020 19th European Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security Dr Thaddeus Eze, Dr Lee Speakman, Dr Cyril Onwubiko, 2020-06-25 These proceedings represent the work of contributors to the 19th European Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security ECCWS 2020 supported by University of Chester UK on 25 26 June 2020 The Conference Co chairs are Dr Thaddeus Eze and Dr Lee Speakman both from University of Chester and the Programme Chair is Dr Cyril Onwubiko from IEEE and Director Cyber Security Intelligence at Research Series Limited ECCWS is a well established event on the academic research calendar and now in its 19th year the key aim remains the opportunity for participants to share ideas and meet The conference was due to be held at University of Chester UK but due to the global Covid 19 pandemic it was moved online to be held as a virtual event The scope of papers will ensure an interesting conference The subjects covered illustrate the wide range of topics that fall into this important and ever growing area of research Africa's Soft Power Oluwaseun Tella, 2021-05-23 This book investigates the ways in which soft power is used by African countries to help drive global influence Selecting four of the countries most associated with soft power across the continent this book delves into the currencies of soft power across the region from South Africa's progressive constitution and expanding multinational corporations to Nigeria's Nollywood film industry and Technical Aid Corps TAC scheme Kenya's sport diplomacy fashion and tourism industries and finally Egypt's Pan Arabism and its reputation as the cradle of civilisation The book asks how soft power is wielded by these countries and what constraints and contradictions they encounter Understandings of soft power have typically been driven by Western scholars but throughout this book Oluwaseun Tella aims to Africanise our understanding of soft power drawing on prominent African philosophies including Nigeria's Omoluwabi South Africa's Ubuntu Kenya's Harambee and Egypt's Pharaonism This book will be of interest to researchers from across political science international relations cultural studies foreign policy and African Studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781003176022> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Torpor and Hibernation: Metabolic and Physiological Paradigms Sylvain Giroud, Robert Henning, Yoshifumi Yamaguchi, Jérémy Terrien, 2024-06-21 Torpor or heterothermy corresponds to a state of depressed metabolism and is associated with specific metabolic cellular and molecular adaptations that often occur on a seasonal basis Yet the exact mechanisms and functioning of these changes are poorly understood Interestingly the potential of such extraordinary animal adaptation for human and animal health as well as other biomedical considerations has raised particular attention especially in the last decade The strong metabolic and physiological adaptations of heterotherms can be of particular inspiration for current biomedical and pathological situations e.g. obesity and related diseases cardiovascular and metabolic dysfunctions ischemia reperfusion injuries immune depression and for the health and longevity of animal species including humans

Politics at a Distance from the State Lucien van der Walt, Kirk Helliker, 2022-08-23 For decades most anti capitalist and anti imperialist movements identified radical transformation with capturing state power The collapse of these statist projects from the 1970s led to a global crisis of left and working class politics But crisis has also opened space for rediscovering alternative society centered anti capitalist modes of bottom up change operating at a distance from the state These have registered important successes in practice such as the Zapatistas in Mexico and Rojava in Syria They have been a key influence on movements from Occupy in United States to the landless in Latin America to anti austerity struggles in Europe and Asia to urban movements in Africa Their lineages include anarchism syndicalism autonomist Marxism philosophers like Alain Badiou and radical popular praxis This path breaking volume recovers this understanding of social transformation long side lined but now resurgent like a seed in the soil that keeps breaking through and growing It provides case studies with reference to South Africa and Zimbabwe and includes a dossier of key texts from a century of anarchists syndicalists insurgent unionists and anti apartheid activists in South Africa Originating in an African summit of radical academics struggle veterans and social movements the book includes a preface from John Holloway

Debating African Philosophy George Hull, 2018-11-21 In African countries there has been a surge of intellectual interest in foregrounding ideas and thinkers of African origin in philosophy as in other disciplines that have been unjustly ignored or marginalized African scholars have demonstrated that precolonial African cultures generated ideas and arguments which were at once truly philosophical and distinctively African and several contemporary African thinkers are now established figures in the philosophical mainstream Yet despite the universality of its themes relevant contributions from African philosophy have rarely permeated global philosophical debates Critical intellectual excavation has also tended to prioritize precolonial thought overlooking more recent sources of home grown philosophical thinking such as Africa's intellectually rich liberation movements This book demonstrates the potential for constructive interchange between currents of thought from African philosophy and other intellectual currents within philosophy Chapters authored by leading and emerging scholars recover philosophical thinkers and currents of ideas within Africa and about Africa bringing them into dialogue with contemporary mainstream philosophy foreground the relevance of African theorizing to contemporary debates in epistemology philosophy of language moral political philosophy philosophy of race environmental ethics and the metaphysics of disability make new interventions within on going debates in African philosophy consider ways in which philosophy can become epistemically inclusive interrogating the contemporary call for decolonization of philosophy Showing how foregrounding Africa its ideas thinkers and problems can help with the project of renewing and improving the discipline of philosophy worldwide this book will stimulate and challenge everyone with an interest in philosophy and is essential reading for upper level undergraduate students postgraduate students and scholars of African and Africana philosophy
