The Last Elephants Colin Bell, Don Pinnock, 2019-03-01 The Africa wide Great Elephant Census of 2016 produced shocking findings a decimated elephant population whose numbers were continuing to plummet Elephants are killed on average every 15 20 minutes a situation that will see the final demise of these intelligent extraordinary animals in less than three decades They are a species in crisis This magnificent book offers chapters written by the most prominent people in the realm of conservation and wildlife among them researchers conservationists film makers criminologists TV personalities and journalists Photographs have been selected from among Africa s best wildlife photographers and the Foreword is provided by Prince William It is hoped this book will create awareness of the devastating loss of elephant lives in Africa and stem the tide of poaching and hunting that it will inspire the delegates to CITES to make informed decisions to ensure that all loopholes in the ivory trade are closed and that countries receiving and using ivory both legal and poached primarily China Vietnam Laos and Japan ban and strenuously police its trade and use within their borders actively pursuing and arresting syndicate leaders driving the cruel poaching tsunami This book is also a tribute to the many people who work for the welfare of elephants particularly those who risk their lives for wildlife each day often for little or no pay in particular the field rangers and the anti poaching teams and to the many communities around Africa that have elected to work with elephants and not against them The Last Elephants is the title prophetic We hope not but the signs are worrying

The Wiley Handbook of Home Education Milton Gaither,2016-12-12 The Wiley Handbook of Home Education is a comprehensive collection of the latest scholarship in all aspects of home education in the United States and abroad Presents the latest findings on academic achievement of home schooled children issues of socialization and legal argumentation about home schooling and government regulation A truly global perspective on home education this handbook includes the disparate work of scholars outside of the U S Typically understudied topics are addressed such as the emotional lives of home educating mothers and the impact of home education on young adults Writing is accessible to students scholars educators and anyone interested in home schooling issues Measuring Transboundary Water Cooperation Saruchera, D.,Lautze, Jonathan,2015-12-31 Water cooperation has received prominent focus in the post 2015 United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs While proposals for measuring water cooperation appear to be converging toward a small set of indicators the degree to which these proposed indicators draw on past work is unclear This paper mines relevant past work to generate guidance for monitoring the proposed SDG target related to transboundary water cooperation Potential measures of water cooperation were identified filtered and applied in three countries Botswana South Africa and Zimbabwe Six indicators were ultimately determined as being suitable for measuring water cooperation As the SDG process turns its focus to the selection of indicators the indicators proposed in this paper may merit consideration Communities and Cultural Heritage Valerie Higgins,Diane Douglas,2020-11-29 Communities and Cultural Heritage explores the relationship between communities their cultural heritage and the global forces that control most of the world s wealth and resources in today s world Bringing together scholars and heritage practitioners from nine countries this book contributes to the ongoing dialogue on community heritage by analysing impediments to full community participation The underminin of local communities comes at a high price As the chapters in this book demonstrate the knowledge embedded within traditional and Indigenous heritage creates communities that are more resilient to environmental and social stressors and more responsive to contemporary challenges such as climate change environmental degradation post disaster recovery and relocation Cultural heritage practices often fail to capitalise upon local knowledge and traditional skills and undervalue the potential contribution of local communities in finding creative and resourceful solutions to the issues they are confronting Arguing that the creation of successful community heritage project requires ongoing reflection on the aims methods financing and acceptable outcomes of projects the volume also demonstrates that the decolonization of Western focussed heritage practices is an ongoing process by which subaltern groups are brought forward and given a space in the heritage narrative Reflecting on trends that impact communities and heritage sites across different geographical regions Communities and Cultural Heritage will be of interest to academics students and practitioners of cultural heritage archaeology and anthropology around the world

Working with indigenous knowledge Fhumulani M. Mulaudzi, Rachel T. Lebesse, 2022 The aim of the book is to assist both local and international scholars in articulating the scholarly discourse on indigenous health attitudes practices and experiences The indigenous lens that was used to generate and disseminate indigenous knowledge in this book will strengthen indigenous scholarship thus making it accessible to a wider audience In addition the information shared in this book will add value for scholars and assist them with the indigenous knowledge needed to address sustainable development goals This book is timeous and topical as the discourse on the decolonisation of the curriculum is widely debated in the higher education space The discourse on the scholarship of indigenous knowledge as the tacit local knowledge that stems from cultural practices within communities has not been well articulated in the current health science education milieu Indigenous knowledge has remained overlooked and undermined for a very long time and the information remains untapped in local communities The scholars who conducted the research on which this book is based unearthed a wealth of knowledge which was tacit in nature and translated it into implicit knowledge that can be documented and shared with other scholars globally This knowledge will assist health care scholars in benefiting from knowledge practices and cultural beliefs that will assist them in health care planning teaching evidence based practice and further research
