The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology and Anthropology of Rock Art Bruno David, Ian J. McNiven, 2018-10-17 Rock art is one of the most visible and geographically widespread of cultural expressions and it spans much of the period of our species existence Rock art also provides rare and often unique insights into the minds and visually creative capacities of our ancestors and how selected rock outcrops with distinctive images were used to construct symbolic landscapes and shape worldviews Equally important rock art is often central to the expression of and engagement with spiritual entities and forces and in all these dimensions it signals the diversity of cultural practices across place and through time Over the past 150 years archaeologists have studied ancient arts on rock surfaces both out in the open and within caves and rock shelters and social anthropologists have revealed how people today use art in their daily lives The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology and Anthropology of Rock Art showcases examples of such research from around the world and across a broad range of cultural contexts giving a sense of the art's regional variability its antiquity and how it is meaningful to people in the recent past and today including how we have ourselves tended to make sense of the art of others replete with our own preconceptions It reviews past present and emerging theoretical approaches to rock art investigation and presents new cutting edge methods of rock art analysis for the student and professional researcher alike

The Fluvial Imagination Colin Hoag, 2022-11-08 Landlocked and surrounded by South Africa on all sides the mountain kingdom of Lesotho became the world's first water exporting country when it signed a 1986 treaty with its powerful neighbor An elaborate network of dams and tunnels now carries water to Johannesburg the subcontinent's water stressed economic epicenter Hopes that proceeds from water sales could improve Lesotho's fortunes however have clashed with fears that soil erosion from overgrazing livestock could fill its reservoirs with sediment In this wide ranging and deeply researched book Colin Hoag shows how producing water commodities incites a fluvial imagination a sense for how water flows As we enter our planet's water export era Lesotho exposes the possibilities and perils ahead Colin Hoag's keen ethnographic eye shows how the Basotho's beloved pula rain was transformed into exportable and commodified water demonstrating how dams are entangled with a host of thorny social and political issues James Ferguson author of Give a Man a Fish Reflections on the New Politics of Distribution A rich account of the ecological political and economic contradictions produced through Lesotho's water export economy The work is engaging and well written based on long term fieldwork in Lesotho's grazing communities where lives and livelihoods are bound by the state's management of water Laura A Ogden author of Swamplife People Gators and Mangroves Entangled in the Everglades A beautifully written and thoroughly interdisciplinary book that shows why and how it is necessary to engage histories of racialization and commoditization in scientific practice on the one hand and natural scientific practices in the social sciences on the other In describing the ongoing histories and infrastructures that make water and empire durable forces Hoag's work is a wonderful and timely contribution Nikhil Anand author of Hydraulic City Water and the Infrastructures of Citizenship in Mumbai Action Research Jean McNiff, 2017-04-10 This book gives you all you need to know about action research why you need to know it and how it can help you become a self reflective practitioner researcher It provides the ideas and frameworks to understand action research combined with a practical workbook to guide you through the practicalities and complexities of doing action research in your own context Inside you will find An action plan to help you embark on your project Guidance and advice on learning to ask the right questions as you progress A full resource on writing up and communicating your results Inspiration to explain the significance of what you have achieved so that other people can learn with and from you Accessible and insightful this is the complete start to finish guide to doing influential action research It is the ideal companion for students and researcher practitioners in any research setting from education and health to business A Proposal for the Expanded Fruition of Cultural Heritage Sites Carla Ferreyra, 2025-05-06 This book presents a comprehensive methodology integrating analysis digitization and the preservation of cultural heritage It investigates three potential UNESCO World Heritage Sites in Italy Germany and South Africa and employs a blend of documentary research and advanced digital surveying and data processing techniques The volume shows how these efforts yielded actionable strategies to meet society's evolving demands for surveying recovery and conservation The book documents the work behind the overarching objective which was to digitize analyze categorize and store all collected data within a BIM framework with the aim of streamlining collaboration enhancing management efficiency and optimizing processes It demonstrates the utilization of digital tools in not only amplifying traditional scientific technological approaches to heritage protection but also its role in reshaping the perception comprehension and communication of heritage This fosters the development of more sustainable conservation strategies The PhD Experience in African Higher Education John Mashayamombe, Ruth Murambadoro, uMbuso weNkosi, 2022-11-08 The PhD Experience in African Higher Education

edited by Ruth Murambadoro John Mashayamombe and uMbuso weNkosi addresses the growing call to invest in the humanities and social sciences by exploring the nature of doctoral training in select institutions of higher learning in South Africa In the past two decades South Africa has become a key player in the global higher education landscape and dubbed the hub for doctoral training in Africa because of its developed educational infrastructure and highly ranked universities Given South Africa s positioning the contributors in this volume argue that the government donors universities and faculty have a socio legal duty to ensure that doctoral programs in the humanities and social sciences are not offered to amass numbers of African graduates but are grounded on equipping students with both hard and soft skills necessary to succeed This is achieved by offering skills training and research apprenticeships fostered in communities of practice because as the contributors show the humanities and social sciences are the backbone of society Furthermore they argue that treating doctoral candidates as equal partners is emancipatory because intellectual projects are best nurtured through collaborative learning

Imperial Sexism Denise M. Walsh, Associate Professor of Politics Denise M Walsh, 2025-10-03 The 1972 photograph said it all Three young Afghani women strolling in downtown Kabul wearing miniskirts The stark contrast with their 21st century burka wearing sisters was undeniable Years later many Afghani women in Kabul concealed themselves from view under sky blue cloaks that enveloped their bodies from head to toe their faces covered by a mesh screen These women lived under the threat of the Taliban an ultraconservative militant group determined to impose an austere version of Islam on the entire country During his first term President Donald J Trump showed little interest in these blue bundled women For years he had derided U S involvement in Afghanistan lambasting its expense railing against Afghanis whom he claimed hated us inveighing against the conflict as a total disaster 1 Once in the Oval Office Trump resolutely pursued an end to America s longest war Provided by publisher

Land, Law and Chiefs in Rural South Africa William Beinart, Rosalie Kingwill, Gavin Capps, 2021-05-01 This edited collection illustrates contestations over land and political authority in South Africa s rural areas focusing on threats to popular rights and how they are being supported Who controls the land and minerals in the former Bantustans of South Africa chiefs the state or landholders Disputes are taking place around the ownership of resources decisions about their exploitation and who should benefit With respect to all of these issues the courts have become increasingly important The contributors to Land Law and Chiefs in Rural South Africa capture some of these intense contestations over land law and political authority focussing on threats to the rights of ordinary people History and customary law feature strongly in most disputes and succession to chieftaincy is also frequently disputed Judges have to make decisions in a context where rival claimants to property or office assert their own versions of history and custom The South African constitution recognizes customary law and the courts are attempting to incorporate and develop this branch of jurisprudence as living customary law Lawyers community leaders and academics are called on to assist in researching cases around restitution land rights and customary law The chapters in this collection discuss legal cases and policy directions that have evolved since 1994 Some chapters analyze the increasing power of chiefs in the South African rural areas while others suggest that the courts are giving support to popular rights over land and supporting local democratic processes Contributors record significant pushback from groups that reject traditional authority These political tensions are a central theme of the collection and thus serve as vital case studies in furthering our understanding of rights and restitution in South Africa The Oxford Handbook of the South African Economy Arkebe Oqubay, Fiona Tregenna, Imraan Valodia, 2021-11-18 While sharing some characteristics with other middle income countries South Africa is a country with a unique economic history and distinctive economic features It is a regional economic powerhouse that plays a significant role not only in southern Africa and in the continent but also as a member of BRICS However there has been a lack of structural transformation and weak economic growth and South Africa faces the profound triple challenges of poverty inequality and unemployment Any meaningful debate about economic policies to address these challenges needs to be informed by a deep understanding of historical developments robust empirical evidence and rigorous analysis of South Africa's complex economic landscape This volume seeks to provide a wide ranging set of original detailed and state of the art analytical perspectives that contribute to scientific knowledge as well as to well informed and productive discourse on the South African economy While concentrating on the more recent economic issues facing South Africa the handbook also provides historical and political context It offers an in depth examination of strategic issues in the country's key economic sectors and brings together diverse analytical perspectives Universities, Inclusive Development and Social Innovation Claes Brundenius, Bo Göransson, José Manoel Carvalho de Mello, 2016-10-25 This book examines the ways in which universities can play a crucial role in inclusive development social innovation and social entrepreneurship It aims to prove the importance of inclusive development and inclusive innovation on economic growth and demonstrate the ways in which universities can be pioneers in this area through initiatives in social responsibility and social innovation For example providing access to a university education without discrimination of race gender income status or other factors would help to diminish the increasing income differentials currently being experienced in many countries especially in the developing world The research and studies included in this book provide insight into possible actions that can be taken by universities and public and private shareholders in inclusive development social innovation social entrepreneurship and overall regional economic and social development Innovation is currently considered to be the most important and dynamic factor explaining growth and development At the same time the traditional view considering innovation as having to be commercialized at any price is being challenged Lately there has been growing interest in innovation in the public sector particularly with respect to social innovations designed to reduce income inequality To address these concepts constant exchange of ideas and information between research groups became necessary UniDev Universities in Development the Evolving Role of Academic Institutions in Innovation Systems and Development is an international research group with researchers in twelve countries interested in the role of universities in development This book features the results of research performed by eleven research groups from UniDev country communities presenting in depth and comparative case studies from universities around the world including Latin America Northern and Eastern Europe and sub Saharan Africa This title will be of interest to students academics researchers and policy makers interested in the role of universities in development social innovation and social entrepreneurship

The Origin and Growth of Geography as a discipline at South Africa Universities Gustav Visser,2016-09-20 The publication provides the first comprehensive text that reflects on a century of the development of geography as an academic discipline at South African universities The book showcases a broad and textured review of South Africa s geography departments their staff members their times and the different Geographies they engaged in The book lays the foundation from which more expansive individual departmental histories can be written in the future

A Broadband Apparatus for Underserviced Remote Communities Christoffel Kotze,2019-09-03 This book investigates how broadband internet can be provided to remote and isolated communities through the use of satellite and other enabling technologies in the form of a self contained broadband apparatus It discusses how the proposed design can help bridge the digital divide by removing one of the main hurdles to adopting technologies infrastructure In turn the book explores how the lack of infrastructure especially with regard to connectivity and electricity can be addressed by exploiting new technological advances in a number of fields notably the newly proposed large broadband satellite constellations In closing it uses concrete examples to demonstrate the potential positive impacts of a broadband ecosystem on economics governance and society and on achieving the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals

Migration in Southern Africa Pragna Rugunanan,Nomkhosi Xulu-Gama,2022-05-30 This open access Regional Reader proposes new ways of theorizing migration in Southern Africa by arguing that traditional western forms of theorizing do not adequately fit the South South migration context It explores the existing definitions of a migrant with a view to conceptualise a definition which will speak to the complexities envisioning a more inclusive Southern African region The book investigates the various levels of migration moving from the local rural to urban and urban to rural to cross border migration middle class versus working class migrant household livelihoods livelihoods procurement versus wage earning social capital networks and how they make meaning of their circumstances in a foreign space It also acknowledges the intertwined issues of gender and class as important in analyzing migration processes and the chapters feature both in varying dimensions As such the book provides a great resource for students academics and policy makers

Lion's Share Veit Erlmann,2022-10-28 In the aftermath of apartheid South Africa undertook an ambitious revision of its intellectual property system In Lion's Share Veit Erlmann traces the role of copyright law in this process and its impact on the South African music industry Although the South African government tied the reform to its postapartheid agenda of redistributive justice and a turn to a postindustrial knowledge economy Erlmann shows how the persistence of structural racism and Euro modernist conceptions of copyright threaten the viability of the reform project In case studies ranging from antipiracy police raids and the crafting of legislation to protect indigenous expressive practices to the landmark lawsuit against Disney for its appropriation of Solomon Linda's song Mbube for its hit The Lion Sleeps Tonight from The Lion King Erlmann follows the intricacies of musical copyright through the criminal justice system parliamentary committees and the offices of a music licensing and royalty organization Throughout he demonstrates how copyright law is inextricably entwined with race popular music postcolonial governance indigenous rights and the struggle to create a more equitable society Developing and Supporting Multiculturalism and Leadership Development Enakshi Sengupta, Patrick Blessinger, Mandla Makhanya, 2020-09-23 The modern notion of humanism centres on the core qualities in all humans agency dignity and development primarily concerned with addressing contemporary human needs concerns and problems This book has an interdisciplinary focus on the development of human capacity at all levels with the view that higher education is well suited for all A Turbulent South Africa Jérôme Tournadre, 2018-03-01 Frequently praised for its democratic transition South Africa has experienced an almost uninterrupted cycle of social protest since the late 1990s There have been increasing numbers of demonstrations against the often appalling living conditions of millions of South Africans pointing to the fact that they have yet to achieve full citizenship A Turbulent South Africa offers a new look at this historic period in the existence of the young South African democracy far removed from the idealistic portrait of the Rainbow Nation Jérôme Tournadre draws on interviews and observations to take the reader from the backstreets of the squatters camps to international militant circles and from the immediate infra political level to the worldwide anti capitalist protest movement He investigates the mechanisms and the meaning of social discontent in light of several different phenomena These include the struggle of the poor to gain recognition the persistent memory of the fight against apartheid the developments in the political world since the Mandela Years the coexistence of liberal democracy with a popular politics found in poor and working class districts and many other factors that have played a crucial part in the social and political tensions at the heart of post apartheid South Africa Earth's Oldest Rocks Martin J. Van Kranendonk, Vickie Bennett, Elis Hoffmann, 2018-09-26 Earth's Oldest Rocks Second Edition is the only single reference source for geological research of early Earth This new edition is an up to date collection of scientific articles on all aspects of the early history of the Earth from planetary accretion at 4 567 billion years ago Ga to the onset of modern style plate tectonics at 3 2 Ga Since the first edition was published significant new advances have been made in our understanding of events and processes on early Earth that correspond with new advances in technology The book includes contributions from over 100 authors all of whom are experts in their respective fields The research in this reference concentrates on what is directly gleaned from the existing rock record to understand how our planet formed and evolved during the planetary accretion phase formation of the first crust the changing dynamics of the mantle and style of tectonics life's foothold and early development and mineral deposits It is an ideal resource for academics students and the general public alike Advances in early Earth research since 2007 based primarily on evidence gleaned directly from the rock record More than 50% of the chapters in this edition are new and the rest of the chapters are revised from the first edition with more than 700 pages of new material Comprehensive reviews of areas of ancient lithosphere from all over the world and of crust forming processes New chapters on early solar system materials composition of the ancient atmosphere hydrosphere and overviews of the oldest evidence of life on Earth and modeling of early Earth tectonics      National Youth Development Agency Annual Report South Africa. National Youth Development Agency,2016      Funeral Culture Casey Golomski,2018-06-04 Contemporary forms of living and dying in Swaziland cannot be understood apart from the global HIV AIDS pandemic according to anthropologist Casey Golomski In Africa s last absolute monarchy the story of 15 years of global collaboration in treatment and intervention is also one of ordinary people facing the work of caring for the sick and dying and burying the dead Golomski s ethnography shows how AIDS posed challenging questions about the value of life culture and materiality to drive new forms and practices for funerals Many of these forms and practices newly catered funeral feasts an expanded market for life insurance and the kingdom s first crematorium are now conspicuous across the landscape and culturally disruptive in a highly traditionalist setting This powerful and original account details how these new matters of death dying and funerals have become entrenched in peoples everyday lives and become part of a quest to create dignity in the wake of a devastating epidemic      Teacher and School Resilience in an Era of Uncertainty Joanna Madalińska-Michalak, Maria Assuncao Flores,2025-11-20 This book explores the nature of teacher and school resilience in times of uncertainty and how resilience can be nurtured within individual schools and educational systems as a whole Innovative approaches to exploring these concepts are presented as well as the role of educational research and practice in providing opportunities for sustainable peaceful and equitable growth of societies where diversity and diversification under conditions of uncertainty and risk are appreciated The book s contributors show that teacher and school resilience can be promoted through high quality teacher education and nurtured by school leaders at different levels Directions for future research are also indicated The book enriches relevant theory and research in the field of teaching teacher professional development teacher education education policy and school leadership
