The human dilemma of displacement Alfred R. Brunson, 2020-12-31 In this book social responsive theological research converges to provide practical theological and ecclesiological perspectives on the growing human dilemma of displacement The book presents the research of practical theologians a missiologist and a religious practitioner whose work pertains first and foremost to the South African context The different fields of expertise of the contributors within the broader field of practical theology worked towards a unique compilation of themes each relevant to the issue at stake The majority of chapters are theoretically orientated except where authors refer to empirical work conducted during previous research The main contribution of this collaborative work is to be sought in the practical theological and ecclesiological perspectives it provides It engages the critical questions of what kind of church we need and what kind of care we should provide in the face of the growing predicament of human displacement The theological and theoretical principles uncovered in the different chapters will be of use to theologians from all theological subdisciplines as well as to religious practitioners and leaders of faith communities that are challenged with the growing realities of strangers on their doorsteps and in their pews

A path to wellness in the educational and health systems Lynn Preston, Wanda van der Merwe, 2023-11-30 The Six Bricks initiative is a teaching and learning method that encourages focused engagement in the classroom by all learners from the foundation phase to adulthood By using six simple colourful DUPLO bricks an element of play is introduced into a situation that inevitably leads to all individuals focusing and interacting This is one of the major contributions to all teaching and learning disciplines and promotes the audience to learn with enjoyment enthusiasm and concentration Along with this communication is promoted sparking unimaginable creativity and creation This book provides the reader with an alternative focus to the original educational application of the Six Bricks activities This Six Bricks initiative focuses on the therapeutic application and processes in communities schools and within individuals themselves As each author has had an intimate connection with Six Bricks initiative they are all more than qualified to provide their autoethnographic reflections on this initiative which holds so much promise and excitement for learning and teaching Therefore each author s contributions were original and personalised providing a new field in the avenues of research in the South African context as South Africa does not have as yet much research on this topic The methodology used in this qualitative research study was primarily from each author s perspective thus their self reflection and anecdotal personal experiences form the core of these chapters Therefore this autoethnographic is a self reflective form of writing which involves self observation and reflective investigation in the context of ethnographic fieldwork and writing Collaborative community partnerships across education settings Mariëtte P. Koen, Luiza O. De Souza, 2025-02-25 This book features chapters by scholars from various education fields specialising in sustainability As the first volume in North West University s Community based Educational Research Series it focuses on transforming education through a participatory approach The authors explore quality education across early childhood primary secondary and higher education by examining collaborative efforts among practitioners parents and teachers This scholarly book provides empirical evidence on how collaborative initiatives can promote sustainable development These initiatives encourage partnerships among community leaders educators learners nongovernmental organisations government and the private sector for lifelong learning and professional development It highlights southern African experiences in collaborative education aligned with the United Nations sustainable development goal of achieving quality education The book demonstrates various research designs and methods applied to educational practice from early childhood to tertiary levels through empirical research and community projects

Biblical Theology of Life in the New Testament Francois P. Viljoen, Albert J. Coetsee, 2021-11-30 This publication deals with A Biblical Theology of Life based on the New Testament It forms the second of a two volume publication on A Biblical Theology of Life These two volumes trace the concept of life throughout Protestant canon working with the final form of the biblical books in Hebrew vol 5 and Greek vol 6 Scripture This is done by providing the reader with a book by book overview of this concept This book concludes with a final chapter synthesising the findings of the respective investigations of the Old and New Testament corpora in order to provide a summative theological perspective of the development of the concept through Scripture It is clear that life forms a central and continuous theme throughout the Biblical text The theme begins with the living God that creates life but is shortly followed by death that threatens life Despite this threat God sustains life and awakens life from death The text concludes with the consummation depicting eternal life in the new heaven and earth The biblical theological approach that has been taken entails a thematic approach as it investigates the concept of life with contextual foci on what individual books of Scripture teach about life joined diachronically with an investigation of the progressive use of the concept of life in Scripture while providing a theology of Scripture as a whole investigating the concept of life in all sixty six books of the Protestant canon

The Balancing of Interests in Environmental Law in Africa Willemien Du Plessis, 2011 Now that economic development is starting to pick up in many countries in Africa the question arises how such development can be balanced with the need for adequate environmental protection This crucial issue inherent in the notion of sustainable development is addressed in this innovative and path breaking volume For the first time academics from seventeen African countries have joined forces to analyse the way in which economic and environmental interests are balanced in their legal systems The authors all use a common framework to improve the comparability of the country studies The different country related chapters do not only provide insights into the formally applicable legal rules law in the books but given that the book brings together academics aware of the practice in Africa they also describe the way in which environmental policy functions in practice law in action Many case studies with conceptual analyses are provided of pollution incidents and the way in which administrative agencies or courts have on those occasions balanced the interests between the economy society and the environment A critical comparative analysis by the editors points at tendencies towards convergence and points of divergence between the African countries Suggestions for policy reform are also formulated showing African countries how they can benefit from experiences in the US and Europe This thought provoking volume is a must for anyone academic policymaker or practitioner interested in sustainable development generally and in Africa in particular P 4 of cover Rhetoric in 2Maccabees Nicholas Peter Legh Allen, Pierre J. Jordaan, 2021-01-29 From a religious historical perspective 2Maccabees should be considered a watershed narrative one that describes the threat of Hellenisation to traditional Jewish religious society However by the time 2Macc was written c 124 BCE Judaism had already been greatly Hellenised and quite ironically the Jewish opponents to Hellenisation were deliberately employing Greek rhetorical and literary competencies to combat supposedly iniquitous Greek influences Accordingly 2Macc has intrigued scholars since at least the nineteenth century Here research has variously focused on the grammatical historical approach 1891 to 1949 the socio economical approach 1959 to 1985 and the ubiquitous impact of Hellenisation 1986 to 2012 The chapters in this book reflect post 2012 insights of nine prominent scholars dedicated to presenting some of the very latest findings in the context of 2Macc research Here they make use of some of the latest methods with particular emphasis on narratology and rhetoric This book which offers a wide spectrum of the latest theological insights into Second Temple Judaism should be considered an essential source for serious Biblical scholars
