

International Student Application Form for Admission 2016

Conditions of Enrollment

1. TUITION AND OTHER FEES

The details of tuition fees payable (which refer to the current Stratford College brochure and the College website) (A-AU$211,000 non-refundable deposit may be required either a provisional package) offer is required. This deposit will be deducted from the tuition fee. A Student Fee may apply for some courses and is in addition to the course fee. Other a student receives Stratford College is covered by an annual fee or other arrangement. A service fee will apply. A portion of tuition fees will be paid to referring Education or Migration Agents for more information and your education or Migration Agent.

Please note that a late payment penalty of $50 will apply. Payments are made thereafter agreed due dates. Special considerations may be granted to assist late payment fees. However, it should be communicated before enrolment applied prior to due dates. Approval of the application is subject to Stratford College faculty's final decision.

2. FEE PAYMENT SCHEDULE

Before a Confirmation of Enrollment (CoE) is issued students are required to pay Stratford College the English Fee up to a max. study of 36 weeks tuition and the VET Course at minimum (which is equal to 78 weeks tuition fees in addition to OHEC Fee and any other fee that are due). For VET students further tuition fee payments are to the point of the beginning of each semester. Non-payment of fees may result in cancellation of enrolment and Stratford College reporting the student to the Department of Immigration (DHS). Accommodation, personal insurance and student expenses are not included in the fees quoted and are the responsibility of the student. Payment by credit card may attract an additional charge.

3. RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING (RPL)

Students may apply for exemptions providing evidence of relevant skills and knowledge. These exemptions will only be granted when all the stated learning outcomes and performance criteria of the Vocational Education and Training (VET) course will have been demonstrated. Where RPL is granted before your visa has been issued, then the period of the course will be adjusted appropriately when the CoE is issued. If RPL is granted after your visa has been issued then the College will report the change to DHS. A full time study load (20 hours per week) must be maintained.

4. PRIVACY POLICY

Personal information is obtained solely for the purpose of operating as a Registered Training Organisation under the new Standards for RTOs (2015). The information provided to the student may be made available to Commonwealth and New South Wales Government agencies and the ESOS Assessment Fund Manager under the ESOS Act 2008 and the National Code 2007. Stratford College is required under Section 16 of the ESOS Act 2008 to notify DHS of changes to a student's enrolment and any breach by a student of student visa conditions relating to attendance or academic performance. It is a requirement of the new Standards for RTOs (2015) that students can access personal information held by the College and may request corrections to information that is inaccurate or out of date. Please apply to the Registrar if you wish to view your own records. From time to time, the College will conduct monitoring activities such as visiting read or write to existing and past students or telephone students. Students may request to be removed from any mailing list at any time by writing to the College. Further information regarding your privacy rights may be obtained via the Australian Government's website: www.privacy.gov.au. Regarding US Please refer to the college website www.usc.org.au otherwise provided to access the latest school or provincial and privacy statement.

5. STUDENT VISA REQUIREMENTS

Australian Government Regulations specify conditions on the issuing of a student visa. One of these is the requirement to attend 80% of classes. Failure to satisfy these conditions will result in the student of the Stratford College learning and reporting processes. For details see the Student Handbook for English and VET students on www.stratfordcollege.edu.au.

Please note: the length of your COE/VISAT cover the total length of your course(s) in Stratford College. For further details: www.stratfordcollege.edu.au

6. ACCOMMODATION

Stratford College will provide, upon request, details of a range of accommodation services and providers in Sydney. It requires Stratford College will provide housing assistance. However, Stratford College is not responsible for or makes no guarantee about any accommodation services or costs.

7. APPROVED LEAVE (DHP)

Not only permit periods of leave for major illness, accident or exceptional compassionate circumstances e.g. Family bereavement. DHS does not permit reasons such as weddings, pregnancy, and children's cultural and religious activities as acceptable reasons for leave. The length of Approved Leave is to be similar to leaving with the reason for the leave. Students must apply for Approved Leave in writing and submit supporting documentation (e.g. a medical certificate from a registered medical doctor, death certificate and return air tickets). If leave is granted beyond two weeks students will be required to defer their studies for the duration of the leave and reapply for their visa once the leave is over. Stratford College will notify DHS.

8. DEFERMENT OR SUSPENSION OF COURSE

In accordance with Standard 13 of the National Code, an overseas student may defer the commencement of studies only on the grounds of serious illness or injury, confirmed by a medical doctor's certificate, or exceptional circumstances beyond the control of the student (e.g. bereavement). If a student defers or suspends their studies, their student visa may be affected and Stratford College must notify DHS. Students may request deferment only once. A student may request to suspend their studies during the course based on the same evidence. Students may only change to another college within the first six months under exceptional circumstances.

Social Policy in Post-Apartheid South Africa Ndangwa Noyoo,2019-11-01 This book critically examines the current social policy in post apartheid South Africa and proposes an alternative social policy agenda to create a new development pathway for the country Taking social policy as a vehicle that will facilitate the creation of a new society altogether namely the Good Society the author argues for the adoption of policy that will socially re engineer South Africa The author shows how the policy tools and development interventions which were undertaken by the post apartheid state in driving South Africa s transformation agenda failed to emancipate many individuals families and communities from the cycle of intergenerational poverty and underdevelopment He contends that social policy interventions that foster the social re engineering of South African society must take place to untangle the inherited colonial apartheid social order This book includes comparative analyses on the Global South and Global North to present the ways in which countries such as post Second World War Great Britain and Sweden and post independence Zambia of the 1960s and 1970s were able to use social policy to create new societies altogether or places similar to the Good Society The conceptual and methodological issues that form the basis for this book reside in public policy making and the public good and will be of interest to scholars of social policy social development and

South African society Polymers and Two-Dimensional Nanocomposites Rotimi Sadiku, Yskandar Hamam, Suprakas Sinha Ray, Oladipo Folorunso, 2024-11-23 Polymers and Two Dimensional Nanocomposites provides a detailed review of recent progress in this important research field. The chapters cover new developments in synthesis methods, fabrication techniques, sample preparation methods, surface modification, characterization methods of enhancing the properties of these materials and industrial applications in energy, environmental, oil and gas, sensors, corrosion, biomedical and structural applications. The book provides a valuable reference resource for academic and industrial researchers, materials scientists and engineers working in the fields of polymer science and engineering, polymer composites and nanocomposites. Covers recent developments in synthesis, characterization, properties and applications. Discusses new fabrication techniques and how to select the right processing conditions. Systematic presentation of theoretical and experimental investigation of properties for various industrial applications. Attention is given to current challenges and future improvements. Black Opera Naomi Andre, 2018-05-04 From classic films like Carmen and Jones to contemporary works like The Diary of Sally Hemings and U Carmen, eKhayelitsa American and South African artists and composers have used opera to reclaim black people's place in history. Naomi Andre draws on the experiences of performers and audiences to explore this music's resonance with today's listeners. Interacting with creators and performers as well as with the works themselves, Andre reveals how black opera unearths suppressed truths. These truths provoke complex if uncomfortable reconsideration of racial, gender, sexual and other oppressive ideologies. Opera in turn operates as a cultural and political force that employs an immense transformative power to represent or even liberate. Viewing opera as a fertile site for critical inquiry, political activism and social change, Black Opera lays the foundation for innovative new approaches to applied scholarship. Urban Neighbourhood Formations Hilal Alkan, Nazan Maksudyan, 2020-03-04 This book examines the formation of urban neighbourhoods in the Middle East, Africa and South Asia. It departs from neighbourhoods to consider identity, coexistence, solidarity and violence in relations to a place. Urban Neighbourhood Formations revolves around three major aspects of making and unmaking of neighbourhoods: spatial and temporal boundaries of neighbourhoods, neighbourhoods as imagined and narrated entities, and neighbourhood as social relations. With extensive case studies from Johannesburg to Istanbul and from Jerusalem to Delhi, this volume shows how spatial amenities, immaterial processes of narrating and dreaming, and the lasting effect of intimacies and violence in a neighbourhood are intertwined and negotiated over time in the construction of moral orders, urban practices and political identities at large. This book offers insights into neighbourhood formations in an age of constant mobility and helps us understand the grassroots level dynamics of xenophobia and hostility as much as welcoming and openness. It would be of interest for both academics and more general audiences as well as for students of undergraduate and postgraduate courses in Urban Studies and Anthropology. Carbohydrate Chemistry Amélia Pilar Rauter, Thisbe K Lindhorst, Yves Queneau, 2015-12-02 With the increase in volume, velocity and variety of information, researchers can find it difficult to keep up to date with the literature in the field As the synthesis of novel carbohydrates and carbohydrate mimetics continues to be a major challenge for organic chemists not least because of the increasingly interdisciplinary nature of carbohydrate science Carbohydrate Chemistry Volume 41 will prove invaluable Covering both chemical and biological science this series collates modern carbohydrate research from theory to application and will be of great benefit to any researcher who wishes to learn about the latest developments in the carbohydrate field Carbohydrate Chemistry Volume 41 Amelia Pilar Rauter,Thisbe K Lindhorst,Yves Queneau,2015-12-04 Volume 41 of Carbohydrate Chemistry demonstrates the interdisciplinary nature of modern carbohydrate research and will be of great benefit to any researcher who wishes to learn about the latest developments in the carbohydrate field Decolonisation after Democracy Laurence Piper,2020-05-21 Decolonisation after Democracy addresses the provocative idea that we need to rid higher education of lingering forms of colonial knowledge This matters because in the colonial era much knowledge was put to the service of subjugating indigenous peoples and the assumptions from this era may linger into the present Examples of deep rooted and foundational forms of knowledge that carry colonial traits are normative binaries such as civilised and backward modern and traditional and rational and superstitious In addition some accounts of positive values like freedom equality justice and democracy may hide the assumption that the western experience is the norm from which other kinds are rendered imitations deviations or pathologies In this collection some of South Africa s leading political scientists and academics engage with the challenge of decolonising knowledge in the research and teaching of politics It includes new insights about the state international relations clientelism statesociety relations and land reform and introduces new ways to engage the colonial library curriculum reform and the marginality of historically black institutions Finally the contributors deal with the decolonial challenge posed by the FeesMustFall student movements reflecting on issues of revolutionary politics and gender and sexual violence This book was originally published as a special issue of Politikon Citizenship Utopias in the Global South Henri Onodera,Martta Kaskinen,Eija Ranta,2025-01-23 Citizenship Utopias in the Global South is an edited collection of empirical research that explores emergent forms of activism in Africa Asia and Latin America in times of multiple crises At the intersection of hope and disillusionment the diverse and thought provoking chapters investigate emerging forms of activism in the Global South including youth activisms anti racism struggles feminist initiatives online dissent and Indigenous movements In the 2020s many parts of the world are witnessing contradictory processes of popular claims to rights livelihoods and social justice and subsequent forms of populist authoritarianism and the securitization of civil society Previously hopeful calls for dignity democracy and social justice through protesting strikes civil society campaigns legal reforms and elections for example have been met with disdain and civic disengagement This book investigates the re imagination and pursuit of citizen activism in such times of popular disillusionment It explores citizenship utopias as social imaginaries that are enacted and that articulate an ideal social order or democratic polity with ideal forms of experiencing citizenship Its chapters interrogate conventional approaches to citizenship by introducing a nuanced and empirically grounded exploration of the complex ways in which people experience negotiate and engage in the societal changes that they aspire towards The examination of citizenship utopias outlines contemporary signals for transformative futures and their possibilities The book undertakes a fresh effort at contributing to the shifting terrain of critical development studies political anthropology political sociology and decolonising scholarship by engaging in discussions about citizenship activism disillusionment and future societal alternatives in times of multiple global challenges The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license Exchanging Symbols Anitra Nettleton, Mathias Alubafi
