Cape Town Harmonies Armelle Gaulier, Denis-Constant Martin, 2017-07-19 Cape Town's public cultures can only be fully appreciated through recognition of its deep and diverse soundscape We have to listen to what has made and makes a city The ear is an integral part of the research tools one needs to get a sense of any city We have to listen to the sounds that made and make the expansive mother city Various of its constituent parts sound different from each other There is the sound of the singing men and their choirs teams they are called in preparation for the longstanding annual Malay choral competitions The lyrics from the various repertoires they perform are hardly ever written down There are texts of the hallowed Dutch songs but these do not circulate easily and widely Researchers dream of finding lyrics from decades ago not to mention a few generations ago back to the early 19th century This work by Denis Constant Martin and Armelle Gaulier provides us with a very useful selection of these songs More than that it is a critical sociological reflection of the place of these songs and their performers in the context that have given rise to them and sustains their relevance It is a necessary work and is a very important scholarly intervention about a rather neglected aspect of the history and present production of music in the city

Flight of the Diamond Smugglers Matthew Gavin Frank, 2021-02-23 Unforgettable An outstanding adventure in its lyrical utterly compelling and heartbreaking investigations of the world of diamond smuggling Aimee Nezhukumatathil For nearly eighty years a huge portion of coastal South Africa was closed off to the public With many of its pits now deemed overmined and abandoned American journalist Matthew Gavin Frank sets out across the infamous Diamond Coast to investigate an illicit trade that supplies a global market Immediately he became intrigued by the ingenious methods used in facilitating smuggling particularly the illegal act of sneaking carrier pigeons onto mine property affixing diamonds to their feet and sending them into the air Entering Die Sperrgebiet The Forbidden Zone is like entering an eerie ghost town but Frank is surprised by the number of people willing even eager to talk with him Soon he meets Msizi a young diamond digger and his pigeon Bartholomew who helps him steal diamonds It s a deadly game pigeons are shot on sight by mine security and Msizi knows of smugglers who have disappeared because of their crimes For this Msizi blames Mr Lester an evil tall tale figure of mythic proportions From the mining towns of Alexander Bay and Port Nolloth through the halfway desert to Kleinsee s shores littered with shipwrecks Frank investigates a long overlooked story Weaving interviews with local diamond miners who raise pigeons in secret with harrowing anecdotes from former heads of security environmental managers and vigilante pigeon hunters Frank reveals how these feathered bandits became outlaws in every mining town Interwoven throughout this obsessive quest are epic legends in which pigeons and diamonds intersect such as that of Krishna s famed diamond Koh i Noor the Mountain of Light and that of the Cherokee serpent Uktena In these strange connections where truth forever tangles with the lore of centuries past Frank is able to contextualize the personal grief that sent him with his wife Louisa in the passenger seat on this enlightening journey across parched lands Blending elements of reportage memoir and incantation Flight of the Diamond Smugglers is a rare and remarkable portrait of exploitation and greed in one of the most dangerous areas of coastal South Africa With his sovereign prose and insatiable curiosity Matthew Gavin Frank reminds us that the world is a place of wonder if only we look Toby Muse

Rhetorics of Value Corinne A. Kratz, 2025-03-28 In Rhetorics of Value Corinne A Kratz explores how exhibition design creates and conveys values that have the potential to touch educate and engage visitors Drawing on case studies from the Victoria and Albert Museum museums in South Africa and Kenya a Hawaiian resort hotel and the Smithsonian s National Museum of African American History and Culture among others Kratz shows how exhibits help shape and narrate cultural categories values and histories while provoking questions and evoking memories and experiences She crosses contexts to consider ethnographic history and art exhibits in national and community museums and other display settings Through these examples Kratz traces how exhibition designers combine objects texts images lighting audio space and narratives to craft a complex multilayered communicative form that visitors experience as they move through museums By investigating the relationship between audience reception and exhibition design strategies Kratz contends that through design exhibits can shape the ways we know the stories we tell and our contours of meaning and engagement

Landscapes between Then and Now Nicola Brandt, 2020-09-08 In Landscapes Between Then and Now Nicola Brandt examines the increasingly compelling and diverse cross disciplinary work of photographers and artists made during the transition from apartheid to post apartheid and into the contemporary era By examining specific artworks made in South Africa Namibia and Angola Brandt sheds light on established and emerging themes related to aftermath landscapes embodied histories un belonging spirituality and memorialization She shows how landscape and identity are mutually constituted and profiles this process against the background of the legacy of the acutely racially divisive policies of the apartheid regime that are still reflected on the land As a signpost throughout the book Brandt draws on the work of the renowned South African photographer Santu Mofokeng and his critical thinking about landscape

Landscapes Between Then and Now explores how practitioners who engage with identity and their physical environment as a social product might reveal something about the complex and fractured nature of postcolonial and contemporary societies Through diverse strategies and aesthetics they comment on inherent structures and epistemologies of power whilst also expressing new and radical forms of self determinism Brandt asks why these cross disciplinary works ranging from social documentary to experimental performance and embodied practices are critical now and what important possibilities for social and political reflection and engagement they suggest

Colonial Heritage and Urban Transformation in the Global South Christian Ernten,2021-10-27 This book traces and analyses the role of heritage in the urban transformation of the city of Cape Town By looking at discourses of heritage and urban design the book shows how Cape Town positions itself as an emerging global city in the context of a series of global events The book points at how a heritage focus on the themes of post colonial and post apartheid reconciliation restitution and memory in the city shifts to a focus on creativity design and the arts Thereby showing how traumatic remnants of colonialism and apartheid are reframed as design challenges Furthermore it argues that the idea of a transformed society is projected into a future time and the chaotic present everyday life is left to its own devices Against this backdrop the book lays out the opportunities for epistemological reset and decolonial reflection on the city s deep histories its embedded injustices and traumas that surfaced

The Emerald Handbook of Sustainable Energy Transition and Social Justice Julius Omokhudu Irene,Bridget Nneka Irene,Kingsley Obi Omeihe,Regina Frank,2025-09-08 The Emerald Handbook of Sustainable Energy Transition fosters a more profound understanding of research and discourse on sustainability across the Global South deconstructs the current thinking

Construction Economics Danny Myers,2016-09-22 Construction Economics provides students with the principles underlying the relationship between economic theory and the construction industry Its new approach specifically examines the problems of securing sustainable construction The new edition has been fully revised to provide an overview of the economy and construction markets since the global financial crisis As such it examines the challenges of changing government policy adapting to climate change adopting BIM and reducing costs A new introduction along with new readings data examples glossary items government strategies and references revises this established core text and brings it up to the historic EU referendum As with previous editions it retains a tried and tested format a clear and user friendly style use of a second colour for emphasis regular summaries of key points a glossary of construction economics extensive use of tables and figures extracts from Construction Management and Economics reviews of useful websites This invaluable textbook is essential reading across a wide range of disciplines from construction management and civil engineering to architecture property and surveying
