Unredeemed Captive Book Report:

The Unredeemed Captive John Demos, 2011-05-04 Nominated for the National Book Award and winner of the Francis Parkman Prize The setting for this haunting and encyclopedically researched work of history is colonial Massachusetts where English Puritans first endeavoured to civilize a savage native populace There in February 1704 a French and Indian war party descended on the village of Deerfield abducting a Puritan minister and his children Although John Williams was eventually released his daughter horrified the family by staying with her captors and marrying a Mohawk husband Out of this incident The Bancroft Prize winning historian John Devos has constructed a gripping narrative that opens a window into North America where English French and Native Americans faced one another across gulfs of culture and belief and sometimes crossed over

The Challenge of American History Louis P. Masur, 1999-05-20 In The Challenge of American History Louis Masur brings together a sampling of recent scholarship to determine the key issues preoccupying historians of American history and to contemplate the discipline's direction for the future The fifteen summary essays included in this volume allow professional historians history teachers and students to grasp in a convenient and accessible form what historians have been writing about
