Personhood Mary Ziegler, 2025-04-22 The next phase of the war over reproduction in America What's next for the battle over abortion Mary Ziegler argues that simply undoing Roe v Wade has never been the endpoint for the antiabortion movement Since the 1960s the larger goal has been to secure recognition of fetuses and embryos as persons under the Fourteenth Amendment of the U S Constitution a step that the modern antiabortion movement argues would make liberal abortion laws unconstitutional Personhood chronicles the internal struggles and changing ideas about race sex religion war corporate rights and poverty that shaped the personhood struggle over half a century The book explores how Americans came to take for granted that fetal personhood requires criminalization and suggests that other ways of valuing both fetal life and women's equality might be possible Ziegler ultimately shows that the battle for personhood has long been about more than abortion it has aimed to overhaul the regulation of in vitro fertilization contraception and the behavior of pregnant women change the meaning of equality under the law and determine how courts decide which fundamental rights Americans enjoy This book is necessary reading for anyone seeking to understand the era launched by the reversal of Roe The Mother in the Age of Mechanical Reproduction Elissa Marder, 2012 This book analyses the relationship between the body technology and language by focusing on the uncanny figure of the mother in psychoanalysis photography and literature and contends that the concept of human birth is represented through mechanical repetition and technological modes of reproduction rather than as a natural event Teachers' Monographs, 1919 Great Spirit-- the Comforter! Aubrey W. Fowler, 1880 Second Chance Ruth Rosengarten, 2022-08-23 In this intimate memoir Ruth Rosengarten explores the subject of evocative objects through a series of interconnected essays Evocative objects reflect our attitudes to our own lives and how we seek to display ourselves to ourselves They are therefore closely linked to our memories and how we filter process and reconstruct them Rosengarten explores the themes and associations invoked by her own evocative objects which are frequently shabby things of no material value They are importantly often objects that in their materiality bear traces of actions of something having been Through the associative pathways that these objects have paved she discusses her experiences with the losses she has undergone her family's migrations and what it means to be a childless woman This leads her to address the question of what will become of her storied objects and the memories attached to them when she is no longer in existence This memoir offers an interdisciplinary approach to collecting and compiling fragments of one's life paying close attention to the evocative objects that embody us In doing so these essays explore loss memory childlessness longing family history literature and art theory through material entities which reveal the immaterial things at the heart of this study This book is sure to be of interest to anyone stimulated by memory work and the relationship between humans and their possessions Untold Autoethnographic Stories of (In)Justice, Teaching and Scholarship Ari Sherris, Joy Kreeft Peyton, 2025-09-05

The voices in this book raise questions about the relationalities and entanglements of applied linguists in a troubled world They are the personal stories that are sometimes hidden behind and within more conventional teaching research and scholarship however iconoclastic and unconventional the endeavors themselves Injustice runs through and across the chapters connecting one with another but also highlighting differences The stories in this book describe or picture anxieties fears veils exclusion erasures microaggressions racism and patriarchy together with the painful double binds and pitfalls experienced in applied linguistic fieldwork and teaching By sharing their stories the authors attempt to embody the changes called into being through their applied linguistics teaching and fieldwork On the Other Side(s) of 150 Linda M. Morra, Sarah Henzi, 2021-05-20 On the Other Side(s) of 150 explores the different literary historical and cultural legacies of Canada's sesquicentennial celebrations It asks vital questions about the ways that histories and stories have been suppressed and invites consideration about what happens once a commemorative moment has passed Like a Cubist painting this modality offers a critical strategy by which also to approach the volume as dismantling reassembling and re-enacting existing commemorative tropes as offering multiple conditional and contingent viewpoints that unfold over time and as generating a broader although far from being comprehensive range of counter memorial performances The chapters in this volume are thus provisional interconnected and adaptive they offer critical assemblages by which to approach commemorative narratives or showcase lacunae therein by which to return to and intervene in ongoing readings of the past from the present moment and by which not necessarily to resolve but rather to understand the troubled and troubling narratives of the present moment Contributors propose that these preoccupations are not a means of turning away from present concerns but rather a means of grappling with how the past informs or is shaped to inform them and how such concerns are defined by immediate social contexts and networks Dilla Time Dan Charnas, 2022-02-01 WINNER OF THE PEN JACQUELINE BOGRAD WELD AWARD FOR BIOGRAPHY NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER This book is a must for everyone interested in illuminating the idea of unexplainable genius QUESTLOVE Equal parts biography musicology and cultural history Dilla Time chronicles the life and legacy of J Dilla a musical genius who transformed the sound of popular music for the twenty first century He wasn't known to mainstream audiences even though he worked with renowned acts like D Angelo and Erykah Badu and influenced the
