The Corporation as a Protagonist in Global History, c. 1550-1750 ,2018-12-10 William A Pettigrew and David Veevers put forward a new interpretation of the role Europe s overseas corporations played in early modern global history recasting them from vehicles of national expansion to significant forces of global integration Across the Mediterranean Atlantic Indian Ocean and Pacific corporations provided a truly global framework for facilitating the circulation movement and exchange between and amongst European and non European communities bringing them directly into dialogue often for the first time Usually understood as imperial or colonial commercial enterprises The Corporation as a Protagonist in Global History reveals the unique global sociology of overseas corporations to provide a new global history in which non Europeans emerged as key stakeholders in European overseas enterprises in the early modern world Contributors include Michael D Bennett Aske Laursen Brock Liam D Haydon Lisa Hellman Leonard Hodges Emily Mann Simon Mills Chris Nierstrasz Edgar Pereira Edmond Smith Haig Smith and Anna Winterbottom Inner empire Daniel Maudlin,Alex Bremner,2024-08-06 Inner Empire explores the impact of imperial cultures on the landscapes and urban environments of the British Isles from the sixteenth century through to the twentieth century It asserts that Britain s four hundred year entanglement with global empire left its mark upon the British Isles as much as it did the wider world Buildings stood as one of the most conspicuous manifestations of the myriad relationships that Britain maintained with the theory and practice of colonialism in its modern history Divided into two main sections the volume s content considers internal colonisation and its infrastructures of control order and suppression alongside wider relationships between architecture the imperial economy and cultural identity Taken together the essays in this volume present for the first time a coherent analysis of the British Isles as an imperial setting understood through its buildings spaces and infrastructure Bright Star in the Present Prospect Ian Dunn,2015-10-19 An illustrated history of the University of Chester charting its progress from the foundation as Chester Diocesan Training College in 1839 to the achievement of university status in 2005 and subsequent consolidation as a leading higher education institution in the region Men, Masculinities and Honour-Based Abuse Mohammad Idriss,2019-12-06 This book explores the largely neglected relationship between men masculinities and honour based abuse HBA There is a common misconception that HBA whether physical violence emotional abuse or so called honour killings occurs only against women This book addresses the gap in the current literature concerning the relationship between men masculinities and HBA With contributions from an international and interdisciplinary range of both academics and professionals the book examines HBA and forced marriages specifically from male victim perspectives both in the UK and internationally Providing a clear understanding of the main theoretical and sociological explanations of HBA against male victims the book demonstrates that although men are indeed the main perpetrators of HBA state agencies must address the fact that many men are also victims This book is essential reading for students academics and practitioners alike The Oxford Guide to Australian Languages Claire

Ramp Hollow Steven Stoll, 2017-11-21 How the United States underdeveloped Appalachia Appalachia among the most storied and yet least understood regions in America has long been associated with poverty and backwardness But how did this image arise and what exactly does it mean In Ramp Hollow Steven Stoll launches an original investigation into the history of Appalachia and its place in U S history with a special emphasis on how generations of its inhabitants lived worked survived and depended on natural resources held in common Ramp Hollow traces the rise of the Appalachian homestead and how its self sufficiency resisted dependence on money and the industrial society arising elsewhere in the United States until beginning in the nineteenth century extractive industries kicked off a scramble for Appalachia that left struggling homesteaders dispossessed of their land As the men disappeared into coal mines and timber camps and their families moved into shantytowns or deeper into the mountains the commons of Appalachia were in effect enclosed and the fate of the region was sealed Ramp Hollow takes a provocative look at Appalachia and the workings of dispossession around the world by upending our notions about progress and development Stoll ranges widely from literature to history to economics in order to expose a devastating process whose repercussions we still feel today borrowed from its original inhabitants and never returned They make clear how a remarkable diversity characterized the state throughout its early history Early encounters and initial contacts involved primarily Native Americans and Spaniards in the first half of the sixteenth century following the expeditions of Columbus and others to the large region of the Gulf of Mexico More sustained interaction began with the arrival of the French to the region and the establishment of a French post on Biloxi Bay at the end of the seventeenth century Such exchanges continued through the eighteenth century with the British and then again the Spanish until the creation of the territory of Mississippi in 1798 and then two states Mississippi in 1817 and Alabama in 1819 Though readers may know the bare bones of this history the dates and names this is the first book to reveal the complexity of the story in full to dig deep into a varied and complicated tale Reconstructing the

Monzote,2021-03-19 Assessing a unique collection of more than eighty images this innovative study of visual culture reveals the productive organization of plantation landscapes in the nineteenth century Atlantic world These landscapes from cotton fields in the Lower Mississippi Valley to sugar plantations in western Cuba and coffee plantations in Brazil s Para ba Valley demonstrate how the restructuring of the capitalist world economy led to the formation of new zones of commodity production By extension these environments radically transformed slave labor and the role such labor played in the expansion of the global economy Artists and mapmakers documented in surprising detail how the physical organization of the landscape itself made possible the increased exploitation of enslaved labor Reading these images today one sees how technologies combined with evolving conceptions of plantation management that reduced enslaved workers to black bodies Planter control of enslaved people s lives and labor maximized the production of each crop in a calculated system of production Nature too was affected the massive increase in the scale of production and new systems of cultivation increased the land s output Responding to world economic conditions the replication of slave based commodity production became integral to the creation of mass markets for cotton sugar and coffee which remain at the center of contemporary life
