

A black and white close-up portrait of Oriana Fallaci. She is looking directly at the camera with a serious expression. Her right hand is raised to her face, holding a lit cigarette between her fingers. She is wearing a ring on her ring finger. The background is dark and out of focus.

Raizen,2018-12-13 This cross disciplinary volume Pier Paolo Pasolini Framed and Unframed explores and complicates our understanding of Pasolini today probing notions of otherness in his works his media image and his legacy Over 40 years after his death Pier Paolo Pasolini continues to challenge and interest us both in academic circles and in popular discourses Today his films stand as lampposts of Italian cinematic production his cinematic theories resonate broadly through academic circles and his philosophical essayistic and journalistic writings albeit relatively sparsely translated into other languages are still widely influential Pasolini has also become an image a mascot a face on tote bags a graffiti image on walls an adjective pasolinian The collected essays push us to consider and reconsider Pasolini a thinker for the twenty first century Narrative Theory: Special topics Mieke Bal,2004 Translating Travel Loredana

Polezzi,2017-03-02 Translating Travel examines the relationship between travel writing and translation asking what happens when books travel beyond the narrow confines of one genre one literary system and one culture The volume takes as its starting point the marginal position of contemporary Italian travel writing in the Italian literary system and proposes a comparative reading of originals and translations designed to highlight the varying reception of texts in different cultures Two main themes in the book are the affinity between the representations produced by travel and the practices of translation and the complex links between travel writing and genres such as ethnography journalism autobiography and fiction Individual chapters are devoted to Italian travellers accounts of Tibet and their English translations the hybridization of journalism and travel writing in the works of Oriana Fallaci Italo Calvino s sublimation of travel writing in the stylized fiction of Le città invisibili and the complex network of literary references which marked the reception of Claudio Magris s Danubio in different cultures Lettere di un'egocentrica innamorata Daniela Telesca,2022-04-30 Una persona che si definisce al

Italian Literature in the Nuclear Age Maria Anna Mariani, 2022-09-29 Italian Literature in the Nuclear Age A Poetics of the Bystander explores the overlooked position of the bystander in the Nuclear Age by focusing on the Italian situation as a paradigmatic case Host to hundreds of American atomic weapons while lacking a nuclear arsenal of its own Italy s status was an ambiguous one that of an unwilling and in many ways passive accomplice Inspired by Seamus Heaney s dictum that there is no such thing as innocent by standing the book frames Italy s fraught mix of implication and powerlessness not only as a geopolitical question but as a way to rethink the role of the sidelined intellectual in the face of mass extinction Italian Literature in the Nuclear Age includes discrete chapters on the major Italian intellectuals of the time Italo Calvino Alberto Moravia Elsa Morante Pier Paolo Pasolini and Leonardo Sciascia Conscious of their own political marginalization these authors address the atomic question through a wide range of experimental forms approaching the nearly unthinkable theme in allusive and oblique ways Often dismissed as disengaged inconsistent or merely playful these works demand instead a political reading capable of recognizing their confrontation with the paradoxes of the nuclear age
