

Prompt: What was the environment in which you were raised? Describe your family, home, neighborhood or community, and explain how it has shaped you as a person.

At the end of my street, there is a set of train tracks. When I was younger, my friends and I would ride our bikes to the edge of the street and look over the tracks towards the other side of town. Despite our natural curiosity and our tendency to disobey our parents, we didn't venture over to the other side of the tracks. We knew better because although trains were rare, we all remembered the funeral we all had to attend when a neighborhood boy had been struck by a train for a dare. However, there was also a greater reason for us not daring to venture over – and in this essay, I hope to tell the story of our town divided.

In truth, we were told not to wander over to the other side of the tracks because there was nothing over there for us, and that we may be hurt and never be able to return home. As I grew older, I began to realize that our town was literally a textbook example of a town divided, with one community on each side. One side was dotted with modest middle-class homes, where children played basketball on driveways and rode around on new bicycles. On the other side, poverty was rampant, and more often than not, it was populated by those of a different race. It was an unspoken rule in our town that you simply did not cross the tracks.

However, I believe that it is now a different time. The centuries-old belief of separation by social class and race is simply not a viable way of life in these modern times. I am hoping to attend college in order to expand my horizons in a way that I never dared to do as a younger child. In doing so, I believe that I will be able to gain new perspectives and understandings that will allow me to effect change in the future to dispel any existing beliefs that the other side of the tracks is forbidden.

Write Yourself In Eric Tipler, 2024-06-11 Write authentic memorable college essays that will help you get into the right school for you with this guidebook from a veteran college admissions expert Every spring over one million high school juniors embark on an annual rite of passage applying to college And with college admission rates at an all time low getting into a competitive school is now tougher than ever At the top schools a strong transcript and great test scores will get your application noticed but it s your essays and the personal story that they highlight that will get you admitted But often students don t know where to start Teens fret over topics because they don t know what college admissions officers are looking for They bend over backwards to write what they think colleges want to read instead of telling their authentic story which is what admissions officers actually want in a way that will resonate with their readers They also struggle because college essays which are narrative first person and introspective require a different set of skills from academic expository writing they ve been learning for years in the classroom Seasoned college admissions expert and educator Eric Tipler has seen this firsthand Teens and their parents spend countless anxiety filled hours crafting and refining essays that are often lackluster In Write Yourself In Tipler meets students where they are and provides comprehensive actionable advice in a warm and conversational tone He demonstrates how to craft a winning essay one that is authentic vulnerable and demonstrative of qualities like personal growth and emotional maturity Instead of formulas Write Yourself In gives students step by step processes for brainstorming outlining writing and revising essays It encourages them to seek out feedback at key points in the process something Tipler has found to be vital to helping students produce their best writing Further the book includes sidebars that teach essential components of good storytelling a secret weapon in the admissions process In addition to the admissions essay Write Yourself In also covers the most common supplemental essays on topics like community diversity openness to others viewpoints and why their school is a good fit for the student scholarship essays as well as scholarship essays Tipler includes sections that address current topics like the widespread use of ChatGPT and the discussion of race in the admissions essay a facet of the student s application that will have newfound importance given the Supreme Court decision on affirmative action Written with both the parent and teen in mind Write Yourself In is the go to handbook for writing a great college essay

The Poetry of the Americas Harris Feinsod, 2017-09-08 The Poetry of the Americas offers a lively and detailed history of relations among poets in the US and Latin America spanning three decades from the Good Neighbor diplomacy of World War II through the Cold War cultural policies of the late 1960s Connecting works by Mart n Ad n Elizabeth Bishop Paul Blackburn Jorge Luis Borges Julia de Burgos Ernesto Cardenal Jorge Carrera Andrade Allen Ginsberg Langston Hughes Jos Lezama Lima Pablo Neruda Charles Olson Octavio Paz Heberto Padilla Wallace Stevens Derek Walcott William Carlos Williams and many others Feinsod reveals how poets of many nations imagined a poetry of the Americas that linked multiple cultures even as it reflected the inequities of the inter American political system

This account offers a rich contextual study of the state sponsored institutions and the countercultural networks that sustained this poetry from Nelson Rockefeller's Office of the Coordinator for Inter American Affairs to the mid 1960s avant garde scene in Mexico City. This innovative literary historical project enables new readings of such canonical poems as Stevens's Notes Toward a Supreme Fiction and Neruda's The Heights of Macchu Picchu but it positions these alongside lesser known poetry translations anthologies literary journals and private correspondences culled from library archives across the Americas. The Poetry of the Americas thus broadens the horizons of reception and mutual influence and of formal historical and political possibility through which we encounter midcentury American poetry recasting traditional categories of U.S. or Latin American literature within a truly hemispheric vision. The Texas Book Two David Dettmer, 2012-12-04 In every corner of the sprawling enterprise that is the University of Texas at Austin you will find teaching research artistic creation and sports achievement that are among the best in the world. Mandated by the Texas constitution to be a university of the first class UT Austin strives for excellence across the curriculum from the most traditional of liberal arts disciplines to the cutting edge of science and technology. For Texans interested in progress whether students of the university or members of the public there are few pleasures greater than uncovering the intellectual treasures that can be found by exploring the university's Forty Acres and all that they contain. The Texas Book edited by Richard A. Holland and published in 2006 offered the first in-depth exploration of UT's history and traditions through a collection of profiles histories and reminiscences. Now The Texas Book Two continues the story with a variety of contributors recalling particular events and personalities that have helped shape the university and the people whose lives it has touched. Twenty-one essays present personalities such as John A. Lomax Anna Hiss J. R. Parten Harvey Penick John W. Hargis and Jorge Luis Borges accounts of legislative battles and debates over campus architecture histories of crown jewels such as the McDonald Observatory and Austin City Limits and the reminiscences of Barbara Smith Conrad Sam Hurt and Cat Osterman among others. Harbingers of Books to Come Dave Oliphant, 2009 Harbingers of Books to Come is more than a mere chronicle of achievements. It is also a love story. Dave Oliphant is one of those lucky poets who married his muse Maria whom he met in a library in Santiago, Chile, often led and occasionally pushed the poet into terra incognita from which he returned with literary riches.
