Deanship in the Global South

Oliver J.J. Seale,2021-02-08 The university today is a postmodern neo liberal competitive boundary less knowledge conglomerate a far cry from its historical traditional classical and collegial roots There is a body of literature on deanship that points to its evolving nature in the contemporary academe characterised by complexity and change Balancing academic demands simultaneously with the requirements for effective performance leadership and management lies at the heart of this very challenging bridging role nowadays Deans are generally former academics emerging from a traditional collegial space and often catapulted into the relatively unknown domain of executive management with its related problems Deans nowadays are required to be more than collegial intellectual leaders They are also meant to be fiscal and human resource experts fundraisers politicians and diplomats Deanship in the Global South Bridging Troubled Waters is about the deans lived reality as they try to balance the demands of both the academe from which they emerge and the administration to whom they now need to account Their lack of preparation and inadequate support points to the need for a more strategic integrated approach to leadership development within their critical bridging roles between the academe and administration

Sociology in South Africa R. Sooryamoorthy, 2016-08-13 This book is the first comprehensive account of the history and current state of South African sociology Providing a holistic picture of the subject both as it is taught in universities and as a field of research it reveals the trajectories of a discipline in a challenging socio-political context With the support of historical and scientometric data it demonstrates how the changing political situation from colonialism to apartheid to democracy has influenced the nature direction and foci of sociological research in the country The author shows how during the apartheid era sociology was professionally fragmented and divided along language and race lines It was however able to flourish with the advent of democracy in 1994 and has become a unique academic movement This insightful work will appeal to students and scholars of the social sciences and all those interested in the history and society of South Africa

Annual Report of the Commission on Gender Equality South Africa. Commission on Gender Equality, 2016

Democracy's Infrastructure Antina von Schnitzler, 2016-10-25 In the past decade South Africa's miracle transition has been interrupted by waves of protests in relation to basic services such as water and electricity Less visibly the post apartheid period has witnessed widespread illicit acts involving infrastructure including the nonpayment of service charges the bypassing of metering devices and illegal connections to services Democracy's Infrastructure shows how such administrative links to the state became a central political terrain during the antiapartheid struggle and how this terrain persists in the post apartheid present Focusing on conflicts surrounding prepaid water meters Antina von Schnitzler examines the techno-political forms through which democracy takes shape Von Schnitzler explores a controversial project to install prepaid water meters in Soweto one of many efforts to curb the nonpayment of service charges that began during the antiapartheid struggle and she traces how infrastructure payment and technical procedures become sites where citizenship is mediated and contested She follows engineers utility officials and local bureaucrats as they consider ways to prompt Sowetans to pay for water and she shows how local residents and activists wrestle with the constraints imposed by meters This investigation of democracy from the perspective of infrastructure reframes the conventional story of South Africa's transition foregrounding the less visible remainders of apartheid and challenging readers to think in more material terms about citizenship and activism in the postcolonial world Democracy's Infrastructure examines how seemingly mundane technological domains become charged territory for struggles over South Africa's political transformation Agricultural Law and Economics in Sub-Saharan Africa Frederick Owusu Boadu, 2016-04-27 Agricultural Law in Sub-Saharan Africa Cases and Comments introduces the subject of agricultural law and economics to researchers practitioners and students in common law countries in Sub-Saharan Africa and presents information from the legal system in Botswana Gambia Ghana Lesotho Malawi Nigeria Sierra Leone South Africa Swaziland Tanzania Zambia and Zimbabwe The law and economics approach entails the use of quantitative methods in research This is consistent with the expectations in an applied economics field such as agricultural economics Covering the general traditional law topics in contracts torts and property the book goes further to introduce cutting edge and region relevant topics including contracts with illiterate parties contract farming climate change and transboundary water issues The book is supported by an extensive list of reference materials as well as study and enrichment exercises to deepen readers understanding of the principles discussed in the book It is a learning tool first and foremost and can be used as a stand alone resource to teach the subject matter of agricultural law and economics to professionals new to the subject area as well as to students in law school agricultural economics economics and inter disciplinary classes Offers research findings on such topics as food safety climate change transboundary natural resources international sale of goods patents and trademarks to highlight the future sources of pressure on the agriculture industry Uses case studies to provide real world insights into the challenges and considerations of appropriate agricultural law development Challenges readers to carry out their own research in their areas of study and to gain some understanding of the relationship between law economics and statistics Includes extensive resources such as chapter summaries study questions and challenge questions at the end of each chapter to assist instructors and students in gaining full benefits from using the book Provides separate instructor and student study guides a test bank and test bank answers in hardcopy and electronic formats Patriots & Parasites Dene Smuts, 2016-11-01 Patriots The great experiment in catharsis that was the Truth and Reconciliation Commission The reinvigoration of racial polarisation under the Mbeki administration and the slow burn of resentment that is coming to a head among the next generation as manifested in the RhodesMustFall campaign The entrenchment of cronyism under Zuma and the fight to protect the crucial balance of accountability enshrined in the freedom of the media and the independence of the judiciary History of Soybeans and Soyfoods in Africa (1857-2019) William Shurtleff; Akiko Aoyagi, 2019-04-08 The world's most comprehensive well documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive subject and geographical index 113 photographs and illustrations mostly color Free of charge in digital PDF format on Google Books Global-Regional Linkages in the Earth System Peter D. Tyson, Roland Fuchs, Congbin Fu, Louis Lebel, Hermine Vloemans, Eric Odada, John Perry, Will Steffen, Hassan Virji, 2002-04-30 Global environmental change occupies a central niche in the pantheon of modern sciences There is an urgent need to know and understand the way in which global biogeochemical cycles have changed over different time scales in the past and are likely to do so in the future Equally important it is necessary to determine the extent to which natural variability and that induced by anthropogenic activities are bringing about change A number of international co operative scientific programmes address these issues Chief among them are the International Geosphere Biosphere Programme IGBP the World Climate Research Programme WCRP and the International Human Dimensions Programme IHDP for global change This book is one of a series of IGBP syntheses drawing together findings in global environmental change over the past decade or so One focus of IGBP activities is the System for Analysis Research and Training START Co sponsored by the WCRP and IHDP START establishes regional research networks for global change science in developing countries stimulates and carries out global change research in developing regions of the world and builds capacity to undertake such research at personal institutional and regional levels Several regional global change networks have been established and much regional research has been accomplished in the last five years or so In this book work relating to four of the older START regions Southern Africa South Asia Southeast Asia and East Asia will be used as case studies to illustrate regional global linkages in Earth System Science
