Avant-garde to New Wave Jonathan L. Owen, 2013-02-01 The cultural liberalization of communist Czechoslovakia in the 1960s produced many artistic accomplishments not least the celebrated films of the Czech New Wave This movement saw filmmakers use their new freedom to engage with traditions of the avant garde especially Surrealism This book explores the avant garde s influence over the New Wave and considers the political implications of that influence The close analysis of selected films ranging from the Oscar winning Closely Observed Trains to the aesthetically challenging Daisies is contextualized by an account of the Czech avant garde and a discussion of the films immediate cultural and political background

Hands on Film is a comprehensive study of the representations and on screen uses of the human limb spanning the history of the cinema from its birth to contemporary times It examines how filmmakers have framed the hand for a variety of effects from stylistic to thematic and for the development of characterisation and narrative The book offers insights into how films have created meaning by focusing on that part of the anatomy and in turn proposes a variety of ways in which its on screen appearances might shed light on what it means to be sentient cultured and creative beings in the world Amnesiac Neil Jordan,2024-06-20

THE LADY BEST BOOKS OF 2024 A haunted record of a life devoted to the visual art of the cinema and the written word by Ireland's greatest director and one of her finest novelists In this vivid moving and strange memoir Neil Jordan the author of classic fiction like The Past Sunrise with Sea Monster and Night in Tunisia and the creator of celebrated movies like Angel Mona Lisa The Crying Game and Interview with the Vampire reaches deep into his own past and that of his family His mother was a painter his father an inspector of schools who was visited by ghosts and Jordan grew up on the edge of an abandoned aristocratic estate in north Dublin whose mysterious ruins fed his imagination Passionate about music he played in bands and theatre groups and met at University College Dublin a young radical called Jim Sheridan Together they staged unforgettable dramatic productions that hinted at their future careers His first collection of stories and first novel Night in Tunisia and The Past were met with acclaim but Jordan was also drawn to the freedom and visual richness of film and worked with the great English director John Boorman on his Arthurian epic Excalibur His own first movie with Stephen Rea Angel was a brilliant angular take on the horrific violence of the Troubles and in the years since then his films have combined in a unique way intense supernatural elements with reflections on violence and sexuality Jordan describes his work with Stephen Rea Jaye Davidson Bob Hoskins Tom Cruise and many others but this is not a conventional story of life in the movies The book is an eerie meditation on loss love and creativity on inspiration and influence by one of the most unusual artists Ireland has produced The Company of Wolves James Gracey,2017-08-01

Co written by Irish filmmaker Neil Jordan and British novelist Angela Carter and based on several short stories from Carter's collection The Bloody Chamber The Company of Wolves 1984 is a provocative reinvention of the fairy tale of Little Red Riding Hood Unraveling a feverish metaphor for the blossoming of a young girl's sexuality and her subsequent loss of innocence the film entwines symbolism and metaphor with striking visuals and grisly effects Released in the early 1980s a time which produced several classic werewolf films including An American Werewolf in London and The Howling The Company of Wolves sets itself apart from the pack with its overtly literary roots feminist stance and art house leanings The film's narrative takes the form of a puzzle box unfolding as dreams within dreams and stories within stories which lead further into the dark woods of the protagonist's psyche as she finds herself on the cusp of womanhood This Devil's Advocate explores all these aspects as well as placing the film in the context of the careers of its creators and its position as an example of the Female Gothic Folk Horror

Gender, Generations, and Communism in Central and Eastern Europe and Beyond Anna Artwińska, Agnieszka Mrozik, 2020-06-03 Communism in twentieth century Europe is predominantly narrated as a totalitarian movement and or regime This book aims to go beyond this narrative and provide an alternative framework to describe the communist past This reframing is possible thanks to the concepts of generation and gender which are used in the book as analytical categories in an intersectional overlap The publication covers twentieth century Poland Czechoslovakia Czech Republic the Soviet Union Russia former Yugoslavia Turkish communities in West Germany Italy and Cuba as a comparative point of reference It provides a theoretical frame and overview chapters on several important gender and generation narratives about communism anticommunism and postcommunism Its starting point is the belief that although methodological reflection on communism as well as on generations and gender is conducted extensively in contemporary research the overlapping of these three terms is still rare The main focus in the first part is on methodological issues The second part features studies which depict the possibility of generational gender interpretations of history The third part is informed by biographical perspectives The last part shows how the problem of generations and gender is staged via the medium of literature and how
