

Welcome!

A note from your child's 3rd grade teacher

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Welcome to the new school year! I hope everyone had an enjoyable summer. I would like to take this opportunity to give a big welcome to the parents and guardians that are a huge support to me with their children in my classroom. I believe parents are the first and most important teachers in their child's life.

So much happens and changes in 3rd grade; this year will be full of important transitions. It is important that each child will progress at his/her own rate, acquiring skills as they are ready, so it is very important to celebrate even the smallest successes. Building a child's self-esteem and a secure foundation is essential for future growth. I want to keep this a priority in my classroom. Here are a few ways in which you can help:

- Encourage and celebrate every success your child has. This will keep them excited about learning and proud of their work.
- Read with your child every day. The more they are exposed to language, the more success they will have in the classroom.

I am looking forward to working with your child to help them reach their fullest potential. I believe it is essential to have a good parent-teacher relationship for school success. Throughout the year, I will communicate through emails, telephone calls, progress reports, and parent-teacher conferences. I encourage you to contact me if you have any questions or concern. I look forward to growing and learning with your children as we progress through this new year!

Sincerely,

Ms. A

Welcome Letter To High School Cheer Parents:

Who Cares About Parents? Kim Price-Glynn, 2025-11-11 Who cares for parental caregivers The short answer is parenting groups do Who Cares for Parents examines how parenting groups collectively build and contribute significant resources to form a broader care infrastructure for adult family caregivers with children This book looks at the content of care parenting groups provide for parents through comparative research including mothers fathers and nonbinary parents Cases include some of the most recognizable parenting groups in the United States some with vast networks of parent members numbering in the thousands or even millions like the Parent Teacher Association La Leche League and MOMS Club International The book also examines newer and perhaps less well known groups like the City Dads Group the Upper East Side UES Mommas as well as smaller sets of local dads groups and a babysitting co op Can parents in the contemporary United States secure some of the necessary resources to provide care not only for their children but also for themselves through parenting groups The evidence from this research suggests they can Parenting groups have a long history of organizing membership meetings education material resources and advocacy to provide for parents needs Parenting groups ideologies and practices often seek broad goals and sometimes include far reaching advocacy innovative solutions and possibilities for what Price Glynn calls strategic parenting and social change Alongside their successes however parenting groups also face challenges of producing narrow and temporary alliances exclusion and exacerbating inequalities Despite their many challenges Price Glynn remains hopeful about the possibilities for non familial and collective care infrastructure like that performed by parent groups
