Welcome Speech For Christian Youth At Camp:

Christian Nation, 1927 Christianity, Social Justice, and the Japanese American Incarceration during World War II
Anne M. Blankenship, 2016-10-07 Anne M Blankenship's study of Christianity in the infamous camps where Japanese Americans were incarcerated during World War II yields insights both far reaching and timely While most Japanese Americans maintained their traditional identities as Buddhists a sizeable minority identified as Christian and a number of church leaders sought to minister to them in the camps Blankenship shows how church leaders were forced to assess the ethics and pragmatism of fighting against or acquiescing to what they clearly perceived even in the midst of a national crisis as an unjust social system These religious activists became acutely aware of the impact of government as well as church policies that targeted ordinary Americans of diverse ethnicities Going through the doors of the camp churches and delving deeply into the religious experiences of the incarcerated and the faithful who aided them Blankenship argues that the incarceration period introduced new social and legal approaches for Christians of all stripes to challenge the constitutionality of government policies on race and civil rights She also shows how the camp experience nourished the roots of an Asian American liberation theology that sprouted in the sixties and seventies St. Andrew's Cross, 1922 Youth's Companion, 1882 MECC News Report, 1997 The Church Times, 1926 The Christian Century, 1923
Sacred Playgrounds Jacob Sorenson, 2021-07-01 Sacred Playgrounds explores the wisdom of camping ministry for Christian education and faith formation examining its rich history and fundamental characteristics with compelling stories groundbreaking research and theological grounding Christian summer camp is an integral part of the ecology of faith formation in North America though it has received surprisingly little attention in the scholarly community until now Camping ministry is often dismissed as simple fun and games or a brief spiritual high that does not last However camp experiences often serve as deeply relational and immersive faith experiences that have lasting impacts on participants Five fundamental characteristics combine dynamically in the effective camp experience participatory faith centered safe space relational and unplugged from home Together they open the space for participants to consider new understandings of God to have time for deep self reflection and to build intentional Christian community These camp experiences are essential components in a larger ecology of faith formation including the home and congregation The insight and evidence presented in this book demonstrate that the contributions of camping ministry must be taken seriously among scholars Christian educators and ministry professionals International Journal of Religious Education, 1939 Changing Worlds M. Evangeline Anderson, 2004-07-15 Revision date February 2015 Between July 1999 and June 2000 173 210 immigrants arrived in Canada including 6 196 Caribbean nationals Most settled in Toronto enhancing its burgeoning multiculturalism but Evangelines family chose Ottawa instead a city known as the coldest posting a Jamaican diplomat could receive Evangeline discovers more about Canada the hard way Although from 1994 to 2001 the United Nations declared Canada the best country of abode

Evangeline confirms that there are at least two sides to this as to every other story Minority status and its unfamiliar problems subtle pressures to conform to new molds unemployment and family reunification hurdles dog the resettling experience However active faith and steadfast purpose bring triumph in each circumstance Jamaica never far from Evangelines heart becomes a target for prayer as well as a destination for family visits and snowbird escapes As recipient of Jamaicas 1992 Governor Generals Award for the parish of St Andrew Evangeline remains patriotic She continues to support the community outreach projects of Christian Life Fellowship in Jamaica and the work of the Jamaica House of Prayer
