In God's Image Matthew Akim Tomlinson, 2009-03-10 Today most indigenous Fijians are Christians and the Methodist Church is the foundation of their social and political lives Yet as this thought provoking study of life on rural Kadavu Island finds Fijians also believe that their ancestors possessed an inherent strength that is lacking in the present day Looking in particular at the interaction between the church and the traditional chiefly system Matt Tomlinson finds that this belief about the superiority of the past provokes great anxiety and that Fijians seek ways of recovering this strength through ritual and political action Christianity itself simultaneously generates a sense of loss and the means of recuperation To unravel the cultural dynamics of Christianity in Fiji Tomlinson explores how this loss is expressed through everyday language and practices

Through All The Changing Scenes of Life: In Trouble & In Joy Rev. Dr. Henderson Brome, 2024-01-09 The ultimate aim and purpose of this book is to give us some insight into dealing with the negative and positive vicissitudes of life and how to cope with them It seeks to remind us that in times of joy fortune and success we should celebrate those moments with grateful hearts We should learn not to take them for granted but to claim them as blessings count them and capitalize on them On the other hand when distress confronts us when trouble engulfs us we should first be conscious of the fact that while trouble and calamity may be inevitable that they are neither fatal nor final Misfortune is not a permanent feature of life It is transient as one of our psalms reminds us heaviness may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning

Baltic Hospitality from the Middle Ages to the Twentieth Century Sari Nauman, Wojtek Jezierski, Christina Reimann, Leif Runefelt, 2022-08-15 Reflecting debate around hospitality and the Baltic Sea region this open access book taps into wider discussions about reception securitization and xenophobic attitudes towards migrants and strangers Focusing on coastal and urban areas the collection

presents an overview of the responses of host communities to guests and strangers in the countries surrounding the Baltic Sea from the early eleventh century to the twentieth. The chapters investigate why and how diverse categories of strangers including migrants, war refugees, prisoners of war, merchants, missionaries and vagrants were portrayed as threats to local populations or as objects of their charity, shedding light on the current predicament facing many European countries. Emphasizing the Baltic Sea region as a uniquely multi-layered space of intercultural encounter and conflict, this book demonstrates the significance of Northeastern Europe to migration history. Shattered Dreams Peter Josie, 2012-05-22. An often thrilling first-hand account of island politics in the era after independence. The St Lucia Labour Party (SLP) comes to power after 15 years in the wilderness and hardly settles into office before it is rent asunder by internal bickering over its leadership. In less than three years the party is out of office again and both it and its main characters are fighting for their respective political lives. SHATTERED DREAMS is the story of the ups and downs of political activism and the personalities and events that shaped the emergence of the Caribbean island for whose possession the English and French fought some of the bloodiest in this hemisphere in the 18th century. In SHATTERED DREAMS Josie attempts to show how the rise to power in sister island Grenada of the Peoples Revolutionary Government (PRG) under Marxist Maurice Bishop in 1979 influenced super power involvement in the affairs of the Caribbean islands and could have contributed handsomely to the demise of both the SLP in the St Lucia and the PRG in Grenada. Church Helper, 1897 The Sabbath Recorder, 1921 Herald of Gospel Liberty Elias Smith, 1914 The Western Christian Advocate, 1902 Welcoming the Other J. Greg Sinclair, 2025-10-17. As the church in Canada faces a post-Christendom future, the welcome and inclusion of diaspora communities offers opportunities for revitalization. In 2022 J. Greg Sinclair went on a year-long ethnographic journey to understand the experience of hospitality at Willowdale Christian Reformed Church, a sixty-three-year-old congregation of Dutch ethnic heritage in Toronto, Canada. Using a pastoral cycle of experience, exploration, reflection, and action, and an ethnographic research method, Sinclair sought to understand and reflect on Willowdale's experience of welcoming many newcomers from Iran. Using Zoom interviews and in-person observation, this qualitative study investigates the changing nature of one congregation in Canada and the challenges and opportunities of welcoming increasing cultural and linguistic diversity. Willowdale's experience points to the potential of hospitality as a culture and habitus to move a congregation from an us-versus-them dynamic to mutuality. This book is for church members seeking new modes of hospitality and presents a hopeful vision of a multicultural, revitalized, and faithful church in Canada. The Christian Leader, 1929.
