

PRIZE GIVING SPEECH - 2011

Madam Chairman, special guests, Governors, ladies and gentlemen, members of staff past and present, and students, both past and present, I am delighted to welcome you all to our annual Prize Giving held, as has become traditional, in the magnificent setting of the Liverpool Cathedral.

Once again, I will try to attempt to recognise just some of the achievements of our Belvedere Girls as we reflect on the 2010/11 Academic Year.

But before we begin I would like to welcome to the cathedral and, indeed, to our great city of Liverpool, the Chief Executive of Girls Days School Trust, Helen Fraser.

As you will see from your programme notes, Helen joined the GDST as Chief Executive in January 2010 after almost 40 years in book publishing, most recently as managing director of Penguin books.

Helen won a scholarship to Oxford where she read English Language and Literature, leaving with a first class degree in 1970. She was awarded a CBE for Services to Publishing in the New Years Honours of 2010 and now leads the GDST who are the largest single educator of girls in the UK with 24 outstanding girls' independent schools and two equally outstanding Academies, Belvedere and Birkenhead. The GDST is also the largest educational charity in the country.

Whether you're a student looking for textbooks, a professional seeking industry-specific manuals, or someone interested in self-improvement, these digital resources provide an efficient and accessible means of acquiring knowledge. Moreover, PDF books and manuals offer a range of benefits compared to other digital formats. PDF files are designed to retain their formatting regardless of the device used to open them. This ensures that the content appears exactly as intended by the author, with no loss of formatting or missing graphics. Additionally, PDF files can be easily annotated, bookmarked, and searched for specific terms, making them highly practical for studying or referencing. When it comes to accessing Welcome Speech For Prize Giving books and manuals, several platforms offer an extensive collection of resources. One such platform is Project Gutenberg, a nonprofit organization that provides over 60,000 free eBooks. These books are primarily in the public domain, meaning they can be freely distributed and downloaded. Project Gutenberg offers a wide range of classic literature, making it an excellent resource for literature enthusiasts. Another popular platform for Welcome Speech For Prize Giving books and manuals is Open Library. Open Library is an initiative of the Internet Archive, a non-profit organization dedicated to digitizing cultural artifacts and making them accessible to the public. Open Library hosts millions of books, including both public domain works and contemporary titles. It also allows users to borrow digital copies of certain books for a limited period, similar to a library lending system. Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents. In conclusion, Welcome Speech For Prize Giving books and manuals for download have transformed the way we access information. They provide a cost-effective and convenient means of acquiring knowledge, offering the ability to access a vast library of resources at our fingertips.
