author Patrick Graupp collaborates with two practitioners who performed the planning and implementation of the LEGO Group's worldwide Learning Organization. The book outlines the organizational and planning models used by the LEGO Group to create the internal ability to give and receive tacit skills and knowledge. Describing how and why TWI is used as the foundation for success in knowledge transfer across diverse languages and cultures, it provides step-by-step guidance on how to establish a solid organizational foundation for your own Learning Organization. Providing expert insight into the work of culture change, the book explains how to work with people to create motivation for moving to a new system of learning. It details the critical elements that made the implementation at the LEGO Group a success, identifies the stumbling blocks they encountered along the way, and explains how they were overcome. Case studies describe in detail what these efforts looked and felt like in actual application. The TWI program has long been recognized for its ability to generate results. After reading this book, you will gain valuable insight into how your organization, whether large or small, national or international, can integrate this timeless tool into your operating structure and your daily culture.

Shaping School Culture Terrence E. Deal, Kent D. Peterson, 2010-12-28. A Guide for Shaping Your School's Culture. In this thoroughly revised and updated edition of their classic book Shaping School Culture, Terrence Deal and Kent Peterson address the latest thinking on organizational culture and change and offer new ideas and strategies on how stories, rituals, traditions, and other cultural practices can be used to create positive, caring, and purposeful schools. This new edition gives expanded attention to the important symbolic roles of school leaders, including practical suggestions on how leaders can balance cultural goals and values against accountability demands, and features new and powerful case examples throughout. Most important, the authors show how school leaders can transform negative and toxic cultures so that trust, commitment, and sense of unity can prevail. Praise for Shaping School Culture: For those seeking enduring change that is measured in generations rather than months and to create a legacy rather than a headline, then Shaping School Culture is your guide. Dr. Douglas B. Reeves, founder, The Leadership and Learning Center, Englewood, CO. Deal and Peterson combine exquisite language, vibrant stories, and sage advice to support school leaders in embracing the paradoxical nature of their work. A must-read for all school leaders. Pam Robbins, educational consultant and author. Once again, the authors have presented practitioners, researchers, professional developers, school coaches, and others with a tremendous resource for renovating and reinvigorating schools. Karen M. Dyer, Ed.D., group director, Education and Nonprofit Sector, Office Center for Creative Leadership, Greensboro, NC.
