The Films of Robert Wise Richard C. Keenan,2007-08-22 From his early days as a film editor at RKO studios where he helped Orson Welles shape Citizen Kane to his success as a director and producer of musical blockbusters of the 1960s Robert Wise had a long and illustrious film career Unlike contemporaries such as Alfred Hitchcock John Ford or Howard Hawks however Wise s films lack any clearly discernible characteristics to signify his work There are few striking camera angles or visual flourishes that might distract from the primary obligation to present the story And like Hawks Wise never specialized in one or two genres but brought his directing skills to all manner of films His work as a director resists auteur categorization and that is a

chief reason why some critics have been unduly negative in their consideration of his work In The Films of Robert Wise Richard Keenan examines the nearly forty features that represent the director's career from Curse of the Cat People in 1944 to A Storm in Summer 2001 the only television production Wise ever directed Keenan offers a reappraisal of Wise's films so that the true quality of his work can be better appreciated Keenan argues that if there was a flaw in Robert Wise as a director it was that he lacked the ego and temperament of the artist which was not necessarily a flaw at all Indeed Wise was a conscientious craftsman who saw his work not primarily as a vehicle for his own ideas and visual style but as an opportunity to present narrative that quite simply engages informs and entertains It was this perspective that helped produce a number of memorable films over the years including the gritty noir Born to Kill the one two punch of The Set Up and Somebody Up There Likes Me the sci fi prophecy The Day the Earth Stood Still and the gripping indictment of capital punishment I Want to Live classics all Wise also won a pair of Oscars for two of the most memorable not to mention successful musicals of all time West Side Story and The Sound of Music Drawing on more than 30 hours of interviews with Wise as well as additional interviews with a number of his collaborators Keenan offers a welcome reassessment of the director's work In his analysis of each film Keenan reveals both Wise the craftsman and the artist In doing so The Films of Robert Wise finally confers upon this underappreciated director the recognition he deserves Hollywood Independent Paul Kerr, 2023-03-09 Hollywood Independent dissects the Mirisch Company one of the most successful employers of the package unit system of film production producing classic films like The Apartment 1960 West Side Story 1961 The Great Escape 1963 and The Thomas Crown Affair 1968 as irresistible talent packages Whilst they helped make the names of a new generation of stars including Steve McQueen and Shirley MacLaine as well as banking on the reputations of established auteurs like Billy Wilder they were also pioneers in dealing with controversial new themes with films about race In the Heat of the Night gender Some Like it Hot and sexuality The Children's Hour devising new ways of working with film franchises The Magnificent Seven The Pink Panther and In the Heat of the Night spun off 7 Mirisch sequels between them and cinematic cycles investing in adaptations of bestsellers and Broadway hits exploiting frozen funds abroad and exploring so called runaway productions The Mirisch Company bridges the gap between the end of the studio system by about 1960 and the emergence of a new cinema in the mid 1970s dominated by the Movie Brats The Advocate, 2003-04-29 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States Film Review, 1962 I Thought We Were Making Movies, Not History Walter Mirisch, 2008-04-10 This is a moving star filled account of one of Hollywood's true golden ages as told by a man in the middle of it all Walter Mirisch's company has produced some of the most entertaining and enduring classics in film history including West Side Story Some Like It Hot In the Heat of the Night and The Magnificent Seven His work has led to 87 Academy Award nominations and 28 Oscars Richly illustrated with rare photographs from his personal collection I Thought We Were Making

Movies Not History reveals Mirisch's own experience of Hollywood and tells the stories of the stars emerging and established who appeared in his films including Natalie Wood John Wayne Peter Sellers Sidney Poitier Steve McQueen Marilyn Monroe and many others With hard won insight and gentle humor Mirisch recounts how he witnessed the end of the studio system the development of independent production and the rise and fall of some of Hollywood's most gifted and notorious cultural icons A producer with a passion for creative excellence he offers insights into his innovative filmmaking process revealing a rare ingenuity for placating the demands of auteur directors weak kneed studio executives and troubled screen sirens From his early start as a movie theater usher to the presentation of such masterpieces as The Apartment Fiddler on the Roof and The Great Escape Mirisch tells the inspiring life story of his climb to the highest echelon of the American film industry This book assures Mirisch's legacy as Elmore Leonard puts it as one of the good guys Blood on the Stage, 1950-1975

Amnon Kabatchnik, 2011-04-14 Discussing more than 120 full length plays this volume provides an overview of the most important and memorable theatrical works of crime and detection produced between 1950 and 1975 The Hundred Greatest American Films Andrew J. Rausch, 2002 The Synergy of Film and Music Peter Rothbart, 2013 Although writers on film music frequently allude to specific parts of scores comprehensive examinations of entire scores are rare In addition most analyses of scores composed for the screen are discussed outside their cinematic context To best understand the role music plays in the production of a motion picture however it benefits the viewer to consider all of the elements that comprise the film experience In The Synergy of Film and Music Sight and Sound in Five Hollywood Films Peter Rothbart considers the aural and visual aspects of five representative films West Side Story Psycho Empire of the Sun Altered States and American Beauty For each film the author demonstrates how a variety of elements work together to create a singular experience After reviewing the various roles that music can serve in a film as well as providing an overview of the film scoring process Rothbart looks at each film examining them one musical cue at a time so the reader can watch the film while reading about each cue In these analyses timecode markings from commercial DVDs are provided in the margins alongside the text which allow the reader to correlate the on screen drama to the second Rothbart explains how music is used in a specific cue and why the decision was made to use that particular musical idea at that moment Consequently film music aficionados as well as students and composers of film music can gain real world perspective of how music is used in conjunction with other elements In this way the author raises awareness of music's relationship to virtually every other aspect of cinema dialogue sound effects costuming set design and cinematography to deepen the viewer's experience Written in a deliberately nontechnical way this book is intended for anyone interested in film to easily follow along At the same time the information can benefit professional filmmakers or composers because they can see with great detail how each cue unfolds along with all of the visual elements of the film This unique analysis makes The Synergy of Film and Music a fascinating and instructive volume that both casual viewers and students of cinema will appreciate Halliwell's The Movies that Matter, 2008
