The Status of Student Involvement in University Governance in Kenya Mulinge, Munyae M., Arasa, Josephine N., 2017-05-05 This book examines the concept of the democratization of governance in universities in Kenya with particular emphasis on students involvement in governance processes and decision making Data were collected from members of the student community utilizing a structured self administered questionnaire and from purposively selected key informants and focus group discussants drawn from Kenyatta University representing the public sector and the United States International University representing the private sector The guiding argument for the study was that shared governance one of the principles of good governance is critical in enabling the universities to deliver their visions and the missions effectively The results revealed that while in principle Kenyan universities have embraced democratic governance in which all stakeholders including students have a role to play in practice they continue to violate the core principles of good governance particularly shared governance Specifically students who are major stakeholders in university education are largely excluded from significant structures of governance thereby limiting their influence and participation Although their representation is mainly provided via student self governance organs unions associations and or councils their effectiveness is undermined considerably by the lack of trust and confidence of the student body and the unending manipulation by top university administrators and external political actors Student active involvement in decision making is mainly confined to lower levels such as the school faculty and departmental programme The authors call for a paradigm shift in the involvement of students in the governance of universities in ways that discourage the current culture of tokenism and political correctness that characterizes public and private universities in Kenya Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,2006-11-02 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya Science Research and Education in Africa Alain L. Fymat, Joachim Kapalanga, 2017-03-07 For various economic and political reasons many African countries lag behind the rest of the industrialised world in scientific and medical research and development However the presence of intellectual islands scattered across the continent gives hope that this is only a transient situation on the cusp of undergoing a profound and beneficial change For this reason the Society for the Advancement of Science in Africa was established to catalyse and contribute to this needed evolution Its mission is to contribute to Africa s economic advancement and sustainability through science research education and innovation This book provides a selection of papers from the Advancement of Science in Africa s third annual conference The conference was held under the overarching theme of science research and education in Africa with several important sub themes including but not limited to improving health research and disease surveillance education epidemic diseases with high mortality promoting women s interest in science careers fostering youth development with science education The collection illustrates how although the chapter contributors come from various countries and universities representing their own academic research they all share a common interest in advancing science research and education in Africa

Transforming Tertiary Agricultural Education in Africa David Kraybill, John Lynam, Adipala Ekwamu, 2021-11-24 Enormous changes are affecting African production agriculture urbanization and food consumption patterns requiring new approaches to training and knowledge generation and dissemination to achieve food security Many agricultural universities and other tertiary agricultural education TAE organizations have been slow to respond hindered by inadequate staffing and facilities and growing competition for funds However some African agricultural universities are transforming themselves and are achieving remarkable success This book documents successful approaches to remaking TAE in Africa to inspire leaders both formal and informal of other TAE organizations It emphasises adaptive strategies and processes creating an internal culture driven by stakeholder needs and where organizational transformation improves the quality and relevance of teaching research and outreach The chapters cover the role of TAE in agricultural transformation trends in TAE in Africa solutions to the rigour versus relevance dilemma curriculum design informed by actual and emerging labour market conditions innovation and entrepreneurship TAE quality assurance and networking among TAE institutions

Higher Education Leadership and Management have become increasingly important throughout the years due to the complexities that have to be addressed by universities worldwide. This can be seen not only in professionalisation in fields such as faculty management or in areas of quality assurance and internationalisation but also in the need for exchange and training in academic leadership such as that of deans or study deans or of university leadership in general. The Dialogue on Innovative Higher Education Strategies DIES is addressing this need in emerging countries by building platforms of exchange and offering training courses. Not only is the programme supporting capacity building of human resources but it is also specifically focusing on inducing change within the universities such as introducing new instruments or tools in the area of quality assurance and internationalisation and addressing specific challenges or setting up new structures in the form of projects in the frame of the training. The National Multiplication Trainings Programme under DIES is further addressing the sustainability and multiplication of the DIES Programme that is alumni are enabled to implement capacity building in higher education leadership and management in their national context. The articles within this volume of the Potsdamer Beitr ge zur Hochschulforschung Potsdam Contributions to Higher Education Research analyse and share the experiences of such training programmes held in Colombia Democratic Republic of Congo Guinea Malaysia Kenya and Uganda. They all revolve around the best ways to address the needs and challenges in higher education leadership and management and in building capacities in these areas.
