

Speech from Paul Richards – Dave's uncle

Thank you all for being here. David was my nephew and although I'm a Central Graduate I'm hoping that my connection with David will provide some latitude from this predominantly Trojan crowd.

First to Val. You truly are an Angel. Words like tower of strength, inspirational, compassionate and loving only begin to describe you. We love you very much.

To Cale. I know how you feel as I lost my father at about the same age as you. Your dad may physically be gone but spiritually he will always be with you. Its like my dad is this little figure sitting on my shoulder, not a day goes by that I don't think of him. He doesn't always agree with everything I do but he is always there, like your dad will be, as a source of strength and guidance.

To the Abusow family, thank you welcoming and making David a part of your family. A special thanks to Mr. Abusow who became David's personal shop teacher and helped immensely in preparing him for an outstanding career.

To Steve Officer and Carol, thank you. You provided Dave a lot of guidance, love and support in his teen years and beyond. You both were a powerful influence in helping him develop into the man he became.

To everyone else here, students, friends, his ball team (David loved his baseball), your outpouring of support helps me to make some sense of a life cut way too short.

Finally, a few personal thoughts of Dave. When I look at the picture here I see the same little grin as he had when as a 4 year old he stuck his finger in my wedding cake. I remember him as a teenager helping me build a backyard rink at our home in Whitby.

To my kids, Dave was always " Big Dave " due to his physical stature. Over the years we came to realize that it was a very appropriate label due to his compassion for others and the size of his heart.

Thank you.
