

Graduation Welcome Speech – June 2010

It is my pleasure to welcome families, friends, teachers, and our younger students to graduation day at Wilmington Montessori School.

Earlier this morning, I spoke to you and your families at breakfast. Now, I speak to you as the graduates. I don't know if you all have noticed, but there has been an air of excitement in the halls of Wilmington Montessori for the past week – an excitement that began to peak yesterday when your posters went up in the lobby, graduation practice began, we had our last all school assembly and we all began to listen to Kelly practicing the music for today in the gym. There is excitement in the air and it is all about each of you. This entire school community – your teachers, your parents, grandparents, Aunts and Uncles, and brothers and sisters are so very proud of you today.

I would like to thank each of you for all you have brought to WMS during your time here, many of you since you were only a year or so old. You have brought energy to the school with the

Personal Narratives of Teacher Knowledge Betty C. Eng, 2022-01-01

This book illustrates how the experiential histories of teachers shape and inform the knowledge of teachers as professionals Situating personal experiences into the context of social political and economic events gives clarity to the intercultural dynamics of being Chinese and Western What can we learn from each other to transform our teaching and learning The book engages in a cross cultural perspective that is highly relevant for teachers teacher education curriculum making and policy planning for a global community The book is also an invitation to internationalize the classroom for teaching and learning in a diverse and global world and to educators and policy makers to expand our understanding of cross cultural complexities for an increasingly diversified and global community By viewing the classroom through the multiple lens of different cultures educators have an opportunity to cross over to see experience and understand how others live

The Devout Woman Emmanuel Igwaro Odongo-Aginya, 2013-01-18 Torn between traditional and the Christian religions Anyadwe the wife of Ogwok one of the pioneers of Christian faith in Coomit village lead a stormy life with her posthumous son Acellam Because of her pious faith in the Christian faith she had received and in her dead husband Ogwok Anyadwe rejected all the traditional inheritance marriage laws which were fronted to her by Opuk the paternal uncle of her husband Ogwok Opuk was a hard liner traditionalist medicine man and soothsayer who chaired all the village elders meets He was highly respected in the village because of these irreplaceable qualities His prophecies were precise and his herbal medicines were indubitable Nevertheless he abominated Christianity and called it white man hoax doctrine of dominance over a black man land cultures and integrities Even if Anyadew gave due respect to Opuk leaderships as anyone else in the village did their ideologies about Christian God and traditional gods were unmatched Notwithstanding the snappish differences between Anyadwe and Opuk the village community appreciated their stands As the results most of villagers practiced both Traditional and the Christians faith because of Anyadwe and Opuk influence Opuk often prophesied about the calamities to befall the village at the start of the year These he always attributed to the disobedience of the villagers for the reason that the community had accepted the Christians God and has forsaken their own traditional gods whom they have been worshipping for years During such occasions he also prophesied successes for the village which he also accredited to those who participated in traditional rituals to appease the traditional gods Even Missionaries at the Coomit Mission were sometimes baffled by Opuk ingenious acts and words however describing them as Satan powers at work Nevertheless they favored Anyadwe and described her as a role model of a pious Christian
