analysis of Italian industrial novels in particular while taking into consideration their paratexts and interrogating the possibility of the presence of a testimonial intent in the text The study reconstructs the connections between visions of factory utopias and Italian industrial literature starting with an overview of said visions of utopia and how they came into being in Europe following the industrial revolution It then proceeds by exploring the relationship between the twentieth century Italian entrepreneur Adriano Olivetti and Italian industrial authors and the influence that Olivetti's visions of factory utopia had on these writers and how they perceived themselves as witnesses of factory life and workers alienation In analyzing these texts and particularly the novels by Paolo Volponi and Ottiero Ottieri the book focuses on the previously overlooked representation of the self in industrial literature and on how this self expresses the need for testimony The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1893 Specimens of Gothic architecture, accompanied by historical and descriptive accounts [by E.J.
