Whittle,2018-01-25 This book presents a range of perspectives on the current state of Catholic education in the opening decades of the twenty first century All of the chapters have their origin in an International Conference on Catholic Education held at Heythrop College University of London in September 2016 The book brings together many leading scholars to present a survey of the latest research on Catholic education in areas such as the aims of Catholic education Catholic schools and Catholic identity leadership issues in Catholic schools and fresh thinking about the place of Religious Education RE in Catholic Education This book demonstrates how the field of Catholic Education Studies has firmly come of age Rather than being a subfield of educational or theological discourse it is now an established field of research and study As such the book invites readers to engage with much of the new thinking on Catholic education that has grown rapidly in recent years It offers a broad range of contemporary perspectives on research in Catholic Education and rich insights into current thinking about Catholic Education

Adolescent Romantic Relationships as Precursors of Healthy Adult Marriages Benjamin R. Karney,2007 Policymakers are interested in promoting healthy marriages in adulthood by providing services to strengthen the adolescent precursors of healthy marriage especially within low income populations But if programs and curricula targeting adolescent romantic relationships are to be effective they must be grounded in an accurate understanding of how adolescent relationships function and the role that they play in the development of healthy adult marriages This report evaluates the current landscape of theory research and interventions addressing the role of adolescent romantic relationships in the development of healthy adult marriages Drawing on a thorough review of the existing theoretical and empirical literature in this area as well as interviews with practitioners directly involved with developing or administering relationship education to adolescents the authors bring together relevant research and theory from a wide range of disciplines that have examined these issues and suggest future directions for research and intervention In particular they note that although research describing romantic relationships in low income populations is sparse there are already existing nationally representative data sets that include data from substantial numbers of well sampled low income adolescents Analyses of these data would have relatively low cost and a potentially high yield for informing policies that target low income youth
