What Can I Do With My Old Textbooks:

A Multimodal and Ethnographic Approach to Textbook Discourse Germán Canale, 2022-08-30 This book offers a new framework for analysing textbook discourse bridging the gap between contemporary ethnographic approaches and multimodality for a contextually sensitive approach which considers the multiplicity of multimodal resources involved in the production and use of textbooks The volume makes the case for textbook discourse studies to go beyond studies of textual representation and critically consider the ways in which textbook discourse is situated within wider social practices Each chapter considers a different social semiotic practice in which textbook and textbook discourse is involved representation communication interaction learning and recontextualization In bringing together this work with contemporary ethnography scholarship the book offers a comprehensive toolkit for further research on textbook discourse and pushes the field forward into new directions This innovative book will be of particular interest to students and scholars in discourse analysis multimodality social semiotics language and communication and curriculum studies Comprehension During Guided, Shared, and Independent Reading, Grades K - 6 Cunningham, Hall, 2011-04-15 Learn when and how to teach comprehension using Comprehension during Guided Shared and Independent Reading for grades K 6 This 224 page book includes step by step lessons and research based strategies that can be adapted for any student or any classroom This book gives a glimpse into classrooms using these strategies as well as suggestions for materials needed planning and grouping students and a list of recommended children s books Decline and Fall John Michael Greer, 2014-04-01 The political theorist and author of After Progress examines the future of U S dominance on the world stage in this persuasive and provocative book The decline and fall of America s global empire is the central feature of today s geopolitical landscape How we respond to this reality will determine much of our future trajectory with implications that reach far beyond the limits of one nation s borders In Decline and Fall John Michael Greer examines the path we re on and presents a persuasive challenge to the conventional wisdom of empire Rather than asking if today s American empire should survive Greer asks whether it can and goes on to demonstrate that the answer is no After exploring the inevitable consequences of imperial collapse Decline and Fall proposes a renewal of democratic institutions as the only constructive way forward Off the Hook Nancy Besonen, 2023 Back in 1981 publisher Ed Danner took a chance hiring Nancy Besonen a rookie reporter from Chicago s South Side for his weekly newspaper the L Anse Sentinel Her humor column Off the Hook was ostensibly all about fishing but she quickly cut loose writing about anything relevant to life especially in the Michigan s Upper Peninsula as long as it made her readers smile There s something for everyone with a strong sense of the ridiculous Ask Miss Demeanor Life s a Breach and Baldness A Growing Concern Also We Make Hay Men Are from Mud and a particularly sensitive piece I m Poopeye the Sailor Mom From Michigan s tiniest predator the no see um to life s biggest challenges like trying to fly into or out of the U P Besonen s on the beat Nancy Besonen s weekly columns in the L Anse Sentinel always made me smile or chuckle and quite often even snort with mirth

Besonen connects so well with our quirky Yooper culture and its priorities Her perspective of our everyday lives is hilarious and reminiscent of the late Erma Bombeck Terri Martin author and U P Notable Book Award recipient A veteran journalist Nancy Besonen has a wonderful gift for sweet and tangy humorous writing and storytelling She uses visual nuanced language to paint portraits of Michigan s Upper Peninsula s people places and events infusing culture history and geography Her colorful tales filled with wit action twists and turns are a must read for those in Michigan and beyond as she inspires us all to think about our own life journeys Martha Bloomfield award winning author oral historian artist and poet Besonen a gifted journalist who moved north from Chicago for the fishing and brought with her a deep sensibility for the U P both teaches and inspires This is true nonfiction at its best both wit and investigative journalism I am glad she collects it here Mack Hassler former professor of English Kent State University From Modern History Press www.ModernHistoryPress.com

Living History John L. Purdy,2023-08-03 Living History s protagonists Mia and Hugh encounter a space vehicle that crashed in the mountains of the Pacific Northwest in the ninth century C E The problem is they cannot remember this when they find themselves in 9 000 B C E where their long journey begins Aimed at a short time before the crash to prevent the ship from crashing their time travel is an experimental shot in the dark but the experiment fails However as they struggle to stay alive they are not without resources the beings who come to be called cousins have implanted Nano technology in them to maintain their bodies and minds but also an ability for to communicate without speech In Mia they provide a store of limited information which includes a database of human languages but also information on the location of six research stations from which generations of cousins have monitored human evolution for millennia with periodic expeditions These stations frame the plot as they learn how to use them while they travel the world interacting with people and cultures through deep time and come to devise a plan to use their unique situation to prepare for the day when they return to current times to set in motion a series of events to transform radically the course of human history sending humankind on a quest to recapture its lost kinship with the world that surrounds them The only obstacle to their plan besides the obvious hazards of such a long lifespan is a branch species of humanity that has preyed upon humans for all time and who have grown in numbers to threaten the very existence for all blending into the human race in its long migration through time they have become virtually invisible and wield great power Mia and Hugh must counter the Kapitalna s growing interest in them in a final sprint to today and a great awakening

A Love Letter in Cuneiform Tomáš Zmeškal,2016-03-21 Set in Czechoslovakia between the 1940s and the 1990s Tom Zmeškal s stimulating novel focuses on one family s tragic story of love and the unspoken Josef meets his wife Kveta before the Second World War at a public lecture on Hittite culture Kveta chooses to marry Josef over their mutual friend Hynek but when her husband is later arrested and imprisoned for an unnamed crime Kveta gives herself to Hynek in return for help and advice The author explores the complexities of what is not spoken what cannot be said the repercussions of silence after an ordeal the absurdity of forgotten pain and what it is to be an outsider In Zmeškal s tale told not chronologically but rather as a mosaic of events time progresses unevenly and unpredictably as does one s understanding The saga belongs to a particular family but it also exposes the larger ongoing struggle of postcommunist Eastern Europe to come to terms with suffering when catharsis is denied Reporting from a fresh multicultural perspective Zmeškal makes a welcome contribution to European literature in the twenty first century

Imagined Histories Anthony Molho,Gordon S. Wood,2018-06-05

This collection of essays by twenty one distinguished American historians reflects on a peculiarly American way of imagining the past At a time when history writing has changed dramatically the authors discuss the birth and evolution of historiography in this country from its origins in the late nineteenth century through its present more cosmopolitan character In the book s first part concerning recent historiography are chapters on exceptionalism gender economic history social theory race and immigration and multiculturalism Authors are Daniel Rodgers Linda Kerber Naomi Lamoreaux Dorothy Ross Thomas Holt and Philip Gleason The three American centuries are discussed in the second part with chapters by Gordon Wood George Fredrickson and James Patterson The third part is a chronological survey of non American histories including that of Western civilization ancient history the middle ages early modern and modern Europe Russia and Asia Contributors are Eugen Weber Richard Saller Gabrielle Spiegel Anthony Molho Philip Benedict Richard Kagan Keith Baker Joseph Zizak Volker Berghahn Charles Maier Martin Malia and Carol Gluck Together these scholars reveal the unique perspective American historians have brought to the past of their own nation as well as that of the world Formerly writing from a conviction that America had a singular destiny American historians have gradually come to share viewpoints of historians in other countries about which they write The result is the virtual disappearance of what was a distinctive American voice That voice is the subject of this book
