Urban Photography in Argentina David William Foster, 2007-08-17 This work examines the cultural impact of photography in Argentina following the end of the country's military dictatorship in the early 1980s The interpretive study surveys nine modern photographers in Argentina Marcelo Brodsky Gabriel Valansi Eduardo Gil Gaby Messina Adriana Lestido Gabriel Diaz Marcos Lopez Silvio Fabrykant and Gabriela Liffschitz and covers the major themes in each of their works The author details each photographer's cultural and artistic contributions and provides a listing of the websites where their works can be viewed

Urban Planning Education Andrea I. Frank, Christopher Silver, 2017-06-26 This book examines planning education provision and approaches globally through a comparative and longitudinal perspective It explores the emergence of planning education in the 20th century with its rich variation and yet a remarkable degree of cross fertilization Each of the sections of the book is framed by an overview essay which has been prepared by the editors to provide the reader with a critical exposure to relevant scholarship drawing on the detailed case studies and exploratory essays on key issues in planning education The first part of this volume focuses on the emergence of planning education programs in the twentieth century as a way to understand the current planning education environment Then we explore how education in urban regional and spatial planning has developed in different ways in different countries and continents The final part of this volume aims to envision how planning can adapt and develop to remain relevant to the development of human environments in the 21st century Urban planning education has become a pervasive practice throughout the world as urbanization and development pressures have increased over the past half century and as demand increased for professional trained experts to guide those processes The approaches vary widely based in part upon the discipline from which the planning program developed as well as the context specific challenges within the country or region where the program resides

Making Movies into Art Kaveh Askari, 2019-07-25 Focusing on early cinema's relationship with the pictorial arts this pioneering study explores how cinema's emergence was grounded in theories of picture composition craft and arts education from magic lantern experiments in 1890s New York through to early Hollywood feature films in the 1920s Challenging received notions that the advent of cinema was a celebration of mechanisation and a radical rejection of nineteenth century traditions of representation Kaveh Askari instead emphasises the overlap between craft traditions and modernity in early film Opening up valuable new perspectives on the history of film as art Askari links American silent cinema with the practice of teaching the public how to appreciate fine art charts its entrance into arts education via art schools and university film courses shows how concepts of artistic production entered films through a material interest in the studio and examines the way in which Maurice Tourneur and Rex Ingram made early art films by shaping an image of the film director around the idea of the fine artist
