Cigar,2012 Dealing with tribal systems has posed a continuing challenge to Al Qaida as it operates in the Middle East and Africa where a tribal environment is still an integral part of society in many of the countries How Al Qaida views and manages the tribal system within its individual areas of operation in many cases can mean the difference between success and failure and the jihadist movement cannot ignore this issue which has been a major factor affecting its prospects especially in Iraq This study examines Al Qaida s experience dealing with the tribes in Iraq in terms of a triangular relationship involving the Sunni tribes Al Qaida and the government or the United States as the governing authority in the initial stages with latter two entities often competing for the allegiance of the tribes Resources in Education ,1980-04
