

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space weapons and launch them?	That U.S. suspend the prohibition of launching nuclear weapons.	Not really.
2. Would anyone benefit from the launch and retrieval of satellites?	They would certainly gain useful information about our world. They would also learn military secrets.	They might develop better ideas of how to use satellites. Launching them for U.S. purposes was still a big waste of money. Launching, placing, and retrieving all launched satellites costs $100,000.
3. Would anyone disagree with the deal?	Not really.	Some people in Congress wanted the agreement and the President.
4. Would the deal achieve what it was made to achieve?	Yes. The governments had an agreement. There was no military victory.	The American public was satisfied and would not take a second look at the deal.

2. Suppose the agreement simply set up the program, without these (other) provisions. What would the program look like? Would it be different? Explain. What provisions the President gave would the Soviet Union have that the U.S. would not have?
