Institutional Learning and Knowledge Transfer Across Epistemic Communities Elias G. Carayannis, Ali Pirzadeh, Denisa Popescu, 2011-11-25 Over the past several decades as the pace of globalization has accelerated operational issues of international coordination have often been overlooked For example the global financial crisis that began in 2007 is attributed in part to a lack of regulatory oversight As a result supranational organizations such as the G 20 the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund have prioritized strengthening of the international financial architecture and providing opportunities for dialogue on national policies international co operation and international financial institutions Prevailing characteristics of the global economic systems such as the increasing power of financial institutions changes in the structure of global production decline in the authority of nation states over their national economy and creation of global institutional setting e g global governance have created the conditions for a naturally evolving process towards enabling national epistemic communities to create institutions that comply with global rules and regulations can control crises In this context transfer of technical knowledge from the larger organizations and its global epistemic communities to member communities is becoming a policy tool to convince participants in the international system to have similar ideas about which rules will govern their mutual participation In the realm of finance and banking regulation the primary focus is on transfer of specialized and procedural knowledge in technical domains such as accounting procedures payment systems and corporate governance principles thereby promoting institutional learning at national and local levels In this volume the authors provide in depth analysis of initiatives to demonstrate how this type of knowledge generated at the international organization level is codified into global standards and disseminated to members particularly in the developing world where the legal and regulatory infrastructure is often lacking They argue that despite the challenges when a country intends to join the global system its institutions and economic structures need to move toward the global norms In so doing they shed new light on the dynamics of knowledge transfer financial regulation economic development with particular respect to supporting global standards and avoiding future crises

Collegiate News and Views , 1966-10 American Public Policy: Promise and Performance, 9th Edition B. Guy Peters, 2012-10-16 Voting and elections may often be cited as the most entertaining aspect of political theatre however it is the arena of public policy that has the most direct impact on the lives of the citizenry And as we have seen played out in recent debates over healthcare reform policy changes can be dramatic sweeping and often hotly contested Known for providing a trusted and comprehensive overview of the policy process B Guy Peters returns with the ninth edition of American Public Policy Promise and Performance Beyond walking students through the governmental structures and policy making procedures Peters efficiently covers a wide swath of policy areas and then concludes with a look at both cost benefit analysis and ethical analysis Framed in context of the aftermath of the financial crisis and Great Recession the ninth edition considers how policy has been impacted by persistent unemployment and growing income inequality In addition Peters discusses the strain on education budgets increased oversight of financial activities fiscal policies meant to stimulate the economy and the political challenge of balancing the budget in light of increased public spending Railway Track and Structures ,1918 Philippine Corporate Finance ,1997 Who's who in the South and Southwest ,1978 Includes names from the States of Alabama Arkansas the District of Columbia Florida Georgia Kentucky Louisiana Mississippi North Carolina Oklahoma South Carolina Tennessee Texas and Virginia and Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands The Signal Engineer ,1918 Railway Engineering and Maintenance of Way ,1918 Railway Signal Engineer ,1918
