McIver, 2017-07-05 The relationship between music

and painting in the Early Modern period is the focus of this collection of essays by an international group of distinguished art historians and musicologists. Each writer takes a multidisciplinary approach as he or she explores the interface between music performance and painting or between music and art theory. The essays reflect a variety and range of approaches and offer methodologies which might usefully be employed in future research in this field. The volume is dedicated to the memory of Franca Trinchieri Camiz, an art historian who worked extensively on topics related to art and music and who participated in some of the conference panels from which many of these essays originate. Three of Professor Camiz's own essays are included in the final section of this volume together with a bibliography of her writings in this field. They are preceded by two thematic groups of essays covering aspects of musical imagery in portraits, issues in iconography and theory and the relationship between music and art in religious imagery.

Mona Lisa's Pajamas A. Craig Copetas, 2009 High class armchair travel at its very best. Mona Lisa's Pajamas gives readers a round trip ticket for a journey around the world carrying them to distant destinations most of us will never visit. Originally written for The Wall Street Journal and Bloomberg News, A. Craig Copetas's delightfully surprising columns are now collected in book form for the first time. Covering exotic locales, improbable business ventures, artisan winemakers and memorably oddball characters, Copetas's vivid writing brings his subjects alive with richly textured descriptions only a truly gifted observer can capture. From Sparta's souvenir sword makers swamped with demand thanks to the hit movie 300 to a Russian golf pro whose favorite clubs were built from the scrapped metal of a Soviet nuclear missile, Copetas writes of unorthodox business pursuits and faraway locations with an infectious joie de vivre and an unerring eye for what makes enjoyable reading. Unforgettable visits for the armchair traveler: Israel's Sacred Golf Course where bomb craters have become bunkers; How to Succeed in Business and Avoid Serious Head Trauma near Stockholm; a former British Special Air Services commando teaches executives how to survive a kidnapping; An Honorable and Ancient Solution to Boardroom Disputes; the 21st century duel; Propulsion Is a Real Plus with Clubs Made in a Missile Factory; A Russian treasures his set of golf clubs made from an old Soviet missile once aimed at the US; Da Vinci Code Fans Dig Up the Dead; Dan Brown's devotees swarm a town central to the blockbuster's story.
