Harris,1999 Relying largely on the work of peace and conflict resolution scholars from many disciplines Peacebuilding for Adolescents presents proactive strategies for educators and community leaders In order to deter adolescent violence educators have been responding to increasing levels of school violence by severely punishing aggressive children and politicians have been clamoring for tougher criminal justice measures to deter youth from crime The authors in this book argue instead for a more humane response by teaching young people to value peace to learn to manage their own conflicts and to live more peacefully They take a broad view that ranges over three strategic levels of analysis personal school and community They argue for the promotion of a culture of nonviolence in the schools to help create what Dr Martin Luther King Jr called the beloved community Letters from Women in Pharmacy: Stories on Integrating Life and Career Sara J. desire to earn a Ph D My broader goal is to inspire others to look more closely at their own lives and take time to honor those who have made a difference This book is written as a way to say thanks and serves to connect my life through their impact The backdrop of my journey will be lessons learned and how my successes were encouraged while my limitations were addressed with constructive criticism kindness and unconditional love I chose Four Tubas a Guitar and a Gallery of Cheerleaders as part of the principal title to signify my musical background and its impact on my life One of the primary bonds for several of my mentors was that we all studied and played the same instrument the tuba which in my opinion is the greatest instrument in the world The second part of the principal title A Gallery of Cheerleaders symbolizes the encouragement I received over the years from my biggest fans and support network My cheerleaders consisted of people from all walks of life and experiences The subtitle Transition in the Life of a Black Ph D is self explanatory as is my usual writing style but describes my experiences as an African American man in pursuit of higher education and my share of the American Dream
