Blending in as an angel is hard enough but when you re the adoptive mom of a primordial lake monster in a town full of demons it s nearly impossible Aurielle Jones spent the last several millennia guarding Eden Valley and its secrets without forming attachments to anyone or anything But then the unexpected happened she made friends Now her loyalty and obedience to the one who created her are put to the test when she is forced to choose between friendship love and obedience When her darkest secret and deepest regret reemerges in Eden Valley and threatens to destroy the town the balance between heaven and hell and her heart she is given a command Destroy the nephilim again who was once the center of her life or watch her friends and neighbors fall one by one One wrong decision will cost Elle the town she s been entrusted with the lives of the people she s unexpectedly grown to love and her very existence Can she save the humans she loves without sacrificing her chance at happiness Or will she let duty overcome desire and be forced to witness the destruction of everyone she holds dear Guardian of Eden is the fourth and final book in a magical new paranormal women s fiction series from USA Today Bestselling Author Amy Cissell author of the Eleanor Morgan novels and the Oracle Bay series Keywords contemporary fantasy paranormal romance demon romance fantasy complete series angel and demon romance theological fantasy single mother fantasy best female friends humorous fantasy supernatural series tough heroine books paranormal women s fiction characters over 40 women over 40 fantasy romance occult romance psychic fantasy romance occult fantasy Middle School Mari V Marievil Rodriguez-Keever, 2022-11-08

A story set in the beginning of the 1990 s of a young girl trying to figure out her place in her family her new school and the world In the 90 s middle schools had not developed yet most places still had junior highs As a Military brat Mari must move every 3 4 years She is the middle child of a Puerto Rican family moving from Hawaii to New York Her new school and age are leading her into adolescence crushes conflicts with family and friends as well as confusion Feeling out of place and awkward turns out to be a normal emotion for Mari as she embraces weirdness as a quirky character trait Separated on the Paris Metro Cody Tolmasoff, 2020-10-01 As she pounded on the door of the Metro to let her in the train lurched forward and started to move Running over to look through the window where her younger sister Zoe and cousin Thibault sat alone she yelled go to Thibault s house Watching helplessly the train disappeared into the tunnel Anna Dahlia a middle school girl on a

Paris family vacation wanted to prove her independence and show how responsible she could be. She never thought it would be this tough. While traveling on the Paris Metro with her younger sister and cousin, her purse is stolen while boarding a connecting train. She is left without directions, phone, or wallet. No one is around to help. Will she avoid a panic attack? Where will she find help? Can she make her way? Will her sister and cousin manage on their own? This wasn't the vacation she expected. One story written as two books told from each sister's perspective. In the first book, read the story from Anna Dahlia's viewpoint. Continue with the second book to increase comprehension, add extra details, and story variations with the story seen from her sister Zoe's point of view. Reading a book twice can dramatically increase reader comprehension. However, encouraging readers to read a story twice can be tough. Providing the same story from another character's point of view, bringing a change in perspective, and some alternate storylines will excite readers to take a deeper dive into what they have just read.

this time of turmoil and tragedy With these ideas in mind the American Educational History Journal sought to hear from historians and other scholars about this unique and devastating time in our country s history The Journal honors the traditions of oral history and narrative storytelling as a means to gather the voices of those whose lives have been touched by the COVID 19 crisis literally everyone around the globe This special issue deviates a bit from traditional AEHJ requirements in that we specifically invited narratives not be full blown historical research studies The point of this special issue is for authors themselves to serve as the archival material that will benefit future scholars interested in understanding what it meant to live through this health catastrophe while doing the work of educators We believe we owe it to the historians of the future to share our voices in real time

Crossing the Digital Divide Barbara Jean Monroe, 2004-04-17 As poor nonwhite communities on the other side of the digital divide become immersed in electronic media how can we evaluate their experiences to transform the teaching of writing and literature and improve student learning This important book offers a balanced view of instructional technology and critical multiculturalism with valuable insights to help English educators at all levels working in all types of schools
