Miller, 2017-05-16 The essential lifesaver for students who want to master probability For students learning probability its numerous applications techniques and methods can seem intimidating and overwhelming That's where The Probability Lifesaver steps in Designed to serve as a complete stand alone introduction to the subject or as a supplement for a course this accessible and user friendly study guide helps students comfortably navigate probability's terrain and achieve positive results The Probability Lifesaver is based on a successful course that Steven Miller has taught at Brown University Mount Holyoke College and Williams College With a relaxed and informal style Miller presents the math with thorough reviews of prerequisite materials worked out problems of varying difficulty and proofs He explores a topic first to build intuition and only after that does he dive into technical details Coverage of topics is comprehensive and materials are repeated for reinforcement both in the guide and on the book's website. An appendix goes over proof techniques and video lectures of the course are available online. Students using this book should have some familiarity with algebra and precalculus. The Probability Lifesaver not only enables students to survive probability but also to achieve mastery of the subject for use in future courses. A helpful introduction to probability or a perfect supplement for a course. Numerous worked out examples. Lectures based on the chapters are available free online. Intuition of problems emphasized first then technical proofs given. Appendixes review proof techniques. Relaxed conversational approach.

Supervision in the Hospitality Industry John R. Walker, Jack E. Miller, 2015-12-29. Supervision in the Hospitality Industry 8th Edition focuses on the different roles of employees from beginning leaders newly promoted supervisor or anyone planning a career in the hospitality field. A market leader, this text is widely used by thousands of students training for a career in the hospitality industry and current hospitality supervisors alike. Supervision is unique in that it does not solely rely on the supervisor's point of view; instead, it considers the viewpoints of all levels of associates to create an informed picture of management and supervision in the hospitality industry.

Advanced Latin Stephen Anderson, James Morwood, Katharine Radice, 2013-10-16. Advanced Latin offers a range of material to help students build and develop the knowledge and skills needed for A2 and Pre U Latin. There are 24 translation comprehension exercises based on passages taken predominantly from Livy, Caesar, and Ovid. These match exactly the requirements of A2, but the passages work equally well as unseen for those working towards Pre U. Six further passages are offered for unseen translation only and are designed to stretch the most able. There are then 12 passages of continuous prose for translation into Latin, each supported by notes to help the student and an appendix that contains a comprehensive English-Latin vocabulary. To support the study of A2 and Pre U literature, there are short commentaries on sample passages from each of the prescribed authors, demonstrating a variety of interpretative approaches. In addition, for each author, there is an annotated bibliography to guide both teacher and student to the most useful secondary literature available. A separate section focuses on the Pre U unseen literary criticism option and offers six practice passages.
