

SUBSTANCE ABUSE

What Is Substance Abuse?

Substance abuse is the harmful use of psychoactive substances.

These substances include alcohol and illegal drugs.

Substance abuse entails overindulgence in substances to the point where it endangers the person's health.

Substance abuse does not necessarily mean addiction.

Addiction is a more severe condition characterized by compulsive use despite harmful consequences.

Substance abuse can range in severity, with some able to control their use while others have more pronounced negative impacts.

Factors for Substance Abuse

01

Societal

Seeking acceptance from peers, socializing in environments where substance use is normalized.

02

Environmental

Easy access to substances in the environment. Availability in social settings or within communities.

03

Personal

Using substances as a way to cope with stress or challenges. Self-medication for mental health issues.

Different Ways to Help

01

Education and Awareness

Conduct educational programs to raise awareness about the risks and consequences of substance abuse.

Providing accurate and accessible information about substances, their effects, and the signs of addiction equips individuals to make informed choices and identify potential problems.

02

Building Empathy

Foster supportive environments within families, schools, and communities.

Substance abuse can lead to feelings of isolation and loneliness. A strong support system provides individuals with a sense of belonging and connection.

03

Coping Skills Development

Substance abuse often becomes a coping mechanism for dealing with negative emotions.

By developing healthy coping skills, individuals learn alternative ways to manage these emotions without resorting to drugs or alcohol.

Substance Abuse Educational Games:

Game Over: a Youth Substance Abuse Manual Mark Black,2021-02-23 It's out your secret Everyone knows your friends your parents your brothers and sisters your teachers your classmates your significant other They all know you have a problem You've tried to mask it behind quick restroom encounters with eye drops behind your lies your chilled attitude and your cracked smile But now everyone sees it Your secret is in plain sight Like the heat rising from hot asphalt we can see the abuse you have done to your body The abuse grips like fingertips to sparked matches and you tried to blow it out only the harder you blew the quicker it burned and the quicker the light in your life began to get darker If there was ever a time you thought you had this locked away the game is over No longer can you assume they don't know No longer can you mask your innocence with perfume and cologne It is time to get up out of the darkness Put that shame down and walk into a new sunrise You weren't given into defeat you merely postponed your victory These words are sent to capture you back from within to sweep you toward a better place You might have thought you can quit at anytime but you can't dig your way out of a young addict's hole Today is the day you give it up for good But you must first get up admit your mistakes and come to terms with the fact that The game is over
