Hunter's Moon Ken Gilland, 2012-07-09 What's the worst thing that can happen to a scientist? For Adam Boone it was to see something that defied scientific explanation. When he was in high school, one of his friends vanished during an autumn hailstorm in a flash of light, an event only he saw. Unable to explain what happened, he lied to the authorities investigating the disappearance. Already mistrusted as an outsider in his own hometown, the incident caused him and the other friends who were on the hill that night to be shunned by his neighbors. Adam left Milltown, North Carolina, after high school graduation, attended college, and achieved his dream of becoming an archaeologist. After a near-fatal accident, Adam returns to his home state. He reconnects with his old high school friends and must face once again the events of that night. Why have he and the others received letters taunting them about that night, hinting of future retribution? What can any of them do when faced with the abduction of their children and murder? What is the connection to that night? And why is Adam the only one who ever left Milltown? Will they find the answers under a Hunter's Moon?

Outrageously Alice Phyllis Reynolds Naylor, 2012-05-22 Now that she is settling into eighth grade, the class she used to envy, Alice McKinley, is discovering that it isn't all that exciting. But maybe it's up to her to make this year as thrilling as she thought it would be. Out with the old, plain Jane Alice; in with the new, stylish, creative Alice. She's sick of being boring. It's time to be outrageous. But what if outrageous isn't all it's cracked up to be? Either way, what if instead Alice finds herself in situations that are more embarrassing than they are wild and fun? Is Alice destined to be the same boring girl forever? Tender Years Helen Kerr, 2009-12-14 They came to Canada as newlyweds in 1835 to carve a life out of a rugged wilderness. Ester McWaters Kelly gave birth to 10 children while living in their log home in Ontario's Brooke Township, her husband John away working in the Long Point foundry. The homesteaders were the beginning of a long line of hardy Canadian stock, visited by writer Helen Kerr in her new book Tender Years. Kerr's 229-page book chronicles her ancestors' passage through young Canada as well as her own family's struggles homesteading in Saskatchewan before drought and the depression drove them out. Tender Years with original family photographs and letters dating to 1882 also chronicles Kerr's difficult training years as a nurse in a mental hospital prior to the discovery of mind-altering psychotropic drugs. That training was put to the test during the exciting years she served as a nurse in the Canadian Army in France and England in World War II, including her whirlwind romance with a British officer.
