Codex Bezae Parker, Christian Amphoux, 2019-07-01 A group of biblical and patristic scholars and palaeographers met in Lunel Herault in June 1995 to discuss the many questions posed by Codex Bezae to our understanding of the use of the Gospels and Acts in early Christianity and of the text of the New Testament This collection makes the papers and debates of the colloquium available for a wider discussion The papers cover two broad areas The first addresses palaeographical questions The second covers textual matters subdivided between the Gospels and Acts The 24 contributors include J N Birdsall J Irigoin L Holtz B D Ehrman M W Holmes J K Elliott J M Auwers and M Boismard There is an introduction by the editors who also provide analyses of each main section The range of interests represented by the participants and by the papers has already stimulated fresh developments , The Poetry of Pierre Jean Jouve Margaret Callander, 1965

The Inverted Mirror Michael Nolan, 2006-09-01 It is hard to imagine nowadays that for many years France and Germany considered each other as arch enemies And yet for well over a century these two countries waged verbal and ultimately violent wars against each other This study explores a particularly virulent phase during which each of these two nations projected certain assumptions about national character onto the other distorted images motivated by antipathy fear and envy which contributed to the growing hostility between the two countries in the years before the First World War Most remarkably as the author discovered the qualities each country ascribed to its chief adversary appeared to be exaggerated or negative versions of precisely those qualities that it perceived to be lacking or inadequate in itself Moreover banishing undesirable traits and projecting them onto another people was also an essential step in the consolidation of national identity As such it established a pattern that has become all too familiar to students of nationalism and xenophobia in recent decades This study shows that antagonism between states is not a fact of nature but socially constructed The Ad Deum Vadit of Early Christian Discourses on Jesus' Prayer at Gethsemane Karl Olav Sandnes, 2015-12-22 From early on Christians passed down the account of Jesus's agony at the prospect of his own death and his prayer that the cup should pass from him Gethsemane Yet this is a troublesome aspect of Christian tradition Jesus was committed to his death but as it approached he prayed for his escape even as he submitted himself to God's will Ancient critics mocked Jesus and his followers for the events at Gethsemane The hero failed to meet the cultural standards for noble death and masculinity As such this story calls for further reflection and interpretation The present book unfolds discourses from the earliest centuries of Christianity to determine what strategies were developed to come to terms with Gethsemane The Embodied God Brittany E. Wilson, 2021 In The Embodied God Wilson focuses on depictions of God's body in the New Testament She argues that Luke Acts emerges as an important example of a New Testament text that portrays God as visible and corporeal and that this portrayal has significant implications for how we are to understand early Christology Night Thoughts Robert Fraser, 2012-02-16 This pioneering biography of the British poet and translator David Gascoyne 1916-2001 candidly describes his creative work involvement with surrealism addictions tormented private life and his many friendships in England and France Cyclopædia of the practice of medicine v. 14, 1877 Hugo Ziemssen, 1877 Cyclopædia of the Practice of Medicine Hugo Ziemssen, 1877 Et vous, qui dites-vous que je suis? Pierre Létourneau, Association catholique des études bibliques au Canada. Congrès, Michel Talbot, RRENAB. Symposium international, 2006 Journal of Cutaneous and Genito-urinary Diseases, 1897 The Westminster Review, 1893 The Franco-Prussian War Karine Varley, 2024-06-14 The Franco-Prussian War of 1870-71 has traditionally been seen as a limited conflict between French and German forces This edited volume challenges this view and shows that it was a war of ideas values and perceptions which transformed the political diplomatic and military culture across Europe Based on interdisciplinary research the book suggests that the war raised new questions about power the nation violence and notions of civilization which brought about a decisive shift in how warfare was experienced and perceived While the Franco-Prussian War may have begun as a traditional dynastic struggle it became a modern war and an important precursor to the First World War in its use of new weaponry and industrialized warfare At the same time the development of humanitarian movements and international law on the conduct of war meant that the fighting was subjected to unprecedented scrutiny while new technologies accelerated the pace at which narratives about the war were constructed and consumed This volume will appeal to scholars in the fields of war studies international relations and diplomacy and intellectual and cultural history It will also be a useful addition to undergraduate and postgraduate courses on nineteenth century European history and cultural studies L'Évangile selon saint Luc: 19,28-24,53 François Bovon,1991
