Sufism In The Secret History Of Persia Gnostica:

Sufism in the Secret History of Persia Milad Milani, 2014-10-14 Sufism formed one of the cultures of resistance which has existed in the social fabric of Persia since antiquity. Such resistance continues to manifest itself today with many looking to Sufism as a model of cooperation between East and West. Between traditional and modern Sufism in the Secret History of Persia explores the place of Sufi mysticism in Iran's intellectual and spiritual consciousness through traditional and contemporary Sufi thinkers and writers. Sufism in the Secret History of Persia examines the current of spirituality which extends from the old Iranian worship of Mithra to modern Islam. This current always contains elements of gnosis and inner knowing but has often provided impetus for socio-political resistance. The study describes how these persisting pre-Islamic cultural and socio-religious elements have secretly challenged Muslim orthodoxies and continue to shape the nature and orientation of contemporary Sufism.

Ritual Embodiment in Modern Western Magic Damon Zacharias Lycourinos, 2017-11-15 In the Western world magic has often functioned as an umbrella term for various religious beliefs and ritual practices that seek to influence events by harnessing supernatural power. The definition of these myriad occult and esoteric traditions have however usually come from those that are opposed to its practice, notably authorities in religious, legal and intellectual spheres. This book seeks to provide a new perspective directly from the practitioners of modern Western magic by exploring how a distinctive mode of embodiment and consciousness can produce a transition from an ordinary to a magical worldview. Starting with an introduction to the study of magic in the Western academy, the book then presents the author's own participant observation of five ethnographic case studies of modern Western magic. The focus of these ethnographic case studies is directed towards ideas and methods the informants employ to self-legitimise and self-represent as magicians. It concludes by discussing the phenomenological implications and issues around embodiment that are inherent to the contemporary practice of magic. This is a unique insight into the lived experience of practitioners of modern magic. As such it will be of keen interest to scholars of the Occult and New Religious Movements as well as Religious Studies academics examining issues around the embodiment and the anthropology of religion. The
