Most Influential Women of All Time Britannica Educational Publishing, 2009-10-01 Through the ages women have had to fight to be taken seriously have their work accepted and be considered the equal of men intellectually and creatively This book tips its hat to women such as Cleopatra Joan of Arc Sojourner Truth and Princess Diana who have made their mark and forever changed the world with their contributions

Contemporary Authors: 1945 to the Present Britannica Educational Publishing, 2013-06-01 Contemporary literature encompasses so many genres literary forms and themes that it would seem almost impossible to identify a unifying thread between them Yet in the tradition established by literary heavyweights who came before modern writers of all stripes and backgrounds have continued to entertain and to confront the social cultural and psychological realities of the times including everything from racial identity to war to technology with their own flair and insight The diversity of authors profiled herein from Toni Morrison to Sylvia Plath to Stephen King to David Foster Wallace attests to the scope and complexity of modern society

The Columbia Guide to South African Literature in English Since 1945 Gareth Cornwell, Dirk Kloppe, Craig MacKenzie, 2010 From the outset South Africa's history has been marked by division and conflict along racial and ethnic lines From 1948 until 1994 this division was formalized in the National Party's policy of apartheid Because apartheid intruded on every aspect of private and public life South African literature was preoccupied with the politics of race and social engineering Since the release from prison of Nelson Mandela in 1990 South Africa has been a new nation in the making inspired by a nonracial idealism yet beset by poverty and violence South African writers have responded in various ways to Njabulo Ndebele's call to rediscover the ordinary The result has been a kaleidoscope of texts in which evolving cultural forms and modes of identity are rearticulated and explored An invaluable guide for general readers as well as scholars of African literary history this comprehensive text celebrates the multiple traditions and exciting future of the South African voice Although the South African Constitution of 1994 recognizes no fewer than eleven official languages English has remained the country's literary lingua franca This book offers a narrative overview of South African literary production in English from 1945 to the postapartheid present An introduction identifies the most interesting and noteworthy writing from the period Alphabetical entries provide accurate and objective information on genres and writers An appendix lists essential authors published before 1945

Don't Tread On My Dreams Dora Taylor, 2014-12-12 Whether set in Cape Town Johannesburg or the remoteness of lonely farms these stories present an acute and heartfelt sensitivity for the troubles of ordinary people during apartheid They provide a rare historical record of the times revealing the hopes and dreams of people of all races that are only now becoming a reality Dora Taylor's powers of observation enable her to conjure up the vibrancy of a city the squalor of a shanty town or the peace of the veld Although the stories are often heart rendingly tragic there is always an underlying quality of hope springing from the author's intense desire that things should improve an objective to which she devoted her life
